that he was not a man that he should repent and that he would not lie. God hath said it and it shall be done. Num. 23:19. No, my friend, God has your number. He has your address and he can push your number any time and when he does you won't be able to send someone else. You won't be able to make it later, but you will go the very moment God calls you. And all those years of deceit you have been able to hide will be there open before your eyes. God has a book and in that book is your life. All those hidden things are there for you to see. God said, "the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous." I write it again God said, "He knoweth the way of the righteous." And the way of the ungodly shall perish." Ps. 16.

for your help and repentance for Jesus alone is the savior. And Jesus said his way was narrow and few there be who will find it. Can you find it?

Elementary School. Tickets may be purchased at the Baptist Building or at the door for $3.00 each.

places that are not theirs." God told Habakkuk, "I know they are terrible and dreadful. Not only that, but their ways are violence and they shall gather the captives as the sands." Verse 9.

Then Habakkuk wanted to know how God could use wicked people. Habakkuk said, "Lord, art thou not from everlasting. Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil and canst not look on iniquities." Now Habakkuk said, "Lord, I will take my stand. I am going to my watch tower and set myself to see and to hear what you will say."

I'll tell you, when a man of God gets an answer from God you can rest assured his people will be at ease. When God answered Habakkuk he said, "Habakkuk, I want you to write your vision. Not only do you write it on tablet, but I want you to make it plain. But to be that reed may run, and the vision is yet for an appointed time. But at the end it shall speak and not lie, though it tarry, wait for it, because it will surely come, it will not tarry." Hab. 2:2-3.

You see, God told Habakkuk that these people would not escape even though it looked like he was far off and he tarried long. He said, "You wait and see. I am coming to deliver my people because I have heard your prayers. Behold, his soul that is lifted up is not upright in him, but the just shall live by faith." Verse 3-4.

You see, I know for sure that God has the number of those who have brought shame to his name. He knows who you are and Jesus said there is nothing which is covered that shall not be revealed. There is nothing hidden which shall not be known. Matt. 10:26. God loves his people who are faithful. God will not have his people ignorant. When God was to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah he said, "Shall I hide from Abraham which I do." Gen. 18:17.

God told Moses when the people began to complain about food, God said, "You shall see whether by hand has become short and you shall see whether my word shall come to pass." Num. 11:23.
