

Social Side

Jennifer Dale Carter Revels Honored With Bridal Shower

Left to right: Hostess, Mrs. Ransey Oxendine, bride's mother, Mrs. Haris Carter, bride, Jennifer Dale Carter Revels, and bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Roy Revels. (Elmer W. Hunt photo)

A recent bridal shower was given in honor of Jennifer Dale Carter Revels at Green Pine Freewill Baptist Church in Pembroke, who is the recent bride of David Revels. Mrs. Revels is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haris Carter of Route 1, Pembroke, and Mr. Revels is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Revels of Pembroke.

Upon her arrival she was given a blue carnation corsage to accent her blue suit. Making the affair more enjoyable was her mother, Mrs. Haris Carter, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Ray Revels.

The bridal table was covered with a pink and yellow tablecloth. The center of attraction was the yellow and white carnation arrangement. Refreshments were: minis and peanuts, ham sandwiches, pineapple cheese sandwiches, cake squares and fruit punch.

Special guests were the bride's great aunts: Mrs. Charity Oxendine and Mrs. Lonnie (Penny) Locklear; her aunts:

Mrs. Neil (Arminda) Lowry and Mrs. Palmer Ray (Bonies) Bryant.

The shower was given by Mrs. Ransey (Opal) Oxendine. Approximately 65 guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. David Revels are residing at Raft Swamp Mobile Home Park in Lumberton. Mrs. Revels is a student at Robeson Technical Institute and Mr. Revels is employed with Western Auto in Pembroke and is a part time student at Robeson Technical Institute.

THE CAROLINA INDIAN VOICE
521-2826

THE CAROLINA INDIAN VOICE
Published Each Thursday by The Lumbee Publishing Co.

Attend the Church of your choice this Sunday

FIRST AMERICAN COOPERATIVE WAREHOUSE, INC. LUMBERTON, N. C.

An Open letter To Tobacco Growers

Mr. Farmer:

First American Cooperative Warehouse, Inc. solicits your designation for this tobacco season.

We feel that we should ask one question in this solicitation. How many times has your tobacco trade been solicited with grand promises about services and equal treatment involving selling time, only to find yourself being put off, sitting in line in the fall when you need to be selling your tobacco?

The members of FIRST AMERICAN COOPERATIVE WAREHOUSE, Inc. Promise:

- 1-An equal percentage of the sales time each week.
- 2-A booking system that will allow you to choose the number of sales you would have in a month, and the time and hour to put your tobacco on the floor in order to avoid waiting in line.
- 3-A competent staff to guarantee you fast and courteous service and top dollar for your tobacco.
- 4-A modern facility with computer scales, clean and private restrooms, an air-conditioned waiting room, and ample parking space with non congested loading and unloading facilities.

The coop way not only guarantees an equal sales time, but an equal share in the ownership and profits of your warehouse.

The choice is clearly yours. Do you want to be a part of a warehouse with a community spirit which will make you proud to bring your family with you to sell your tobacco?

SELL THE COOP WAY! Any question concerning the First American Cooperative Warehouse can be answered by any of the board members listed below:

- Welton Locklear •Bradie Locklear •Rufus Burns, Jr.
- Bobby Moody •Dobber Oxendine •Ernest Almond
- Lacy Collins •Timothy Strickland

Fairgrove Library Club Places in State Competition

Left to right are Mable Jones, Esther Oxendine, Cynthia Hill, Carolyn Lowery and in front Michael Sampson holding State Award-winning Club Scrapbook with Edith Hunt. The Fairgrove School Library Club received second place in scrapbook competition at the Six students of the Fairgrove School Library Club attended the Thirtieth Annual Conference of the North Carolina High School Library-Media Association at the Great Smokies Hilton in Asheville on March 17-19. Students attending were Michael Sampson, immediate past District President and Chairman of the State Conference Exhibit Committee for the 1977 Conference; Edith Hunt; Mable Jones; Cynthia Hill; Esther Oxendine and Carolyn Lowery. The students were accompanied to the Conference by Ms. Vivian Oxendine, Media-Aide at Fairgrove School.

The Fairgrove School Library Club entered their club scrapbook in state competition and received second place award. The Club has received state awards on all scrapbooks which they have entered in state NCHSLA competition, receiving third place in 1975, second place in 1976, and second place in 1977.

recent North Carolina School Association State in Asheville. The scrapbook was the Key to Knowledge motto of organization.

Prior to the Club Library Club Cherokee and Boundary Review also toured the Club in Asheville. In the afternoon, the was opened nomination of the next year and speeches of the Jeanne S. Roberts Miss North Carolina guest speaker on Friday evening the banquet. The Masquerade Club best-dressed character. This followed by a

On Saturday reports were new officers were the next year at Darlyn McCann from West Carolina School; Tony Central Vice-President; Strickland of All School as Secretary; Santiamasso as Treasurer.

THE CAROLINA INDIAN VOICE 521-2826

PATES SUPPLY CO. Of Pembroke

EASTER PARADE OF VALUES

SHOP PATES' MEN'S SHOP AND PATES' LADIES' SHOP FOR YOUR NEW EASTER OUTFIT!

Suitable Styles for Spring

Large Selection

Of Spring Suits
3 Piece and 2 Piece

At PATES' MEN'S SHOP

PATES' LADIES' SHOP
FOR YOUR NEW
SPRING AND EASTER
DRESSES!

SHOP PATES

FOR VALUE

QUALITY!

Spring & Easter DRESSES