HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

To all mothers: As we honor you on Sunday, May 8th, your special day, may you take pride in serving our God and for your loving families.

As many of you know, Mother's Day originated in 1908 when the founder, Miss Anna Jarvis, began the movement as a tribute to her mother, Mrs. Anna Reeves Jarvis, a daughter of a Methodist minister. Mrs. Jarvis died in Philadelphia on May 9th, 1905.

One year later, her daughter, Miss Anna Jarvis, invited some of her friends to join in an informal tribute to her mother. And on May 10th, 1908, in Andrews Methodist Episcopal Church at Crafton, Pa. the first Mother's Day service was held. America's greatest mothers are church-going mothers, a proud heritage for all indeed. There is no better way to honor your mother than to give your heart to her God.

DOUBLE THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Proverbs 31:25-27 "Strength and honor are her clothing and she shall rejoice in time to come she openeth her mouth with wisdom and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household and catcheth not the bread of idleness."

Please remember all the sick and shut-ins in your prayers.

First Pentecostal Holiness Church Scene For Chavis, Wood Wedding

Easley - First Pentecostal Holiness Church, Easley, served as the setting for the marriage pledges of Miss Lucinda Marie Chavis and Garland Jeffery Wood on Friday, April 28, 1977, at five o'clock in the afternoon. The Reverend James Mitchell Brewer, Sr., church pastor, presided at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. L.E. Dunn, pianist, and Mrs. Jackie Neal, vocalist, presented a program of lovely wedding music. Angelo Bryan Rogers and Lavinia Susan Wood kept the guest register.

In the church sanctuary, palms, spiral and brass candleabra enhanced with foliage, and urns of white and yellow spring flowers formed an appropriate setting for the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, William Chavis of Easley, chose a traditional wedding gown of white silk organza enhanced with lace overlays. The Empire bodice featured long sleeves, with deep cuffs and scooped neckline accented in lace edging. The gracefully full skirt fell to a chapel train and the fingertip veil of illusion, adorned with lace flowers, fell from a caplet crown. She carried a cascade of white sweetheart roses interspersed with foliage and white stephanotis.

Mr. Richard Wood of Sunset was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Miss Ann Dunn of Durham Mill Road, Miss Dede Cartee, Homestead Road, and Miss Kathy McCollum, Cedar Rock St., all of Pickens. Miss Shannon Chavis was flower girl. Attendants wore pastel floral gowns with sheer capes and each carried a long-stemmed yellow rose. Curtis Rogers of Pickens served as best man. Richard Wood of Sunset, Wayne Owens and Jim Medlin of Pickens were ushers, and Mickey Holcombe served as ringbearer.

Mrs. David Winchester and Mrs. Paul Sutherland were hostesses at a reception in the church fellowship hall following the ceremony. Punch and a variety of party foods were served from a refreshment table overlaid in white and centered with a spring arrangement of green and yellow daisies. The three-tiered wedding cake, accented in green and yellow, displayed a flowing fountain.

The bride, a graduate of Pickens Senior High School, is presently an employee of Si Shirmakers in Pickens. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hartman Chavis, Sr., of Route 8, Easley. The groom is the son of Mrs. Garland Wood of Route 3, Pickens, and the late Mr. Wood. Also a graduate of Pickens High School, he is associated with Walter Lee

Mrs. Garland Jeffery Wood

Builders. The bride chose a yellow knit dress during trip to Myrtle for their return. Mr. Wood will reside at Bridge Road, Pickens.

Mrs. Melodee of the entertained members wedding party, friends in the following: Easley, following the Wood wedding, Thursday, April 7. The bride and groom chose the occasion's keepsakes to the attendants.

NOTE OF THANKS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT: The family wishes to express words of appreciation to everyone for their many acts of kindness rendered during the time of our loved one's illness and our bereavement. Clyde Brewington
