According to Scripture

Evangelist Ted Brooks Box 339 Pembroke, N.C. 28372

THE POWER OF A PERSISTENT PRAYER

Luke 18:1 "And he spoke a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint."

I have heard it said that we should pray and I heard it said that some were led to pray, but Jesus said that we faint not. We ought to always pray, not at bed times or in the morning, but we should always pray. Some will say I pray and that and I don't need to pray any more for that. If nothing happens, then I will hear it alone. When this comes to your mind you should resist and rebuke doubt. Not lose heart, but resist all opposition, fear, unbelief, discouragement. We should not use any excuse for unbelief when our prayers are not answered immediately. It is a divine blessing bought right to get an answer. So, we should not lose heart. The only reason I know why a prayer should go unanswered is stated in verse 9: "Certain people who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and despised others. If you don't love your neighbor as yourself, and if you don't love Jesus with all your heart, soul and mind, then your answer will not come. Neither will your prayer be answered. Jesus Christ is a prayer answerer. He will hear and deliver his people."

Now read verse 2 where Christ said there was a city, a judge which fear neither God nor man and there was a widow in that city also and she came to him and said "Avenge me of mine adversary." Verse 3. And He would not for a while. But afterwards he said within himself, "though I fear not God, nor regard man, yet because of this woman troubling me I will avenge her. This woman came to him asking justice to be done unto her. But I hear Paul say in Romans 12:19 "Vengeance is mine; I will repay saith the Lord." This man had doubt and unbelief towards God and she turned to man and man said because she troubleth me I will avenge her for she continues coming. She makes me weary said the judge. She has repeated attacks. She has worn me out. I am helpless. No wonder the judge with his hard heart became willing to see that she got justice.

Now read what Jesus said in verse 6. Hear what the unjust judge saith. "And shall not God avenge his own elect which cry day and night unto him though he bear long with them?" When do we quit praying? Never, though he be long we believe Jesus will hear our prayers for we pray day and night. Jesus said, "I tell you, I will avenge them speedily." Verse 8. But we should never trust ourselves. We are to lean on Jesus. We are to cast all our cares on Jesus for he cares for you and I.

Jesus went on to tell of two men, a Pharisee and a Publican and he told about when they went up to pray in the temple the Pharisee stood and prayed and said that he was glad that he was not like the unjust, adulterers, extortionists. He said I fast twice a week. I even pay my tithes. Let me tell you, we have people today who fast and pay tithes, but it is done in vain. They think it gives them the right to judge or teach or tell someone how to live or dress but it is in vain. These things will not save a person and it does not make you better than others. Jesus said the one who said Lord, merciful to me, this is the Lord who went home to be with Jesus. This is the kind whose prayers are answered. Not those who think because they are paid up, fed up and got the preacher on their side and the unjust judges of this world. He who is merciful and who is not ashamed to be called a brother in Christ.

We need to examine ourselves Paul said in II Cor. 13:5 that we should see whether you are in the faith or not, prove yourselves, be as the widow. She got results from the world from an infidel of utter selfishness and unconcern for the needs of the people. A person who said he did not fear God. How much more we can get from a just God. Like the Publican who in just a short time said the right words and went home justified because Jesus has the authority to justify us for it was his blood that has the atoning power to wash away sin.

A NOTE OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bell and their children wish to thank all their friends and relatives for the prayers, gifts, flowers, and cards during the illness of Mr. Bell last month. Mr. Bell has made a complete recovery with the help of God and prayers. Many thanks to you all for caring for our father. The Family

I believe in prayer. I believe God answers prayer. But I believe also one must believe that Jesus is sufficient for all needs, that he is has no respect of persons. What he has done for others he will do for you. As the song was once sung, "With arms wide open, he'll pardon you." David said he would brake the bond of sickness that man would praise the Lord, even in the shadow of death and while they sit in darkness Jesus believed them out of them all. Oh, that man would praise the Lord. David knew what it was to be delivered. David knew also that there was death which was only a step away, yet David could say, "Hear my prayers, O Lord. And let my prayer and cry come unto thee." Ps. 102:1.
