Blood Pressure Clinic Held for Senior Citizens

The Red Springs Neighborhood Service Center, operated by Four County Community Services, Inc. is supervised by Mrs. Madie Rae Locklear and Ms. Nazarene Wright. The center is located on Brown Avenue in Red Springs, N.C. and serves anyone living within the areas of Pembroke, Wakulla, Red Hill, Moss Neck, Philadelphia, Buie, Union Chapel, Prospect and Red Banks. One of the Center's 13 components consist of a Senior Citizen group which is the Red Springs Senior Citizen Club. The Club meets every Wednesday from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. at the Red Springs Center.

June 8th, 1977 was an exciting day for the senior citizens. Ms. Martha Creech and Ms. Blanche Hardee, Registered Nurses from Robeson County Public Health Department, Lumberton, N.C. visited the Center and checked all senior citizens' blood pressures. The group consisted of forty senior citizen members. Out of the group, approximately 6 members needed special care. The Registered Nurses will be back within four to six weeks to make a follow-up on the special care members. The group expressed their appreciation to the ladies for their concern for the elderly.
