HOMECOMING AT PROSPECT

Prospect United Methodist Church observed its annual Homecoming Oct. 30, 1977. It is a special day at Prospect for friends and church members to come together to worship and enjoy a fellowship dinner together. Many friends and relatives came home for this special occasion.

One of the highlights of this year's Homecoming was the unveiling of the portrait of Mrs. Leola Locklear. Mrs. Carrie M. Dial gave words of appreciation, and asked that all stand in a moment of silent prayer in memory of all former members who had helped to make Prospect Church what it is today.

Mrs. Rosa M. Moore, president of the United Methodist Women, made the presentation to the church in memory of the oldest member of the U.M.W. Mrs. Emma Lee Locklear gave the acceptance speech on behalf of the Locklear family. (Jimmy Hunt Photo.)

Grandfather Sees Homecoming Queen

PEMBROKE — Lero Locklear of Pembroke made a trip to Stafford, Va., last weekend to visit his oldest son, Eugene Locklear, and his family. He attended the Stafford homecoming football game, at which his granddaughter, Tonya Locklear, was one of the two freshmen homecoming queens who rode on the freshmen float.

Tonya, 14, is in the ninth grade at Stafford. Her escort was a young man named Tony Walker.

On the trip Locklear was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Belton Jones and family and Mr. Bill Chavis and family.
