Warriors Lose Opener

by L.D. Malcolm

Elizabethown - Pembroke Sr. High's Warriors dropped their first conference game of the season to East Bladen here Tuesday night, 44-43.

The game, which went into overtime, was marred by controversial calls throughout the first and second half. Due to these calls, the Warriors had trouble generating any kind of an offense and saw a 10 point lead fade away.

High for East Bladen was Marion Robison with 16 points. Johnny Pipkins of Pembroke led all scorers with 22.

The Warriors could fair no better in the J.V. contest as a desperation shot at the buzzer failed. Roderick Smith was high for East Bladen with 12 points. Ricky Monroe and Telford Locklear shared honors for Pembroke scoring 12 points each.

The jayvees fell to E. Bladen 35-34.

Food for the workers was donated by McDonalds and by Winn-Dixie.

Pregnancy Related Questions head 'Help Line' Calls

Problem pregnancy questions led the list of topics dealt with this past week end by Help Line volunteers.

Help Line, a crisis intervention, referral, and information service operated under the auspices of Southeastern Regional Mental Health Center, conducted a 29-hour telephone answering marathon on Friday night through Saturday night at 11 p.m.

According to program director Hank Haney, the marathon resulted in 38 productive calls with pregnancy-related questions comprising almost 19 percent of the total.

A quarter of the total calls were completed when referrals were made to other agencies in the area. Eight persons were referred to either the food stamp section of the Department of Social Services, the Health Department, mental health, the Better Business Bureau.
