Mt. Airy News
by Violet Locklear

Rev. Winford Locklear delivered a wonderful message on Sunday morning at Mt. Airy Church. The adult ladies chorus rendered special music.

The Brotherhood visited in the home of Mrs. Docia Jacobs last Friday night and rendered special music. Mrs. Jacobs has been in poor health for the past year or so, but she still seems to be in good spirits. To know her you surely would love her.

I thoroughly enjoyed the appreciation dinner last Saturday night at Pembroke Senior High School for the CIV. There was a huge crowd in attendance. I see now everyone enjoys the paper about as much as I do.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

I learned it is not what happens to you in your life but what you think about situations that either makes you happy or unhappy. You are responsible for your own happiness.

In Memory of Sanford Sampson

The following prayer was led by Mr. Bernard Lowry at the Senior Citizens Fellowship Meal in memory of Mr. Sanford Sampson:

"One of our dear friends slipped away yesterday about five in the coolness of the afternoon. We here feel the loss and we should spend a few minutes in meditation in remembrance of this dear friend.

"Shall we pray. Our Heavenly Father, in the midst of our sorrow, the sun is still shining, the birds still sing, the leaves and buds are green and beautiful, and we still enjoy the quietness and coolness of the breeze. We thank Thee for a life that reflected Thee, like the sunshine does. We thank Thee for a life that reflected Thee like the birds that sing. We thank Thee for a life that reflected Thee like the buds and green leaves do. And, we thank Thee for a life that was gentle and quiet like the gentle breeze that blows. When we too shall have gone this way may we too, so have lived that these things may be said of us. These things we humbly pray in Thy name. Amen."

NO ONE CRIED FOR ME

My life was one full of trying moments
Hard work was the only work I ever knew
The weight of the world seemed to be upon my shoulders
I found the going rough
By some miracle I chanced to find a girl
I was shy and so was she
But the love we found together took the shyness away
Her sweet innocence captivated me
And she took me for what I was Spring would come and go
We found delight in all the seasons
And my heart was glad
But I guess fate was against us
Because one spring day she died crying in my arms
My heart was heavy
I was misty eyed
I could not make it alone
Searching for something I knew I could never find again
I fell by the wayside and started to waste away
No one felt saddened by my demise
I died alone
Without company on a cold, windy day
No one cried
No one tried
To feel something for a poor soul like myself
And in my grave
I turned my head and a tear fell from my eyes
