Mrs. Beulah Locklear celebrated her 68th birthday Sunday, October 22, at Mt. Atry Recreation Center. A surprise dinner was given by her children.

friends and relatives.

The menu consisting of chicken and dumplings, chicken and potato salad, ham, fruit, barbeque, slaw, cakes, pies, coffee and soft drinks was served to about 100

Relatives attending were her husband, Willie M. Locklear and children, Earlene Locklear, Mary Dicie Lowry, William E. Locklear and Lambert Locklear; brothers, Clayton Carter, Harlio Carter, John L. Carter, and her sister, Doll Hunt. She also has eight grandchildren attending the occasion.

Celebrates 5th Birthday

PEMBROKE-Memoir: M. Julio Erlin, the youngest son of Mario F. Ozandine celebrated his 5th birthday Oct. 29 in his home at Guatemala City, Guatemala.

Julio Erlin's family background is one of extreme poverty and privation. The lad was desperately in need of proper nourishment, clothing and attention. Mrs. Ozandine was happy to welcome him to her family group.

Ms. Ozandine sponsors Julio through the auspices of World Vision International, an organization dedicated to the care of poor children throughout the world.

For a nominal fee, one can sponsor a child like Julio as Ms. Ozandine is doing.

Indian Memorial Cottage Benefit Dinner

Pembroke-Noting the ravages of inflation, the Committee for the Indian Memorial Cottage, has scheduled another benefit dinner. The last one, held in November 1977, netted some $14,000 and was termed a "rousing success" by all those who attended.

The dinner will be held at the Pembroke State University Cafeteria. Speakers and the program are tentative. They will be announced in a future issue.

Tickets are available from the following members of the committee for the Indian Memorial Cottage: Dr. English E. Jones, Pembroke State University; Purnell Swett, Supt. of the Robeson County Schools; Ms. Josephine Ransom; and J. Garth Locklear, Chief Narcotics Officer for the Robeson County Sheriff's Department.

The tickets are $100.00 per couple. Tickets are also available from the office of the Carolina Indian Voice.

Other locations will be announced shortly. Ralph Smith, member of T.V. Community Arthur Smith, and a son in his own right, was guest speaker at the last dinner which was also given with the presence of a Miss North Carolina and Mrs. Beulah Hunt, wife of Locklear.

Saddletree Jaycees Practice Parliamentary Skills

M. Hays and his agriculture class (parliamentary team) gave a class on Tuesday night, Oct. 16, to the Saddletree Jaycees on Parliamentary Procedure and ways to bring motions to the floor and how to handle the motion once it gets to the floor, and other important rules from Robert's Rules of Order. Eddie Holmes is the Secretary of the South Pro-
