ELECTIONS NOTED FOR LACK OF SURPRISES

Senator Jesse Helms & Rep. Charlie Rose Re-elected Easily

LUMBERTON-It was almost blasé. By 11:30 p.m. everyone had left election central in Lumberton except election officials and media people. It was anti-climatic. Most of those who usually excite the masses were running without opposition. They had weeded out their opposition during primaries in May.

Those with opposition were...
Senator Jesse Helms vs. John Ingram

County commissioners Herman Dial, Sammy Cox and Bill Herndon ran without opposition. So too did Senator Sam R. Noble and Sheriff Hubert Stone and scads of superior and appeals court judges. David Britt, a Robeson native

Robeson County carried the county for Democrat John Ingram unofficially 7253 to Senator Jesse Helms' 4931 but Helms won handily statewide. With approximately 80 percent of the vote counted Republican Helms was winning with approximately 54 percent of the vote. He had tallied at press time approximately 470,000 votes to Ingram's 403,000.

Rep. Charlie Rose vs. Ray Schrupp

It was strictly no contest. Rep. Charlie Rose swamped Republican Ray Schrupp 9678 to 2363 in Robeson County. At press time Rose had tallied more than 36,000 votes in the 7th Congressional District to Schrupp's approximately 12,000.

BENEFIT DINNER FOR INDIAN MEMORIAL COTTAGE ANNOUNCED

PEMBROKE-Hoping to capture the "special quality" of last year's very successful fund raising dinner for the Indian Memorial Cottage on the Odum Home Campus in Pembroke, organizers have confirmed that humorist Ralph Smith will be the after dinner speaker at this year's benefit dinner. Smith was the speaker at last year's successful dinner.

Smith is best known as the brother of T.V. personality Arthur Smith on whose TV show he appears weekly as the resident humorist. Smith is a popular speaker at dinners like this one.

The benefit dinner will be held November 18, 1978 at 6:30 p.m. in the cafeteria at Pembroke State University. The cost of tickets is $100.00 per couple. Tickets may be purchased from any of the following individuals:

- Juddie Revels Jr., Pembroke, N.C. 521-4298; McDuffie Cummings, Pembroke, N.C. 521-9758; Jim Paul, Pembroke, N.C. 521-4244 (office), 521-4365 (home); Carolina Indian Voice, Bruce Barton, Pembroke, N.C. 521-2826; Dobs Enterprises Inc., Dobs Oxendine, Jr., 2516 W. 5th St., Lumberton, N.C. 738-3728 - 738-3729; James F. (Freddie) Maynor, Pembroke, N.C. 521-9260 (home), 738-9651 ext. 367 (office); Lee E. Sampson, Rt. 4, Box 175, Lumberton, N.C. 521-2730; Glenn Maynor, Lumberton, N.C. 739-3032 (office), 738-4902 (home); Rev. C.W. Maynor, Rt. 1, Pembroke, N.C. 521-4717; Jerry D. The Indian Memorial Cottage is a project of the Indian community on the Odum Home campus. The cottage will memorialize the memory of past Indian leaders and supporters when the Odum Home Children's Home was an orphanage for Indian children only. The Odum Home campus is now a part of the Baptist Children's Home network. The cottage was recently dedicated and is nearing completion. The dinner is planned to help make up the approximately $20,000 needed to overcome inflation and finish the labor of love. The cottage will house 12 students and house parents in a "home" setting. Dr. English E. Jones heads the building committee of the Indian Memorial Cottage. He is assisted by Mr. Tommy Swett, Rev. Harvey Brewington, Mrs. Josephine Ransom Rev. C.W. Maynor, Rev. Tony Brewington, Rev. Welton Lowry, Mr. Purnell Swett, Mr. Garth Locklear and Rev. Willard Maynor. The late and esteemed Rev. Roy

Miss Lumbee Receives A Lowry Chevrolet

TRYON, N.C.--Jim Lowry, owner of Lowry Chevrolet in Tryon, North Carolina is shown presenting the keys to a 1979 Chevrolet Monza to Miss Lumbee, 1978, Miss Phyllis Bullard. Looking on (right) is Mrs. Florence Ransom, the official chaperone for Miss Lumbee.

Lowry, a native of Robeson County and a Lumbee Indian, is the son of Mrs. Myrtle Lowry and the late Rev. Harvey Lowry. Tryon, North Carolina is approximately forty five miles from Asheville, North Carolina. He is married to the former Phyllis Locklear (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bracy Locklear of Pembroke). They have 2 children, Carl and Jayne.

Each year Lumbee Homecoming sponsors the Miss Lumbee Pageant. One of the awards is the use of a new car, this year a 1979 Chevrolet Monza. The automobile was purchased from Lowry Chevrolet by Lumbee Homecoming.

Associate Editor announces "It's a Girl!"

Connie Brayboy, associate editor of The Carolina Indian Voice and wife of John R. Brayboy, gave birth to a healthy baby girl Tuesday, Nov. 11, 1978 at 11:18 a.m. Baby Brayboy weighed approximately 9 pounds at birth. No name had been decided upon at press time.

The Brayboys have three children other than Baby Brayboy, all boys. They are "Denny," "Lenny," and "Kenny."

Maynor and Mr. Sanford Sampson were also members of the original committee and served with distinction.

Also providing entertainment at the dinner will be the popular gospel singing group, the Harpstones. Other entertainment is being planned also.

Dr. English E. Jones will serve as master of ceremonies.

The cottage, when completed, will cost approximately $180,000 with at least half of that given in free labor by Indian artisans and tradesmen.

Dr. Jones said recently, "Our goal in building the Indian Memorial Cottage is simply to honor our Indian predecessors who began Odum Home with the help of many people of many races and kept the doors open through difficult times. We want to memorialize their memories. We do not want our children to grow up not knowing about these wonderful people. They set a good example for all of us. We prize their memory and wish to memorialize it for the generations to follow."

General Manager of 'Strike at The Wind' Resigns

Robeson Historical Drama Inc. announced Tuesday the resignation of General Manager Lane Hudson effective November 30, 1978.

According to Adolph Dial, Chairman of the historical organization, a general manager is now being sought for the 1979 season of "Strike at the Wind!"

"Lane has our sincere appreciation for his fine work this year," stated Dial, "and it won't be easy finding a replacement. Anyone interested in applying should have experience in fund raising, office management, public relations, and sales."

Hudson began work with "Strike at the Wind!" in 1976 as public relations director and assumed the general manager position last January. He is a 1976 graduate of Pembroke State University.

"Strike at the Wind!", Randolph Umberger's outdoor drama, the story of the Lumbee Indians and Robeson County, will play next summer July 5 through August 25. An average of 500 persons have seen "Strike at the Wind!" each night since it premiered in 1976. According to Dial, resumes for general manager should be mailed to "Strike at the Wind!", P.O. Box 1059, Pembroke, N.C. 28372.
