MT. AIRY NEWS

by Violet Locklear

The Brotherhood rendered special music on Sunday morning and Sunday night at Mt. Airy church.

Boy Scouts observed Sunday troop 326 motto: "God and Country." We would like to thank Brother Rencil P. Locklear and his fine workers in our boy scouts program. They are making a noble effort to instill Christian Character into our young men.

The Young Adult Ladies visited in the home of Mrs. Edith Locklear. They prepared dinner for her and her family Sunday.

Different classes are scheduled to go each Sunday this month.

Mr. James Oxendine and Mr. James H. Locklear were able to be in church.

Rev. Titus Locklear, a special friend and Brother to our church, brought the evening message.

We are hoping that our youth are getting excited about their weekend Retreat at Camp Dixie in St. Pauls, February 16-18. We expect a good feeling from you about this spiritual event.

Our church revival has been set for March 18-25. That is only a few short weeks away. Keep it in mind. Lets start with ourselves.

The monthly singing will be held this Sunday night, we are suppose to have some featured groups. We invite all Choirs and everyone else is welcome.

Prayer and song service was held in the home of Mrs. Rockie Jane Locklear last Thursday night. Mr. Bill Branch was the director. Everyone really had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tyner and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Carl Locklear spent the weekend visiting relatives and friends in Kinston, N.C.

Mrs. Sara Oxendine is confined to her home due to illness. She is under a doctors care. We hope her condition starts improving so she can resume her duties of staying with our mother.

Mrs. Violet Locklear, Mr. Bill Branch and Mrs. Darlene Carter and children visited in the home of Mrs. Dora Francis Emmanuel last Friday night. She prepared supper for them. They enjoyed being in her home.

Mr. Bill Buck Locklear, Mr. Herman Maynor, Mr. Russell Locklear, Jr. and Mr. Ronnie

Locklear left Monday for Florida on a fishing trip. They are expected back this weekend.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Honor due to parents: As I think of my mother at her age, the question, comes to my mind, for how long a time should she honor his parents? "Hearken unto thy father that begot thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old." Proverbs 23:22. As long as parents live, they should be honored and respected by their children. The duty does not cease at maturity, nor when the child leaves the parental roof, but continues throughout life.

I thank God for our wonderful pastor. The work which he is doing cannot be defined in words not only in the Church but community and elsewhere. May God bless him and his family, even the little children love him beyond love. I know from experience of my own grandchildren.
