Woman's Auxillary Day Held At Mt. Olive

Warriors Rally to Edge Lumberton

by David Mahala

Pembroke-Kelvin Sampson scored from third base on Bobby Taylor's sacrifice fly to right field in the bottom of the seventh inning as Pembroke's Warriors edged the Lumberton Pirates 4-3 in non-conference action here yesterday afternoon.

The Pirates took advantage of several Warrior miscues in the opening inning to score their first run. With one out, Darrel Thomas reached first base on an error, Reggie McNeil's single got by Pembroke's right fielder Reggie Didier and Thomas scored. McNeil going to third on the error. Lumberton got another baserunner aboard before Mike Olson popped up to first baseman Bobby Taylor. Taylor's throw to catcher Donnie Carter at the plate was on the money as Carter tagged McNeil who had attempted to steal home.

PEMBROKE--The Woman's Auxillary Founder's Day was recognized by the women of Mt. Olive Pentecostal Holiness Church Sunday, March 10, along with the rest of the membership.

Services during the workshop service were conducted by the Woman's Auxillary of Mt. Olive.

Participating in church services, women of the auxillary who made up a special choir for worship service. Also helping through the week of activities were the girl's auxillary of the church, the women's auxillary of the future.

Special speaker, Mrs. Jettie Parker, was introduced by Mrs. Helen Faye Locklear, president of the Woman's Auxillary of Mt. Olive.

Mrs. Parker and her husband were missionaries in Africa for nineteen years and now pastor a church in Sanford, North Carolina. Mrs. Parker is serving as president of the N.C. Conference of the Woman's Auxillary.

The theme this year is taken from 1 Chronicles, 16:8: "Make Known His deeds among the people..."

The Woman's Auxillary of Mt. Olive Church honored Ms. Christine Burke as their Woman of the Year for 1979.

Flowers representing the Purple and Gold colors of the auxillary were displayed during the services.

Mrs. Burke received a gift certificate from Belks as a token of appreciation from the Woman's Auxillary.

The next meeting of the auxillary will be held in the home of Mrs. Helen Faye Locklear on March 20. Meetings begin at 7:30 p.m. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Otha Carol Swett, a nurse who will talk on Breast Cancer.

Precinct Meeting Planned

Each precinct will meet on Thursday, April 19 at 8 p.m. for the purposes of electing officers, electing 10 committee members, electing delegates to the county convention and transacting any other precinct business, according to Dr. E.B. Turner, Chairman of the Robeson County Democratic Party.

Dr. Turner also reminds everyone that the Robeson County Democratic Convention will be held on Saturday, May 19 at 12 noon at the Robeson County Court House in the Superior Court Room.

Mike Sampson singled to open up Pembroke's half the inning. Sampson promptly stole second when the ball got by the pirate catcher, Mickey Britt, and then stole third and home when Britt made his second error. Ricky Ivey struck out the next two Warrior batters and got Bobby Taylor to ground out to end the inning.

Ricky Ivey did some damage in his own favor in the top of the third when he hit a line drive to right field which Reggie Didier misjudged, allowing Ivey to advance to third with a standup triple. Darrel Thomas stroked another triple, this one to deep centerfield, scoring Ivey to send the Pirates on top 2-1. Starter Dwylian Locklear walked the next batter, Reggie McNeil, on four straight pitches. On a pickup attempt, Locklear threw the ball to short stop Mike Sampson who was covering second base. It was a game of cat-and-mouse as Sampson tried to peg either McNeil or Darrel Thomas as third. Sampson faked a throw to first and whipped the ball to the plate where Donnie Carter tagged Thomas on a close play. Mike McNeil eventually scored after stealing second base when Dwylian Locklear uncorked a wild pitch which got away from Carter.

Pembroke, loaded the bases with two out in the bottom of the third inning, thanks to a walk and an error by Darrel Thomas. The Pirates second baseman, Lumberton squelched the Warriors' rally when they forced Bobby Taylor at second base on a fielders choice.

Coach Ronnie Chavis brought Allen Oxendine in from left field to take over the pitching chores after Dwylian Locklear walked Mike Parnell to open the fifth inning. Oxendine struck out Mickey Britt before giving up a single to Charles "Swatte" Mike Sampson. Oxendine doused the Pirates' hopes when he caught Carrey Reid's pop fly and flipped the ball to Billy Joe Maynor for the double play.

After Pembroke got two base runners abroad and failed to score, Allen Oxendine proved his worth when he set down opposing pitcher Ricky Ivey on three consecutive strikes. The Warriors got a groundout from Darrel Thomas and pop up from Reggie McNeil to end the inning.

Allen Oxendine led off in the bottom of the inning with a single to right. Kelvin Sampson reached first base on a fielder's choice which forced Oxendine at second. Sampson stole both second and third base when a pick off throw by the Pirates' new pitcher, Ty Moore, was out of Buddy Ivey's grasp. Bobby Taylor grounded to the short stop and was thrown out at first but Kelvin Sampson was able to score from third base on the long throw stolen base of the game, sliding into second base under Mickey Britt's throw. He went to third base when Ty Moore uncorked a wild pitch which got by Britt. Bobby Taylor provided the late game heroics when he lobbed a sacrifice fly to right field. The throw to the plate was just behind the straggling Sampson who slid into home with the winning run as the Warriors' dugout erupted.

PSU Upward Bound Student Attends Presidential Classroom

Terry Clark

PSU's Upward Bound Project participated in a unique government study program in Washington, DC by sending a student representative to attend the 1979 Presidential Classroom for Young Americans. Terry Clark represented Fairgrove High School and PSU's Upward Bound Project as a member of the Classroom's National Student Body.

During the intensive one-week program, Terry joined 400 other outstanding high school students from across the nation and over seas in an in-depth study of government and politics through direct contact with government leaders and Washington observers. Students attended formal seminars at which national decision-makers, carefully selected to be representatives of the full spectrum of current political thought, discussed the numerous operations and responsibilities of the Federal government.

Each seminar was followed by a question-and-answer period in which students were free to challenge or weigh the point of view presented. Smaller, post-seminar discussion groups and "tie-togethers" sessions gave the students an opportunity to evaluate what they had heard and make an informed judgement on the realities of the exercise of power in our modern democratic system.

Several of the seminars were on-site briefings at Federal agencies and on Capitol Hill. The curriculum focused upon the nature of the Federal institutions and the decision making processes that are responsible for the formation of national public policies.

The goal of the program is to foster leadership potential and civic responsibility among the student leaders by exposing them to the dynamics of our democratic system at its nucleus Washington, D.C.

Chartered in 1968 as a non profit educational program, Presidential Classroom has provided more than 18,000 youngsters with firsthand exposure to prominent government leaders and key observers of official Washington. Among past speakers have been Senators, Representatives, Justices of Supreme Court, Cabinet Secretaries, members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, foreign ambassadors, White House staff, news media personalities and high level executives from many different

Federal agencies and the private sector.

Complementing the formal learning experience of the Program was the opportunity for students to explore the geographic, cultural and socio economic diversity of their peers in the National Student Body. Sharing a common interest in leadership and government, the students represent a cross section of American society and provide one another with valuable perspectives on our national diversity.

Clark is the son of Mrs. Geneva H. Clark of Route 3, Fairmont, NC. He is a junior at Fairgrove High School and is very active in sports, especially basketball. Terry has been enrolled in PSU's Upward Bound Project for one year.
