

THE CAROLINA INDIAN VOICE

PUBLISHED EACH THURSDAY

Dedicated To The Best In All Of Us

VOLUME 7 NUMBER 13

PEMBROKE, NC.

THURSDAY

MARCH 29, 1979

15¢ PER COPY

Indian Unity Conference Underway in Fayetteville

Walter J. Pinchbeck remembered

Pembroke-Recently Pembroke State University honored the late and beloved Walter J. Pinchbeck by naming their newly constructed maintenance building in his honor.

Pinchbeck was superintendent of grounds for many years and retired from PSU's maintenance staff after 28

Dr. English E. Jones recalled "Mr. Walter" as one who made "men out of boys." Dr. Jones also said, "He would have loved to have worked in a facility like

Mr. Walter's exploits in scouting dominated the dedication service.

Three Eagle Scouts under Mr. Walter's tutelage remembered Mr. Walter. Jesse Oxendine, now a member of Mr. Walter, who never owned a car, spent most of his free time with "his two drug stores in Charlotte said, with feeling, "Mr. Walter was one of the best things to ever happen to Pem-

Oxendine remembered that Mr. Walter was not as appreciated as he ought to have been when he died. Oxendine said, "Let's resolve today to take time to express thanks to those like Mr.

Henry Smith, another Eagle Scout and now assistant principal at Littlefield High School: said "Mr. Walter taught us to do a good deed daily."

CONTINUED PAGE 8

THE WALTER J. PINCHBECI

The Fourth Annual Indian Unity Conference begins today, March 29, at the Bordeaux Motor Inn in Fayetteville.

Sponsored by the North Carolina Commission of Indian Affairs, the conference features a number of workshops 1,000 students. designed to provide information that can be used to improve Indian communities. Topics will include those of educational, legislative, and economic concern to the Indian people as well as the 1980 census, cultural arts, and Indian youth involvement

A Native American Performers Concert will be held at 8 p.m. today and will feature Bonnie Jo Hunt, Indian oprea singer, and other Indian musicians, singers, dancers and other performing artists.

Two nationally known speakers will address an expected crowd of 1,000 persons representing Indian tribes and organizations in the state and nation who will gather for the conference March LaDonna Harris, a Comanche Indian and president of Americans for Indian Opportunity and A. David Lester, a Creek Indian and Commissioner of the Administration for Native Americans will address the gathering.

March 30.

Governor Jim Hunt will speak to the conferees at 1 p.m. on Friday, March 30.

Other notables will include, Kenneth R. Maynor, executive director of LRDA, Dr. Lindy Martin, dean of student affairs, Samford University, Birmingham, Ala. and Dr. Dean Chavers, president, Bacone College, Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Lumberton High School Damaged by Fire

Lumberton-Lumberton High School was damaged extensively by fire early Monday morning, causing the cancellation of Preliminary investigations point toward arson as the cause of the fire.

Lumberton High's physical plant was estimated at $2 million

The principal is William Gay. The school housed 60 teachers and approximately Relatively new, the spacious school was

Squad. "Without their dedicated effort the school would be just a mass of bare walls." According to Carroll the damage seems to be limited to the principal's office, the portion of the library over the office and the

Dr. Gilbert Carroll, Superintendent of

Lumberton City Schools, praised the Lumberton Fire Department and Resque occupied in 1966.

science and home economics areas. Many permanent records were destroyed.

Damage is estimated at more than

"Strike at the Wind!" holds Auditions

Approximately one hundred people turned out at Lakeside Amphitheatre in cold, wet, and windy weather to audition 'Strike at the Wind'" Director David afternoon. Ariail said, "I was pleased that so many would show up despite the weather." The weekend auditions ware just the beginning of casting the roles. The director will call

Because of the weather, Director Ariail has set another audition date for this of June. Ms. Harris will speak at 7 p.m. on Friday. Lakeside Amphitheatre near Pembroke. In And Mr. Lester will speak at 9 a.m. Friday, case of rain auditions will be held at LRDA Annex in Pembroke. The main need is for older male and female applicants of all

> Mr. Ariail stated further, "We definitely want to cast as many local people as possible, we don't expect everybody to be great actors or actresses. If the person is interested and willing to work, we can make him or her a good performer."

Those persons who have been involved in the drama in previous seasons are encouraged to get in touch with the "Strike at the Wind!" office or come to the for roles in this year's production of Lakeside Amphitheatre on Sunday

Willie Lowry, composer of the music for the drama, said, "This year looks like it could be the best ever. We're going to have back some of the aspirants for futher a good production that people can be proud audition at a later date as he narrows the of. I hope we will have a large turnout for the older roles."

> The drama performance will begin on July 5th with rehearsals starting around the first

General Manager Bill Thompson stated, "I've been very impressed with the interest shown by the community in the drama. An effort like this is only as strong as its base of support-the local community. With continued support, including auditioning for the play, the drama can be the best in the state and a real asset to the community."

Last year "Strike at the Wind!" played to over fourteen thousand people making it the fourth largest drama in the state. Expectations are for an even larger audience this season.

PEOPLE AND and things...

KITE CONTEST

The Pembroke Jaycees are sponsoring a Kite Contest Saturday, March 31 at the Pembroke Tire Center from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon. Ages 15 and under may participate. Prizes will be given. The public is invited to participate.

REVIVAL SERVICES PLANNED

Revival services will be held at Prospect United Methodist Church April 1-6 at 7:30 p.m. Evangelists for the week will be the to understand the ways Legal Services can Rev. James F. Cummings, pastor of the Mt. help them. The meetings are open to the Olive United Methodist Church of public and the schedule is as follows: April Lumberton, and also, the Rev. Simeon F. Cummings, pastor of the Sandy Plains -Branch Street United Methodist Churches of Pembroke and Lumberton, respectively.

Special music will be featured nightly and the public is urged to attend. The pastor is

Rev. Robert L. Mangum. AMERICAN INDIAN CULTURE WEEK

Chapel Hill- "The Forgotten Minority" will be the theme of American Indian Cultural Week April 2-6 at the University of birth certificate of the child and the North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Sponsored by the Carolina Indian Circle and the UNC-CH Human Relations Committee the week will feature seminars career opportunities and health, Indian dancers and a potluck dinner.

All cultural week events are free and open to the public.

Highlight of the week will be a talk by Helen Shierbeck, special assistant on the U.S. National Commission for the Year of the Child and a native North Carolina Lumbee Indian. She will discuss "Education and the American Indian Today" at 8 pm. Thursday, April 5, in 103 Berryhill

Adolph Dial, N.C. Indian historian and director of the Department of Indian Studies at Pembroke State University, will speak at 8 p.m. on Monday, April 2. Garry Barton, a Lumbee Indian and assistant editor of the Carolina Indian Voice, will speak at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Wednesday's activities include an annual health panel discussion featuring Dr. M.L. Brooks, North Carolina Indian physician; Hawk Littlejohn, Cherokee Indian and medicine man; and representatives of the UNC-CH School of Medicine and the School of Public Health.

At 7 p.m., the Carolina Indian Circle and the YMCA will sponsor a potluck dinner.

Cherokee Indian dancers, a father and his two sons, will perform Thursday at 11 a.m. campus.

Friday, April 6, will be an all-day health complex co-sponsored by the UNC-CH Health Affairs Division and featuring seminars on health careers opportunities. recruiting, scholarships and grants.

Founded in 1975, the Carolina Indian Circle is a UNC-CH student organization that aims to provide a medium for the 86 UNC-CHIndian students to relate to each other and share cultures. The circle emphasizes education as a means to eliminate prejudice and help Indians maintain their cultural pride and self-respect.

For complete information on the cultural week, contact the Carolina Indian Circle or the Carolina Union desk immediately prior to April 2.

REVIVAL AT SYCAMORE HILL

Revival services will begin at Sycamon Hill Holiness Church on April I and run thru April 6. Services will begin each evening at 7:00 p.m. and will feature guest speaker each night.

The pastor, Rev. J.C. Chavis, extends a cordial invitation to everyone to attend these special services.

SPECIAL MEETING FOR READING ACADEMY STUDENTS

LRDA's Right to Read program has extended their invitation for Lumbee River Legal Services representatives, Robert A. Locklear, Community Education Specialist and a staff attorney to preside as guest speakers for reading academy students. The intent of this invitation is to discuss the outline of the purposes and the functions of Lumbee River Legal Services. These meetings will better enable students 3, 7:00 p.m. at the Smithtown Church of God; April 5 at 7:00 p.m. at Smyrna Baptist Church; and April 10, at 7:00 p.m. at the Pleasantview Baptist Church.

PRE-SCHOOL CLINIC PLANNED AT OXENDINE SCHOOL

Oxendine Elementary will hold a pre-school clinic for kindergarten and a pre-school clinic for Silvey, April 6 The hours are from 8:30 au noon. Parents are asked to bring the immunization record. The child need

NATIONAL LEAGUE OF PEN WOMEN TO SPONSOR CONTEST

The Knoxville Branch of the National League of American Pen Women is sponsoring its annual national poety contest. open to all poets over 18 years of age. Proceeds of the contest will be used for the scholarship fund.

Those wishing to enter the contest may write on any subject, in any style, up to 30 lines. Each poem must be typed, doublespaced, with only one poem on a sheet. A $1 entry fee must accompany each poem; $4 for five poems. The poet's name, along with the title of each poem, must be placed on one separate sheet.

Entries must reach Mae Walker, 1310 Westview Tower, Knoxville, Tn. 37919, by April 20, 1979. Those wishing return of their poems or list of winners must include a self-addressed envelope with sufficient postage. First prize $30, second $20, and third $10.

Ms. Walker, now retired from teaching, but seemingly as busy as ever, taught for many years at Pembroke State University.

FOUR COUNTY BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO MEET

The Board of Directors of Four-County Community Services, Inc., will meet on Tuesday, April 3, 1979, in the auditorium and I p.m. in the Pit on the UNC-CH of the Owens Agricultural Center in Lumberton at 7:30 p.m.

OXENDINE SCHOOL TO HOLD PLATE SALE

There will be a plate sale (barbecue & chicken) at Oxendine School on Friday, April 13, 1979 from 12:00 noon until 7:00 p.m. The price is $2.50 per plate. The proceeds will be used for additional equipment and instructional supplies.

ORGANIZATIONAL

Pembroke-There will be an organizational meeting for all the interested in men's softball in Pembrok Tuesday, April 3, at 7 p.m. The meet will be held at pembroke's Town Hall

CLASS REUNION PLANNED

There, will be a yard sale at the Billy construction purposes, etc. The yard sal Locklear Evangelistic Association every will be locted in front the Big Shoe Store Saturday, beginn ng March 31. Money on the Alamac Road in Lan from the sale will on to the Association for