REFLECTIONS

Alta Oxendine

On Wednesday of last week, my father had his second stroke. His right side seemed to be paralyzed, but in the next day or two he made tremendous improvement. By Monday, he was able to spend some time, in a wheel chair, in the sun porch, at the small hospital, where he receives plenty of personal attention. Lots of people have been praying for him. Mother feels that his progress is truly a miracle.

Do-It-Yourself Projects

Crochet A Rose Bouquet

Following instructions in Monsanto's yarn booklet, "Great Yarn Ideas for Everyone," crocheters can create a bouquet of colorful roses. This is one of nine projects for all ages and all skills to make and enjoy. The items are ideal for gift-giving and fund raising, too. Copies are available for 25¢ and a business-size stamped, self-addressed envelope from Monsanto Textiles Company, 1114 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10036.

Celebrate 45th Wedding Anniversary

MAXTON-John Winston and Addie Mae Locklear celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary May 19, 1979. Their children honored them by hosting a dinner on the banks of Lumber River.

They have 11 children and 25 grandchildren and have been living 6 miles North of Maxton for 30 years.

Said the happy couple, "We have enjoyed being together for 45 years and hope that there will be many more. We thank the Lord for blessing us with our children and grandchildren, and all the other things in life that we have worked so hard for."
