

Pembroke Kiwanians Hear About CP&L

Director, Woody Caudle, Customer Services Representative Maxton, NC; and Ed Teets, president.

Pembroke Kiwanis members welcomed Mr. Jay Mullins, Senior Energy Information Specialist at CP & L as their guest speaker Tuesday evening.

The need for additional power in our State is growing steadily each year. Last year 63 new industries came into the area and their needs plus those of the employees who come to live here push our energy needs steadily higher, and the extreme heat of summer and our recent colder than usual winters have resulted in all the population using more energy than usual.

What can we do about this situation? We can, as individuals, endeavor to conserve energy as much as possible. As a nation we can make greater use of coal; this is one energy source which our country has in great abundance. It is estimated we have enough coal to last for 300 years. Our country can also work on the development of solar energy. However, one of the most efficient and economical sources of energy is through nuclear power.

Carolina Power & Light is not a newcomer to the field of nuclear energy. It has been associated with the development of commercial nuclear power for the generation of electricity for more than 20 years. In 1956 it joined with other utilities in the building and operation of the Parr Shoals Plant in South Carolina. In 1971 followed the C P & L H.B. Robinson Plant near Hartsville, SC and in 1975 and 1977 two units of the Brunswick Nuclear Plant near South port, NC were placed in service. Presently plans are underway for the Shearon Harris Nuclear Power Plant located near Raleigh, NC. Work on this plant began in 1978 and the entire project is scheduled for completion in 1991. This enormous plant will consist of four 900,000-Kilowatt generating units and during peak construction for work force will number about 3,500 and the permanent operating staff of the plant will be about 700 persons. Slides of the plant and its capabilities were shown.

Guests at the meeting were Woody Caudle, CP & L Customer Service Representative, of Maxton and four members of the Lillington Kiwanis Club- Club president Rodney Tart, Lt. Governor Bob Womble, Niell McPhail, and Ron Howell.

Presiding at the meeting was Ed Teets, Club President. The invocation was given by Theodore Maynor and the singing was led by Lankford Godwin accompanied by Ira Pate Lowry, pianist, Bernard Lowry, Program Chairman, introduced the speaker.

The bride wore a white full length gown with a band of roses and carnations around her waist.

The highlight of the wedding was the exchange of Eagle feathers according to Indian tradition. The maid of honor and best man wore in their hair a single Eagle feather. The mother of the bride took the feather from the hair of the

Each mother then presented the feathers to the bride and groom, as a gift from the Great Spirit to institute what the sacred Eagle stands for. That is Courage, Strength, Patience, Happiness and Togetherness, throughout life. With the joining of both ceremonies, the old and the new, it was a beautiful occasion.

Following a trip to Pembroke, the couple will reside in Great Falls, Montana, where the groom is stationed in the Air Force.
