COMPLETE LIST OF PSU HOMECOMING EVENTS ANNOUNCED

A Pembroke State University homecoming to eclipse all previous homecomings!

This is what is planned for Saturday, February 16, in a finalized schedule of events announced by Walter Oxendine, PSU director of alumni affairs.

The theme is "Pride in PSU," and plans for it are momentous. The biggest reason is that the reconstructed Old Main building will be rededicated on the same day as homecoming.

"I'm tremendously excited about it," said Oxendine. "It should be a great day."

On that day Open House will be observed at Old Main from noon until 4 p.m. On display in the building will be Native American and Lumbee Indian arts and crafts. After touring the building, alumni and other interested people will gather in the 1,700-seat Performing Arts Center for the official rededication ceremonies. PSU wants to use that facility because of the large crowd expected.

Immediately following the rededication, everyone will proceed to the PSU Auxiliary Gymnasium for the largest alumni banquet ever held. All previous alumni banquets have been held either in the PSU cafeteria or student center.

Another change this year is that the Friday night Alumni and Student Dance will be held at Quincy's Old Place in Lumberton instead of "South of the Border" near Dillon, which has been the site in recent years. Quincy's has developed into a very popular dance spot in this area.

The complete schedule is as follows:

Friday, February 15, 8-12 p.m. - Alumni and Student Dance at Quincy's Old Place in Lumberton.

Saturday, February 16:

11 a.m. - Homecoming parade through downtown Pembroke.

12-4 p.m. - Old Main "Open House" and Indian Arts and Crafts Show; student art show will also be held all afternoon in the Performing Arts Center.

2-4 p.m. - Campus tours for alumni.

4-5:15 p.m. - Dedication of Old Main in Performing Arts Center.

5:30-6:30 p.m. - Alumni banquet in Auxiliary Gymnasium of English E. Jones Health and Physical Education Center.

6:30-7:45 p.m. - Homecoming Women's Basketball Game, PSU vs. St. Augustine's. Also introduction of alumni athletes and recognition of the initial PSU Hall of Fame inductees.

8 p.m. - Homecoming Men's Basketball Game, PSU vs. Pfeiffer. Homecoming queen will be crowned at halftime.

10-12 p.m. - Braves Club Victory Party at Pembroke Jaycee Clubhouse.

Tickets for homecoming will go on sale Monday, December 17. Cost for all activities except the Friday night dance is $6.50. Tickets may be purchased at the PSU

Development and Alumni Affairs Office. "They will make excellent Christmas presents," says Oxendine.

Tickets for the Friday night dance may be purchased at the PSU Student Affairs Office.

"Any alumni interested in reserving a room at the Holiday Inn in Lumberton for the homecoming are asked to contact the Alumni Affairs Office," said Oxendine.

A QUOTE THAT IS WORTH REPEATING

Mark Schultz, a member of the PSU basketball squad who transferred to Pembroke from George Mason University in Fairfax, Va., recently was quoted as follows: "This (PSU) is the school I've dreamed of. The family kind of concept Coach (Billy) Lee has is perfect. It is a dream playing with teammates who are unselfish." That is the kind of positive thinking that PSU likes.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION BUILDING DISCUSSED

Some 24 persons met last Friday morning to discuss the future of a Baptist Student Union at Pembroke State University.

Among them were representatives of the Youth and Campus Committee of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention.

The decision seems to be between having the Baptist Student Union as part of the future University Center at PSU ... or having the BSU in its own building on property immediately south of the present Burnt Swamp Baptist Association Building.

It is estimated that between 55 and 60 percent of all students attending PSU are Baptists.

The matter will be given additional study before a decision is reached.

BERIA BAPTIST CHURCH WELCOMES PSU STUDENTS TO ITS FELLOWSHIP HALL

Rev. Lawrence Hardy, pastor of Bera Baptist Church, took me on a tour of the new Fellowship Hall at his church following the meeting on the Student Union question.

It is an excellent addition to the church with a large meeting hall, kitchen, classrooms, office space - and a picnic table area immediately outside the kitchen area.

"PSU students are welcome to use these facilities," offered Rev. Hardy.

Baptist students at PSU have been meeting in classrooms. Bera Baptist Church's Fellowship provides a wonderful option until a new Student Union facility is available.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL!

This is our final column for the Indian Voice until the New Year. PSU students are now taking examinations and begin their Christmas vacation next week. The faculty will be vacationing, too. Here is hoping you and your's a very Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year!
