Miss Jo Ann Locklear Is Wed

MAXTON — The sanctuary of Prospect United Methodist Church was the setting of the marriage of Miss Jo Ann Locklear and Henry Clay Chavis Sunday, March 16, at four o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Michael Cummings and Robert Mangum conducted the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Locklear is the daughter of Mrs. Ethel Lee Locklear and the late Mr. Japeth Locklear. Parents of the bridegroom are Robert L. Chavis and Mrs. Lucy Darl Chavis of Pembroke.

Presenting a program of wedding music were Mrs. Ronald Locklear of Monroe and Miss Judy Jacobs of Lumberton.

The bride's uncle, Wayne Locklear, escorted her to the altar. She wore a gown of white chiffon accented with Venise lace and styled with a Victorian neckline accented with silk Venise lace and seed pearls and an English net insert with bishop sleeves.

Her fingertip veil of white illusion, edged with white Venise lace, with blusher was attached to a headpiece overlaid with lace. She carried a cascade of daisies, pompons, baby's breath and greenery with white ribbons.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Ander Clark of Laurinburg. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ed Harvey of Sarasota, Fla., Mrs. Carl Gene Collins and Mrs. Mary Linda Bartley, all sisters of the bride, Miss Krishna Dawn Locklear, niece of the bride, Mrs. Johnson Jacobs of Pembroke, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Linda L. Chavis, also of Pembroke. The matron of honor wore a formal gown of dusty pink silesta styled with a scoop neck, split caplet sleeves, blouson bodice with the belt and flowing A-line skirt with small train. She carried two long-stemmed watermelon-pink mums trimmed in baby's breath and greenery with matching ribbons.

The bridesmaids' dresses were styled identically to that of the matron of honor but were a dusty rose color. Each carried one long-stemmed watermelon-pink mum trimmed in baby's breath, greenery and matching ribbons.

Attending as junior bridesmaid was Miss Marilita M. Sanderon of Pembroke, niece of the bridegroom. She wore a long dress styled with a natural waistline, ruffle at the hem and a silk ribbon tied around the waist. She carried three long-stemmed pompons with matching pink ribbons, baby's breath and greenery.

Miss Elizabeth Clark of Laurinburg, niece of the bride, and Miss Alfreita Dial of Pembroke, niece of the bridegroom, were flower girls. Their matching street-length dresses were styled with an empire waist. They each carried a basket of pink and white pompons.

All the bridesmaids and flower girls wore baby's breath in their hair.

Wayman Dan McMillian, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Robert Earl Chavis of Pembroke, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were R.L. Locklear of Pembroke, cousin of the bridegroom, Hughes Locklear, uncle of the bride, and David Allen Maynor, Brantly Chavis, Victor Ray Blue and Vincent Chavis, all of Pembroke.

The bride graduated from Prospect High School and received a B.S. degree in Business Education at Pembroke State University. She is employed with the Lumbee Regional Development Association, Inc.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Pembroke High School, attended Robeson Technical Institute and is the owner of Chavis Electric.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will live in the Prospect community.

RECEPTION

A reception, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. N.H. White, was held immediately following the wedding ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Miss Virginia Gail Chavis registered the guests.

Mrs. Clyde Chavis cut the cake and Misses Louberta Campbell and Linda Campbell, cousins of the bridegroom, poured punch.

Others assisting with the serving duties were Mmes Antoinette Locklear, William E. Ransom, Leon Hunt, Dannie Locklear, Brantly Chavis and Misses Paulette Deese, Connie Graham and Remona Locklear.

SOCIAL COURTESIES

Miss Jo Ann Locklear was honored on several occasions prior to her marriage to Henry Chavis on March 16.

Mrs. Robert L. Chavis, mother of the bridegroom, honored the bride-elect with a
