The nightingale, famed of song and lore, is found in Europe but is not native to anywhere west of the Atlantic.

Local Choir to Participate in General Conference

INDIANAPOLIS—Choirs from Black, Hispanic, Native American and Asian American churches or schools will be among those groups participating in worship services at the United Methodist General Conference here April 15-25. Morning services in the Indiana Convention-Exposition Center will begin at 8:30 a.m.; afternoon services will begin at 3 p.m. at St. John's Roman Catholic Church, opposite the convention center.

Preachers for both the morning and afternoon services were announced earlier. Carlton R. Young, director of music for the conference, said the choirs from the five educational institutions and four churches were chosen from 45 musical groups submitting audition materials. A choir from Candler School of Theology in Atlanta will sing at the Service of Holy Communion which opens the conference on April 15 and again at the 8:30 a.m. worship service April 16. A combined seminary choir will provide music preceding the Episcopal Address the evening of April 15.

The other eight choirs are from: Bethune-Cookman College, Daytona Beach, Fla.; the Methodist Theological School of Delaware, Ohio; First Korean UMC, Chicago; Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, Evanston, Ill.; First UMC, Moscow, Idaho; La Trinidad UMC, San Antonio, Texas; Prospect UMC, Maxton, N.C.; and Westmar College, Le Mars, Iowa.

One additional service of worship has been added in recent weeks to the conference agenda. A Service of Holy Communion will be held Saturday, April 19, at 1:15 p.m. at St. John's Roman Catholic Church. Sponsoring the service is the Division of Evangelism, Worship and Stewardship of the Board of Discipleship.

The service will utilize "We Gather Together," a recently published resource of the Section on Worship which includes a revised service of "The World and Table." The resource is being commended to the General Conference by the Board of Discipleship for official trial use during the next quadrennium.

Preacher for the service will be section staff member Richard Eslinger. Liturgists will include Hoyt Hickman and Elise Shoemaker of Nashville; Joseph Bethea of Rockingham, N.C.; and Susan Ruach, See-ville, Ind.

Providing music will be the Garrett-Evangelical Seminary choir.

PLATE SALE

The Pembroke Rescue Squad is sponsoring a Chicken and home-made Barbecue plate sale Friday, April 11th, from 8 a.m. until, at the Rescue Squad. Price of plates will be $2.75 each. Proceeds will go toward the building fund.

Crowned Miss Townsend Middle School

On Friday evening, March 14, 1980 at the Maxton High School auditorium, Miss Denise Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Douglas was crowned Miss Townsend Middle School. She is a member of the History Club, Glee Club, and is a reporter of the Maxton Journal. She is an eleven year old fifth grader from Mrs. Olivia Hunt's room. EVERGREEN CHURCH NEWS

by Mrs. Leacie Brooks
The Revival was a great success. Many souls came to Jesus. We had good preaching. The attendance was good. Sunday School opened at 9:30. The assistant Superintendent, Bro. Jimmie Jones read from Matthew 28:1-10. We had some visitors who were given a hearty welcome. The lesson was based on the Resurrection. One of the ones saved was a member of my Sunday School class, Mrs. Bonnie Wilkins. We have a wonderful class. The Lord sent a shower of blessings on us. It was a red letter day for our people. The secretary didn't get a chance to give the report until about 1 o'clock. Jesus is still in the saving business. Besides Mrs. Wilkins, there were Mrs. Kirby Amonds, and many more. We're so proud of each one who accepted Jesus. Help us pray that they will hold out faithful until the end. Wednesday night Prayer Service will be held and you are invited. Saturday, an Easter Egg Hunt was held for all the children of our church at Mr. Carmel Lowry's pond. We had a wonderful time. Fish and hot dogs were served with all types of different sweets and drinks. A large group was present. Please pray for the sick ones of our church. Mrs. Maggie Locklear is sick. Oak Grove Church visited and held services with her Monday night. The service was under the direction of Bro. Wilton Wilkins, Mrs. Iola Strickland and her mother, Mrs. Nancy Ann Oxendine. She fell and is in the hospital. Mrs. Margaret Oxendine is still unable to be in church. Mrs. Flora Ann Jermination is also sick. Pray the Lord will heal them so they'll be able to come back to church if it's the Lord's will. Sunday is regular preaching day. Rev. Joseph Locklear, our pastor, is to preach. Pray for this service. THOUGHT FOR TODAY When we think we have peace, then destruction comes. This is why Jesus said, Pray without ceasing. Today, we need to pray as never before. The rich man thought he had everything but his soul was black with sin. When his eyes were opened he was in hell with nothing. Dear reader pray and miss hell; it's an awful place. You must pray or that will be your home. I pray noone reading this will go that awful place called hell. Please pray for us at Evergreen. Pray that I, myself, will be a light in someone's darkest hour.
