Bro. Jesse Lowery and his class had Bible Study Wednesday night at the home of Sonda Wilkins. Bro. Jesse is doing a great job, working with the young people. He is helping them to see the need to study their Bible and seek the Lord. Continue praying for him that God will continue anointing and guiding him in the direction he would have him to go.

Bro. Gerald opened Sunday School with a wonderful text taken from Matthew 7:15-27. He left verse 18 as food for thought: "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit." He left a thoughtful question with the congregation "what kind of tree are you?"

Elder W.T. Lowery preached a wonderful sermon, taking his text from Acts 1:7-11. Jesus said, "He that hunger and thirst after righteousness shall be filled." We thank him for anointing Elder Lowery to spread the feast before us Sunday. Pray for him that God will continue blessing him.

Elder W.T. Lowery was the guest speaker at Community Holiness Church Friday night. He preached from Acts 17:27. The young people were the guest singers there also. We thank them for going and backing Elder Lowery in the word.

Bro. Jesse Lowery and his choir attended the singing at Deep Branch Church Sunday night.

The young people sang at Deep Branch School Saturday night.

Don't forget our fund raising day June 14. We will be selling barbecue and chicken plates at the fellowship hall. We have tickets for a drawing that night on an aluminum yard set and a quilt. There will also be a free singing at the church that night.

Continue praying for our sick and shut-ins. Remember Sis Pearlite Lowery and Sis. Roseanna Barton who was unable to attend church Sunday.

Make a special prayer for Bro. Lacy Locklear even though we may stray. Jesus is always standing with out stretched arms ready to receive us. Remember Jesus loves us when everyone else has forsaken us.

We invite you to our singing Sunday. The Deep Branch Young People, McNeill Trio, and Heavenly Bound Boys will be our featured groups.

Rev. Roger Creed was our guest speaker Monday night. He preached from Romans 1:14-18.

We invite you to come and worship with us in any or all of our services.

Coach Kenney of Pembroke State University was the guest speaker at the Tuesday evening meeting of Pembroke Kiwanis. He was introduced to the members by Program Chairman Bernard Lowry. Coach Kenney is from Morristown, New Jersey and is the Assistant Basketball Coach and Soccer Coach at the University.

Coach Kenney's topic was Self Concepts in Sports and in Life itself. One's concept of self is extremely important to the successful life. The player or person must create a proper self concept. Each should know what he is now and what his goals are for the future - such as choosing an occupation which is meaningful and worthwhile to him; to feel accepted, loved and respected; to feel happy and good about himself. All of these are important in the achieving of success, whether it be as a player in sports or in any other area of endeavor.

Club members were reminded of the International Kiwanis Convention which is to be held in Anaheim, Calif. June 22-25.
