Roy W. Maynor, Jr.

Roy W. Maynor, Jr. became the new principal of Pembroke Senior High School following executive session of the Robeson County Board of Education on Tuesday. Maynor will replace Dr. V.R. Thompson who has been promoted to the central office where he will serve as director of research and testing.

IN OTHER MATTERS

In other matters board members agreed to comply with an increase in Pilot Life Insurance coverage from students. Instead of the $3.00 previously paid for school insurance, students will pay $3.50 for the same coverage.

Members of the Robeson County NCAE Unit and PACE appeared before the board. Henry Smith served as spokesman. In accordance with board policy, the group had met with the grievance committee at the May meeting of the board. Mr. Smith requested a supplement for teachers and said they were seeking "no particular amount." He cited that all of the neighboring systems, including Cumberland, Scotland and Lumberton City Schools, did offer a supplement to their teachers.

Smith stated that a supplement would do several things to improve the educational system. "I," he said, "It would attract better qualified teachers. It would help retain the good at Pembroke Senior High jumped 25' 6" in the national championship which is his best official jump ever.

"I spent time thinking about becoming an All-American this year and that was what I set as my goal for this year," said the friendly Meekins. "My dream was to make All-American this year (Finish among the top six) and then shoot for a national championship."

But the 5-foot-6, 134-pound long jumper accomplished his goal at the 1980 championships.

"The weather was bad at the NCAA meet," recalled Meekins. "The temperature was a low 49 degrees and there was a cross-wind. I did want to do well in the NCAA meet so I relaxed and went to work."

Meekins finished ninth in the NAIA National Meet in Abilene, Texas a week earlier. But what was the difference?

"After the NAIA Meet Coach (Ed) Crain and myself had a long talk," Meekins remembered. "Coach Crain told me that he knew I could do it and that he thought I went into the big meets (nationals) with a lot of pressure. So, he told me to enter the NCAA Meet thinking I was back home and it was just a normal meet, so I did."

And Meekins won the national title becoming the 10th national champion at Pembroke State University in track and the fifth consecutive champion for the Braves.

Meekins continued, "I credit Coach Crain with a lot. He has helped me correct some little things I was doing wrong and has had the patience to work with me. I believe the harder you work, the more you learn, and the better you become."

And again according to board policy, Supt. Purnell Swett said that they would get a response to their request at a later meeting.

After some discussion about the summer lunch program, they approved the program at 16 cafeterias. Some schools will serve breakfast, some will serve lunch and some will serve both. The program will begin June 23 and last until August 8. The program provides free lunches for children age 1-18 and to any adult who accompanies them for $1.25. Last year adults paid $1.15.

Donald A. Bonner reported on the first graduating class under the mandate of the competency test law. He reported that 21 of the 743 graduating seniors in 1980 failed the competency test and received a certificate of attendance rather than a diploma.

GOSPEL SING

The Antone Indian Family will be appearing at Mt. Haven Church and Missionary Alliance, located on the Service Road of I-95 in Lumberton, N.C. next to Temptation Hosiery Mill. The pastor is the Rev. J.C. Huggins. The Gospel Sing will be held June 17th at 7:30 p.m.

The Antone Indian Family is a genuine American family representing the Mohawk, Oneida, and Tuscarora tribes of the Six Nations Iroquois Confederacy. They are a "typical family"...complete with Mom, Dad, sons and daughters. Together they minister throughout the North American Continent traveling almost 80,000 miles per year in their private MC-7 Challenger bus. Their unique family-style presentation has blessed the hearts of thousands--whether it be in a church service or on a remote Indian reservation or in concert in a large auditorium, the Antones always present the same exuberant, soul-stirring program. During this past decade of full-time Christian service, they have had unusual opportunities to present the Gospel in song as in their live performance at the 1976 World Summer Olympics in Canada, in guest appearances at the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, Tennessee. Events like these highlight their steady schedule of city-wide evangelistic crusades, Bible and Missionary Conferences, schools, universities, prisons, radio and television programs.

Meekins now becomes the sixth track individual to win a national championship in PSU history. At Pembroke Senior High, Meekins played football and ran track. As a long jumper, he was "Most Valuable Player," "Most Outstanding Athlete," all-conference, all-county, all-state, and All-American.

As far as his long-range plans, Meekins hopes to become a coach one day and would like to stay in Robeson County. "College track is growing every day and there are athletes in this area who need some pushing to become their best. I hope to have that challenge some day."

UNION WINS IN SCOTLAND

On Thursday, June 5th, the plant workers at Lee L. Woodard, Inc. voted to be represented by the United Furniture Workers Union of America. With this vote, they became the first industrial union to be organized in the history of Scotland County.

After the election, Ken Chastain, a Lumbee Indian and labor organizer with the Industrial Union Department, AFL-CIO, said: "Plant workers in the area are beginning to see that, not only do they need insurance for their cars and homes, but they also need to be insured around the most important property they have--their two, old hands. Contrary to a lot that is said against labor unions, Indian people can see that labor organizations have helped their relatives who left Robeson County for better paying jobs in Baltimore and other Northern cities. There is no reason why our young people must be forced, like Indians before them, to leave their homeland to find a secure standard of living somewhere else."

The Industrial Department, AFL-CIO, is also working with laborers in other plants in the area. The Department has petitioned the National Labor Relations Board for an election this summer at John Manville Co. in Maxton. A union election has also been re-scheduled at LOF Glass Plant in June after the company was found to be in violation of past election procedures.
