

MORE SCENES FROM LUMBEE HOMECOMING 1981

The newly crowned Miss Lumbee, Jackie Jacobs, was one of the many beauty queens who graced the parade route Saturday morning in spite of the drizzling rain. Umbrellas were evident everywhere.

"Strike at the Wind!", our popular outdoor drama, was also in the parade. The drama opened Saturday night to kick off its 6th exciting season.

And pretty girls....

Later, Saturday afternoon, Field Day Activities were held at Riverdale Country Club. At one end of the tug of war is popular Indian performer, Willie Lowery--on the other, Roscoe Jacobs, an LRDA staffer from Waccamaw-Stouan County.

And friends....

What would a parade be without horses? And ponies? And wagons?

Engagement Announced

Julia Ann Dial

Mrs. Darkis Dial of Maxton and Mr. Sam Dial of Pembroke announce the engagement of their daughter, Julia Ann, to Melvin Brayboy, son of Mr. and Mrs. June Brayboy, Jr. The bride-elect is a graduate of Prospect High School and attends Pembroke State University. She is presently employed with Ty's Mini Mart in Pembroke.

The prospective bridegroom graduated from Pembroke Senior High, attended Pembroke State University and is presently employed with Kelly Springfield Tire Company in Fayetteville. The wedding is planned for August 22, at Prospect United Methodist Church. Invitations are being sent but friends and relatives are invited.

Weight lifting was another popular event. Harold Collins [right] withstood Randall Jacobs in the 150-200 lb. competition. Competing in the bench press, squat and jerk categories Collins lifted 1100 pounds to Jacobs' 1090.

The big boys [heavyweights over 200 lbs.] got into the act too. Winning with a combined lift of 1265 pounds was Rodney Locklear (left). Finishing second was Terry Nance with 1255; Gene Oxendine lifted 1245 lbs. for 3rd place.

An old fashioned Gospel Sing closed out Lumbee Homecoming Sunday afternoon in PSU's Performing Arts Center.

One of the groups appearing was the McNeill Quartet (above). Other groups were The Heavenly Bound Boys, Quinton Mills and Deliverance, the Graham Family, a quartet from Cherokee Chapel Methodist Church, and the Lowry Trio, along with the New Point Adult Singers.

Rev. Julian Ransom was the Master of Ceremonies.
