More Marijuana found in Robeson County

Robeson County Sheriff's Detective Garth Locklear displays one of a number of bales of marijuana which have been recovered in Robeson County. Some nine bales have been recovered to date and each was wrapped in burlap, plastic and paper with an estimated street value of $35,000 each. Authorities believe the marijuana was dropped from an airplane last week and is tied to the same that was recovered in neighboring Bladen County, some 60 bales. Five men have been arrested to date. The marijuana is reported to be pure Columbian Marijuana, and carried Spanish writing. The first bale was reported to Sheriff Hubert Stone by a prominent Robeson County farmer. He reportedly found it in his soybeans. Since then Detective Locklear and other members of the sheriff's department have found the remainder.

Five men have reportedly been arrested in nearby Bladen County. Placed under $1 million bonds, according to area news reports, were Robert McKee, Dennis P. Record, Paul Herberline, Paul N. Grase, and Jeffery J. Moore. All had out of state addresses except McKee who was listed as from the White Oak Community where a makeshift air strip had been set up. [Bruce Barton photo]

DEMOCRATS HIT REAGAN TAX CUTS

Congressman Rose addressing N.C. Young Democrats at the "Downeaster" Democratic Rally.

WILMINGTON--The President of the North Carolina Democrats, Gary Bartlett of Goldsboro, today criticized the Reagan Administration's tax cut proposal as being geared to the wealthy and ignoring those who need tax relief the most, young farmers, small businessmen and factory workers who are trying to make ends meet.

Bartlett said that the Reagan tax cut proposal was a true masterpiece of political deception. "Mr. Reagan has said that the American people expect and deserve a tax cut," Bartlett said, "but his efforts represent a windfall for those over $50,000 and give little relief to those Americans who really need a tax cut, the great American middle class."

The Democratic proposal is more oriented to the individual making under $50,000, and that is where the bulk of North Carolinians are in respects to personal income, according to a Democratic spokesman.

Under the Reagan plan a person making $200,000 would receive a tax cut of over $12,000; under the Democratic plan that same person would receive just over $4,000. The Democratic plan gives the two earner family with an income of $35,000 a tax cut of $1,013, more than $300 more than the Reagan proposal. "The Democratic plan," Bartlett asserted, "would help those Americans who really need tax relief and would not be a windfall for the rich and well-to-do."

Bartlett's comments were issued at an Executive Committee meeting of the North Carolina Young Democrats, which has a membership of over 4,000, during the Downeaster Democratic Rally held in Wilmington.

Maxton. Harold and Aggie Deese, proprietors of Deese Realty in Maxton, have joined a long list of community people and businessmen who have been helping "Strike at the Wind" have its best season yet.

The Deeses hosted a party for the cast members following a recent production and the evening was reportedly enjoyed by all who attended. Said Carnell Locklear, General Manager of "Strike at the Wind." "The Brunswick stew and all the trimmings were well received after a hard night of performing and we are appreciative of people like Harold and Aggie Deese who work so hard to make 'Strike at the Wind' a success."

Said Harold Deese, "I have always supported 'Strike at the Wind.' I believe it is a fine production and a reasonable portrayal of the events of the time from which it is drawn."

ELVIS' MOTEL BED PURCHASED

Jacksonville..The bed on which famed Elvis Presley slept when in concert in Fayetteville, North Carolina, has been purchased by a Jacksonville man who has the item under lock and key for fear it may be stolen. Certified as authentic by a Ramada Inn maintenance supervisor, the bed was from room 435 where Presley was registered for the August performance the year before his death.

The motel receipt shows Presley checked in at 12:12 p.m. on August 4, 1976 in the 520 room, staying for two nights. Additional charges show that long distance calls ran to $41.61, and three restaurant charges totaled $28.87.

Elvis was scheduled to re-appear at the Cumberland County Auditorium at the time of his death, and the tickets became mementos for grieving fans who refused to return them for refunds.
