We praise God for his many blessings and for each child of God. We can look around and say surely God is great to the United States but does this country still believe in God like they once did. The answer is "no" because this country has fallen so low from God where it once believed. But God has not changed and he is going to take care of his children in America, because things are getting so bad he is soon to take his children home to heaven. Church, look up for we are almost at home. Mothers and fathers we soon will be through shedding tears over our lost children. He cares for us and he is getting tired of seeing his children shedding so many Savior. He suffered and died tears over loved ones that seem to not care for them-

Paul returned to his familar theme of giving thanks to God, for the faith of the Thessalonian Christians. As in other instances he used different and endearing words concerning his friends, calling them "beloved of the Lord." He reminded them that God had from the beginning chose them to salvation. This is not to say that God chose the Thessalonians above others. but that he even from the beginning, had chosen the means of salvation for them. as for all others who will accept salvation. God had revealed this means of salva tion through the sanctification as accomplished by the Holy

The santifying power of the Spirit, in fact, is in effect in the believers from the beginning of the slavation process; and through his experiences of santification, a believer is cleansed from both willful sins and inherited sin, being made clean in every respect. Paul also reminded the Thessalonians of their calling to the gospel--the same gospel which he had preached to in their obtaining glory as from their Lord Jesus Christ. The thought here is that the Thessalonian Christians were indeed partakers of salvation, and had been made such through their choice to salvation through the Holy Spirit in sanctification.

Paul exhorted them to stand fast in their faith and to hold to the traditions which he had established by his teachings and letters. Paul was a champion of strong spiritual foundation and everything he did was in the interest of assisting people to stand fast in the Lord. He realized that a foundation consisting of

The Thessalonians had been saved by the acceptance of the gospel; but, in the beginning, the means of salvation had been chosen to it. Moreover, salvation would be maintained in them through the same divine power that provided it in the beginning.

Paul asked that the Thessalonians pray for him as well as for Silas and Timothy, that their message might be glorified in others as it was in the Thessalonians, Paul desired that there be no obstruction to hinder him in the "free course"(free running) of the gospel to the glory of God. He also asked the Thes-alonians to pray that he might be "delivered from unreasonable and wicked men." He made the point clear by reminding them that "all men have not faith." The unreasonable men of Paul's day were those who would not accept the truth under any circumstances. They held fast only to what they wanted to hold fast to. They believed only what they wanted to believe. They were unreasonable: and they were also wicked. What these wicked people believe and what they did was not for the spiritual good of anyone, but only to them- and which had resulted , satisfy their wicked desires.

But Paul soon returned to his reminders that the Lord was faithful to the Thessalonians and would establish them-more than they had ever been-and would preserve them from any evil of their Jesus will do the same for us today we must have faith. Proud to announce the Bible Class received the attendance banner. This being the first time this class has been able to get the banner. The teacher, Mrs. Ella Baker was well pleased with her gift from the church. The Bible Class put on a program of singing. Mr. Marvin Blue Jr. opened up the worship service with alter prayer. A great shower fell from Heaven and our sours were blessed.

The pastor preached from 2nd Kings Chapter 5 Versus 14 and 15. Using for a subject, "No Substitute." The Lord used him in a mighty way. The power of the Lord was felt, souls were rejoicing. Yes, God is real.
