Many staff members wore Indian attire for Indian Heritage Week celebrated during the week of Sept. 20th at Southside/Ashpole Elementary School in Rowland. Each class participated in different activities pertaining to Indian Heritage.

The student body enjoyed the many arts and crafts that represent the Indian and his lifestyle. Some of the crafts made were Indian headdress, bows and arrows, and corn shuck dolls.

Volunteers came into some of the classrooms and shared the experience of the making of some of the Indian crafts.

Mrs. Rigsbee, the media specialist, shared many film strips with the student body about the Indian origin and their lifestyles. Many materials about the Indians in other parts of the country enlightened the students greatly, as well as the Unity Kit about the local Lumbees of Robeson County.

Mrs. Rigsbee also delighted the school with a display of Indian crafts, jewelry, pottery, and Indian dress, donated by Mrs. Jane Chavis, Mrs. Janell Oxendine, Kindergarten class, Myra Deese and principal Mrs. Mable H. Revels.

Mrs. Revels said she was very pleased that her "students and staff participated so wholeheartedly in the week of celebration. Many thanks to everyone for a fine job."
