SUSANNAH McCORKLE ADDS SPARKLE TO FUND-RAISING NIGHT

One of the prettiest ladies ever to grace the stage of Pembroke State University's Performing Arts Center blonde Susannah McCorkle will add a special dash of pulchritude when PSU holds its fund-raising dinner Tuesday, Nov. 9.

That event, to which the tickets are $50-a-plate, begins at 6 p.m. with Miss McCorkle's singing performance following at 8 p.m. The $50 ticket covers admission to both the dinner and the performance.

Speaker at the dinner will be dynamic Jim Valvano, head basketball coach of N.C. State University. The word is that he also wows any audience.

Miss McCorkle will be something special to see as she puts on a show about the "Hollywood Blondes." She will vocally take the audience back to the days of Mae West, Jean Harlow, Billie Holiday, Marilyn Monroe, etc.

Of her, Rex Reed of the New York Daily News says: "Susannah McCorkle is not just a good vocalist, she's a great new singer."

In 1982, Jazz Journal International's Reader's Poll ranked third in the Female Vocalist category—right behind Sarah Vaughan and Ella Fitzgerald.

An American singer who began her career in Europe, she is now recording, performing and making a name for herself in this country.

An accomplished writer, her non-fiction has appeared in "New York" Magazine. Her fiction has been published in "Mademoiselle" and "The O. Henry Book of Prize Short Stories," and in major magazines in England, Australia, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, and Holland.

If you haven't purchased your ticket yet, be sure to contact the PSU Office of Institutional Advancement, telephone 521-4214, Ext. 252. The big event is less than two weeks away.

PSU ALREADY $48,497 TOWARD $100,000 GOAL

On this Thursday, the Annual Giving Campaign committee of 30 held its next-to-last meeting before the big fund-raising dinner—and members were busy turning in the checks of people to whom they had sold tickets. But even before that meeting, it was reported the $48,497 had already been received toward PSU's $100,000 campaign goal, this academic year. Therefore, at this early date PSU is already nearly half of the way toward its goal. Excellent!

HORACE LOCKLEAR ONCE PLAYED BASKETBALL FOR VALVANO'S TEAM

Rep. Horace Locklear, a PSU graduate, says he once played "fun" basketball on a House of Representatives team coached by Jim Valvano, the Wolfpack mentor who will be the PSU speaker on Nov. 7. He and Barbara will be at the dinner as he renews acquaintances with his old coach.

CHANCELLOR GIVENS FEATURED IN ASSOCIATED PRESS STORY

The Associated Press ran a lengthy story about the week-long program which Chancellor Paul Givens and other college chancellors and presidents recently attended in Greensboro. It was at the Center for Creative Leadership. All kinds of concepts to pinpoint leadership were utilized at the seminar.

Chancellor Givens' name led off the AP story. Two psychologists were watching him and others through a one-day looking glass, noting the competition, the interruptions, the persuasiveness and the taking-charge in the group of five of which Dr. Givens was a part.

"Paul's really hard-balling it now," noted Dwight Clark, UNC psychologist, in the story, adding: "They're locked in a relatively high level of competition."

The AP story observed that Dr. Givens "comes from a background of committees." It later added that "Givens says he learned he has to delegate more authority."

LALON JONES TO BE CHANCELLOR'S RADIO GUEST

Lalon Jones, PSU assistant basketball coach and last year's Carolinas Conference "Softball Coach of the Year," will be the guest of Chancellor Givens on his weekly radio program, "From The Chancellor's Office," to be broadcast at 10:45 a.m. Sunday over WAGR in Lumberton.

CHORAL FESTIVAL SET FRIDAY & SATURDAY

The third annual South-eastern Choral Festival will be held at PSU Friday and Saturday with Dr. John Haberman of Georgia State University as clinician. The students taking part will present a concert at the Performing Arts Center at 7:30 p.m. Friday night. On Saturday Dr. Haberman will be working with area teachers. He will be assisted by Dr. Lyn Micheletti and Dr. Harold Slagle of the PSU Music Department.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT TO HOST ROBESON COUNTY SCHOOLS STUDENTS

On Tuesday, Nov. 2, the PSU Music Department will host Robeson County Schools students at 9:30 a.m. and again at 1 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center. The grades will be the 2nd, 3rd, and fourth.

PSU AGAIN TAKING PART IN LIVING HISTORY PROJECT

For the third year PSU is taking part in the "Living History" project with Robeson County schools in which PSU students portray historical characters. Benjamin Franklin and Harriet Tubman are characters to be portrayed this year. The PSU students were at Fairgrove Tuesday and will be at R.B. Dean Thursday and at Proctorville Nov. 4, Long Branch Nov. 9, and Union Chapel Nov. 16.

Dr. Chet Jordan, theatre director of PSU, is working with the Robeson County schools on this project that has been so well received in the past.

FAIRMONT ARTIST AND TEACHER PUTS ON EXHIBIT AT PSU

Nita Chamberlain, artist and teacher from Fairmont, will have an art exhibit opening Sunday in the PSU Performing Arts Center. The show will include 20 works in watercolor, acrylic, pencil, ink and oil. Subjects range from landscapes to abstracts and include several figure studies.

Mrs. Chamberlain, who is a member of PSU's Annual Giving Campaign committee, maintains a private studio near Fairmont and teaches art classes for Fairmont City Schools. The exhibit will continue through Nov. 12 at PSU.

DUNDARRACH CHURCH PROVIDES LUNCH FOR PSU STUDENTS

Lunch on Wednesday at PSU's Baptist Student Union was provided by Dundarrach Baptist Church, for which Dr. Dalton Brooks (PSU director of institutional research) serves as pastor.

The eight persons preparing the lunch were Maxana Oxendine, Lorie B. Jones, Patricia A. Locklear, Pat

Two members of Pembroke State University's Evening College classes, both of whom are employed in the daytime by Butler Manufacturing Co. of Laurinburg, present a $1,000 check from that company to Chancellor Paul Givens for the PSU endowment and scholarship fund. The two are Jean Dameron of Laurinburg and Mike Stevens of Hamlet.

County Recreation Football

The running of Gary Quick sparked Rowland to a 41-0 victory over Pembroke in the Robeson County Recreation and Park Commission 6th and 7th grade football league.

Gary Quick scored 3 touch downs for Rowland, the first one coming from a 55 yard run. Pembroke couldn't get their offense started for fine defense play of Greg Lewis and Greg Blue.

Rowland defense were doing their job and offense went to work. Gary Quick scored on a run of 23 yards and 45 yards. Also scoring for Rowland were Michael McCallum on a 45 yd. run and Andre Reeves on a 98 yard pass from Curtis McCrae. Greg Blue kicked 3 PAT's and Gary Quick made 1 PAT, making the final score Rowland 41-Pembroke-0.

Maynor, Mary Margaret Locklear—and the men cooking the fried chicken outside in a pot were William Branch, Richard Oxendine, and Billy Jacobs. The students enjoyed a delicious lunch and were ministered to at the same time.

Social Services plans Gospel Sing

The Robeson County Department of Social Services is sponsoring a Gospel Sing on Nov. 6 at 7 p.m. The singing will be held at Union Chapel Community Church, Route 1, Pembroke.

The purpose of the gospel sing is to raise money for the approximately 170 children in foster care. There will not be a charge; but an offering will be taken during the singing. The money raised will be used to enable the children in foster care to have a most meaningful Christmas.

The featured singers will be the Union Chapel Gospel Youth, the Lowery Family, the Hestertown Youth Choir, Ms. Van Strickland, the Cherokee Quartet, the Rowland Youth Choir, the Mt. Airy Brotherhood, the Mt. Airy Quartet, the Lowery Trio, the Oxendine Family, the Felix Deal Family, Ms. Dorothy Mitchell, Buddy Scott, the West Bros., the Melody Four, the Gaileans, the Locklear Sisters, the Mt. Olive Choir, the Spirituals, Gina, John and Shelia, the Jones Chapel Baptist Church Young Adult Choir.

Directions from Lumberton, take Highway 72 west toward Red Springs to the third cross roads with Maynor's Texaco and Maynor's Center (store and restaurant) at the cross roads. Turn right and go about one mile to the first church on the right.
