

November 20th Bride-Elect honored at Bridal Shower

Christy L. Sawyer, who will wed Johnny Ray Strickland of Pembroke on November 20th, at the Mills Home Baptist Church, Thomasville, was honored October 23rd at a bridal shower at the home of the hostess Peggy L. Strickland of Pembroke.

Upon arrival, the bride-elect was presented a rose corsage. Special guests were the mother of the bride-elect, Page Sawyer of Thomasville and the mother of the bride-groom-elect, Lady Strickland of Pembroke who were presented carnation corsages.

The gift table was graced with a floral arrangement in the bride-elect's colors of rose and lavender. Party foods were served to approximately twenty guests.

The bride-elect was remembered with a gift of a place setting of china in her chosen pattern.

Douglas Hunt of Barker celebrated his 62nd birthday. Street, Pembroke, recently

Recently Woods Store in Pembroke sponsored a "Mr. and Miss Sugar and Spice" Contest. Forty photos were displayed in the store and customers came in and voted for the boy and girl of their choice. The photos were numbered and carried no names. Selected as Miss Sugar and Spice by popular vote was Sheila Locklear, daughter of Laura and Daniel Locklear of Pembroke. Selected as Mr. Sugar and Spice was Jemathon Allen, son of Michael Lowry and Wanda Allen. Mr. Billy Evans, manager of the Woods store is shown making the presentations.

Donna Dayal Hunt honored for Salesmanship

Miss Donna Dayal Hunt, a sixth grade student at Fagr-grove School proudly displays a check for $100 presented to her by the school principal, Mr. Larece Hunt. Mr. Hunt made the presentation as Donna's classmates and her teacher looked on and congratulated her.

Donna earned the right to receive the check for being the top salesperson in the school as the school began Phase I of its 1982-83 fund raising activities. The money was just one of three prizes from which the winner could select.

Mr. Hunt has announced that the fund raising activity was a tremendous success and he thanked everyone for their efforts, hard work, and cooperation. He also announced that the top classroom for the sale was the fifth grade class under the supervision of Mrs. Mary H. Davenport. Mrs. Davenport's class won a $50 cash prize. Mr. Hunt congratulated Donna and the fifth grade class for a job "well done."

Donna is a student in Mrs. Freida Bullard's sixth grade class.
