

Children's Creative Dramatics Workshop Offered at PSU

The Performing Arts Center of PSU is proud to announce that it will offer THEATRICALS, a unique series of workshops in creative dramatics for young people, the first such classes in this area. Theatricals will consist of six classes each for ages 6-12 and 12-15 to be held each Saturday from January 15 through February 19, 1983 in the Performing Arts Center.

The instructor for these workshops will be Mrs. Sherry Levy who holds a BFA in theatre and music from Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Levy has a vast background in professional theatre, with strong emphasis on children's theatre, voice and movement. She is quite excited about THEATRICALS, stating that creative dramatics has long been proven to be a great asset in the development of communication with young people of all ages. While providing a great deal of fun for students, it helps them to gain confidence in themselves.

The cost of the series of six classes is $35 per student, then $20 for each additional student from the same family. Classes for students ages 6-12 will be held from 10 a.m. until 12 noon, and those for ages 12-15 held from 1 p.m. - 3 p.m. each Saturday from January 15 through February 19. Registration forms are available now and may be obtained by calling the Performing Arts Center at 521-0778 or 521-0308.

Class size is limited so interested parents are urged to register early. Deadline for registration is January 15. For more information call 521-0778.

Pembroke Homemakers install new officers

The Pembroke Homemakers held their monthly meeting Tuesday, Nov. 16, at Locklear Court. The outgoing president, Ms. Lucy S. Locklear, presided.

A very impressive installation ceremony was given by Ms. Sadie Ray Blanks. She compared the new slate of officers to a bouquet of flowers. Each one representing a flower holding its own place in the bouquet making it complete.

The following officers were installed: president- Ms. Dolly Lowry; vice president- Ms. Margaret Sampson; secretary- Ms. Gertrude Locklear; treasurer- Ms. Hazel Brewington; recording secretary- Ms. Sadie Ray Blanks; devotional leader- Ms. Lucy Belle Brooks.

The beautiful silver tray won by the Pembroke Homemakers Club as Club of the Year was displayed.

Ms. Dolly Lowry and Ms. Sadie Ray Blanks were presented an engraved paper weight for blue ribbon winners at the Robeson County Fair.

After taking the seat as the club's new president, Ms. Dolly Lowry changed the tempo. The club reviewed the busy year. The new president applied the slogan "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." The club members enjoyed several games of Bingo, winning some beautiful prizes. Fun times makes the older ones feel young at heart.

Co-hostesses were Ms. Daisy Dimery and Ms. Lillian Chavis.

Local Girl cast in Pembroke Player's Production

Cindy Kay Locklear

Cindy Kay Locklear, daughter of Jydor and Joy Locklear of Pembroke, has been cast in the December Pembroke Players production of "The Runner Stumbles," by Milan Stitt. A junior majoring in physical education, Cindy will play the role of the young college girl, Louise in this production.

This will be Cindy's first PSU mainstage production, however while at Pembroke Senior High, she was cast in "Murder on Center Stage." She is a very talented dancer who has worked with the Native American Center for the Arts dancers, choreographing several of their dances. Recently, she appeared in their spring production of "Fiddler On The Roof."

"The Runner Stumbles," directed by Enoch Morris, is a courtroom drama based on an actual turn of the century trial about a priest accused of the murder of a nun in his charge.

The Pembroke Players production will be presented December 2, 3, and 4 at 8 p.m. A 1 p.m. matinee is scheduled for Friday, December 3. Ticket prices are $3 public, $2 for THE SEASON subscribers. PSU students admitted free with valid ID.

Pembroke Player's Production "...Intense, meaty and emotional..."

Debbie B. Morris

"The production is going to be intense, meaty, and emotional," states Debbie Morris about the Pembroke Players production of "The Runner Stumbles," scheduled for December 2, 3, and 4 in the Performing Arts Center at 8 p.m.

Debbie is cast in the role of Erna Prindle, the blacksmith's wife, and is also costume designer for this production. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton (Tunney) Brooks of Lumberton. Debbie is married to Enoch Morris, director of "The Runner Stumbles," and has been very active in both PSU and community theatre. She was cast in the Robeson Little Theatre production of "Blithe Spirit" and "Vanities," and in the PSU productions of "Skin Of Our Teeth," and "Present Tense." Presently a senior at PSU, her former years have been very creative. She has used her art major and background to create and design costumes of such PSU productions as "A Doll's House," "Cat On A Hot Tin Roof" and "Lion In Winter." She also served as costume designer for the 1981 season of "Strike at the Wind." Prior to coming to PSU, Debbie attended UNC in Wilmington.

"The Runner Stumbles," by Milan Stitt is a courtroom drama based on an actual turn of the century trial of a priest in Michigan accused of the murder of a nun in his charge. The flash-back direction of the play is designed to build suspense and climax with the final verdict.

"I look forward to developing the character Erna," Debbie continues, "and being involved with this PSU production-designing costumes as well as acting."

"The Runner Stumbles" will be presented December 2, 3 and 4 at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center. A 1 p.m. matinee is scheduled for December 3, 1982. Tickets are $3 for public; $2 for THE SEASON subscribers. PSU students are admitted Free with valid ID.
