

Lumbree Shopping Center
gathers for Christmas

Christmas is a time for getting together, renewing vows, taking the time to say in sundry ways, "We care." Ward Clark, owner of Lumbree Shopping Center, and a number of other businesses gathered his employees each Christmas season for a night out, to eat, share gifts, and fellowship. This year the Christmas gathering was held Dec. 16 at Revels Fish Camp in Pembroke. At this time, Clark hosted a meal, presented bonuses and wished the best of the Christmas season to his employees. They are shown above. They are in rear, left to right:
