LRDA IN ACTION by Garry Lewis Barton LRDA Public Relations

"Have a Happy & Prosperous New Year!"

during the Christmas Holidays, accompanied by solstationed at Fort Bragg, N.C. Prior to the arrival of ol' Saint

Santa Claus visited LRDA's Christmas stories, and much Hoke County Day Care Center more. However, as is readily apparent by the look on the face of the beautiful child diers from the 7th Special shown above, the highlight of Forces Airborne squadron the fun-filled day was the arrival of Santa Claus on a flaming red fire truck [his Nick, the soldiers entertained reindeers and sled were temthe pre-schoolers with games porarily out of commission]. such as Musical Chairs and With a hearty 'Ho, ho!', he Simon Says, and by singing handed out gifts to each child Christmas carols, reading at the Center and, in return, received a grateful hug of appreciation. Shown left is Pearlie Brooks, Director of LRDA's Hoke County Day Care Center. Lynneettah Jacobs is Director of LRDA's Day Care Program which operates seven day care centers, providing quality day care services at a nominal cost. Call 521-9761 for more [Garry Barton Photo]

Soldiers from the 508th

both the Fairgrove and Pem-Airborne Infantry Division at broke Lumbee Longhouse dren. Fort Bragg provided a Christ- Learning Centers. Snacks [Garry Barton Photo] mas Party for the children of were provided and gifts were given to the pre-school chil-

Children from the Fair- Creek Mall during the Holgrove Lumbee Longhouse idays in order to view the Learning Center visited Cross beautiful Christmas decora-

[Garry Barton Photo]

The Pembroke Lumbee Ican Center for the Arts Longhouse Learning Center building. The talented preheld its Christmas Program schoolers entertained the December 20, 1982 at LRDA's over-flow throng of parents Lumbee River Native Amerand well-wishers and were visited by Santa Claus at the end of the program who presented gifts to the excited and enthusiastic children. (Garry Barton Photo)

Maximilian I, an Austrian prince, originated the tradition of the diamond engagement r in 1477. His bride was Mary of Burgundy, whom he had never seen until their marria

Pictured above [left] is

Ministry's Nutrition Director Alice Jacobs Cummings, and [far right] Teresa Bullard Pembroke Area Presbyterian & LRDA's Food Co-op, along

"...a sincere and generous display of Christmas Spirit.."

In a sincere and generous Piggly Wiggly in Pembroke, display of Christmas Spirit, Woods' Dept. Store in Pem-Pembroke Area Presbyterian broke, LRDA's Food Co-ops Ministry's Nutrition Program located in Pembroke and distributed food baskets (in-Lumberton, McLean Wholecluding a turkey or hen) to 715, sale, Campbell's Soup Co.,

LRDA's Food Co-ops served as distribution sites for the project. mings, Pembroke Area Presbyterian Ministry's Nutrition accomplished this task within a long-term policy of working closely with other

God behind us.' to thank the following agencies for contributing to this worthwhile endeavor that proves "Christ" is still in

Hardee's of Pembroke, Bo's Foodland in Pembroke, son, destitute families in the Rob- Scottish Packing, Pate- Dereson County area during the by, and all the Presbyterian Christmas season. Continuing churches throughout the U.S.

Thanks are also in order community action agencies, to the following volunteers who gave so unselfishly of their time and energies in Christmas food give-away helping package and distribute the food: Shirley Lock-Said Alice Jacobs Cum- lear and the LRDA Food Co-op staff, Lana Dial and the WIC Program staff, LRDA's Director: "We could not have Union Chapel Day Care Center staff, Rev. and Mrs. Earl out our friends and the love of Chavis, members of First Apostolic Church of Jesus The Pembroke Area Pres- Christ, Rev. Dufrene Cumbyterian Ministry would like mings, members of the Gallilee Church, Prospect Fire Department, Delton Oxendine, Pembroke Housing Authority staff, Pembroke Community Workshop staff, and Rev. and Mrs. John Robin-

Warriors Lose to Scotland County

Devy Bell [51] looks for a the J.V., 80-44. Last week in [David Malcolm photo]

the Hoke County-WSHP Holway to the hoop against iday Basketball Classic at Scotland County Tuesday Raeford, Bell was tournament night. The Warriors suffered co-MVP as Pembroke nipped their second straight defeat, Hoke County, 63-61, before losing 69-50. The Lady War- losing in the championship riors also lost, 40-33, as did game to Red Springs, 62-59.

Italian physicist Enrico Fermi voiced an oft-stated dream that the world would find peaceful uses for the atom to benefit mankind.

THEN: It was just 40 years ago that Professor Fermi led a team of scientists which performed the world's first controlled nuclear chain reaction at the Electric-design boiling water University of Chicago.

been unveiled in the town of Caorso on the River Po under construction in Mid-in Italy. It is a spot where land, Michigan, will also Fermi played as a little boy visiting his grandfather. It is also the site of Italy's largest operating reactor. Officials estimate NOW: Professor Fermi's that the plant's output will cam is coming true. A cut 365 million lire a year dream is coming true. A cut 365 million lire a year A similar plant, nov land, Michigan, will also 1,100,000 kilowatt built by Detroit

Outreach Holiness Church News

Services at Outreach Holiness Church begin at 10 a.m. for Sunday School, Morning Service at 11. Pastor for the church is Rev. James "Buddy" Bullard, Jr.

We praise God for being able to always tell the love of God. God is still blessing us and we give him all the praise and glory. Sunday our new Sunday School Director Bro. Luther Locklear obeyed God and we didn't get to have Sunday School. The Spirit of God was present but sinner still sit back and said, No to God. But sinner, Jesus is soon coming and you better get ready, its later than you think. Our pastor preached a wonderful message and our souls were fed with the words of God. Follow peace with all men, and Holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord, Hebrews 12:14. We had a wonderful time in the Lord. You are more than welcome at Outreach Holiness--God Bless with other staff who are busy packaging the food for distribution to destitute families.

National

Indian

Law

Library's

New

Catalogue

Boulder, Colorado- The National Indian Law Library

(NILL), a special project of the Native American Rights Fund

recently announced the third edition printing of the NILL

Catalogue. The special revision project for the library was two and a half years in the making and incorporates 500

additional items to the 1976

to be produced using a computerized system of data storage and retrieval and will greatly facilitate additions and changes provided Catalogue subscribers in supplementary materials. The Catalogue subject index utilizes the comprehensive Index to Indian Law, a system initially developed and recently revised by the Native American Rights Fund attorney staff.

special collections of Indian material, the National Indian Law Library collection is a unique legal resource of briefs, pleadings, orders; decisions and articles relating to the field of Indian law. Since its inception in 1972 with a start-up grant from the Carnegie Corporation, the collection has grown to 3,400 acquistions, the largest in the country. Special funding for the recent Catalogue revision was provided in part by the Administration for Native

Americans and the Hearst

Foundation. Cost to subscribers for the Catalogue and supplements is $75. Contact the National Indian Law Library at the Native American Rights Fund headquarters for

In some animals, such as the rabbit, the incisor teeth keep growing as they are worn down. The shark grows set after set of teeth.

further information.

Although there are other

The new edition is the first edition.

[Garry Barton Photo]

IN LOVING MEMORY

IN MEMORY OF CHARLES OXENDINE DIED NOV.8, 1972

Darling time is still passing by, our children are growing and our hearts still cry out for you but darling, one day we will be together again in Heaven I know, We look each day, for you know Jesus is soon to come and the children and I are looking to see you again. I know you are so happy in Heaven, there are no tears in Heaven or sorrow! there, but oh such peace, joy and happiness there I know. Darling 10 years has past but I have not forgot you. I still love and care for you. And long for that day when Jesus comes. So rest my darling, as I care for our children and I will see vou soon. Children-Hello

Written by Fannie C. Oxendine, Children, Linda, Ginger, Belcon, Jimmy and

LOCKLEARS ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Carlon Locklear of Maxton announce the birth of their new daughter, Leona Rose Ann Locklear, born December 28, 1982 at Moore County Memorial Hospital.

CING THE PUCK!

Gordie Howe, a National Hockey League All-Star covered part of five dec-1940's to the 1980's.

Goalie Glenn Hall, who played for Detroit and Chicago, played 502 consecutive complete games. His record began in 1955 and was ended by an injury in 1962.

against the New at age 52, had a career that Americans, the Toronto Maple Leafs scored eight ades. He played from the goals in less than five minutes.

The New York ers' Bill Smith is the only goalie to score in a National Hockey League game. According to Figgie International's Sherwood-Drolet division, he accomplished the feat in 1979 against the Colorado Rockies.

Pembroke Announces Dean's List

Pembroke State University has announced its Dean's List of 192 students for the fall semester. A grade point average of 3.6 for a minimum of 12 semester hours is