Understanding Yourself

I Can't Take It Anymore
By Dr. Oswald Hoffmann
Lutheran Hour Speaker

People work under great stress. Punch that clock. Pull that file. Pound that pavement. Usually it's not the major catastrophes that make us say, "I can't take it anymore," but it's a combination of small things. You hardly recover from one blow when another one hits.

Confidence in God is our refuge and strength.

Faith in Christ has a way of turning life around. It takes the worst disaster and turns it into victory.

The best way to manage stress is to nourish a personal relationship with God through faith in Jesus Christ. God is the most powerful and the most dependable source of strength you can have.

Live one day at a time with faith in God. Be confident that God's strength can get through to you today.

Faith works, when it is a living and working faith in a living and working Lord.

The construction of Stonehenge required an estimated 1.5 million hours of labor.

Father: "You should take a lesson from the ants...they work and never play."
Son: "Then how come they are always at picnics?"

Julian Bond
BLAC PAC Head

Jim Hunt Says: Out-of-state campaign contributions "create obligations you ought not to have."¹

Fact: Out-of-state BLAC PAC and liberal Fund for Democrat Majority PAC, headed by Ted Kennedy, are helping Jim Hunt defeat Jesse Helms.^{2,3}

What Did Julian Bond And His BLAC PAC Say? Julian Bond said: "I'd like to see us run a picture of Jesse Helms in North Carolina newspapers with a rifle's crosshair over his chest..."²

What Did Ted Kennedy Say: "We can—and we must—end the disgraceful power* of Jesse Helms in the Senate."³

 (Is this because Jesse was using his power in the Senate to preserve the tobacco program while Kennedy was using his power to destroy the tobacco program?)

"... There's a streak of meanness and intolerance in the campaign to 'get' Helms that has no place in American politics—and that should be disturbing to all regardless of party label or ideology."⁴ The Augusta Chronicle
