PEMBROKE JAYCEE CLUBHOUSE BURNS AGAIN Frankie's Family Steakhouse Helps in Time of Trouble

The Pembroke Jaycee Clubhouse burned Friday, February 10, 1984. It was a loss not only to the members of the Jaycee organization, but also to Pembroke and surrounding communities. The Jaycees had planned a Valentine's Dance for Saturday, February 11, 1984. After expenses of the dance were paid, a donation was to be made to the family of a child who is suffering from a long-term terminal illness. The donation was to help with the mounting medical expenses facing the family.

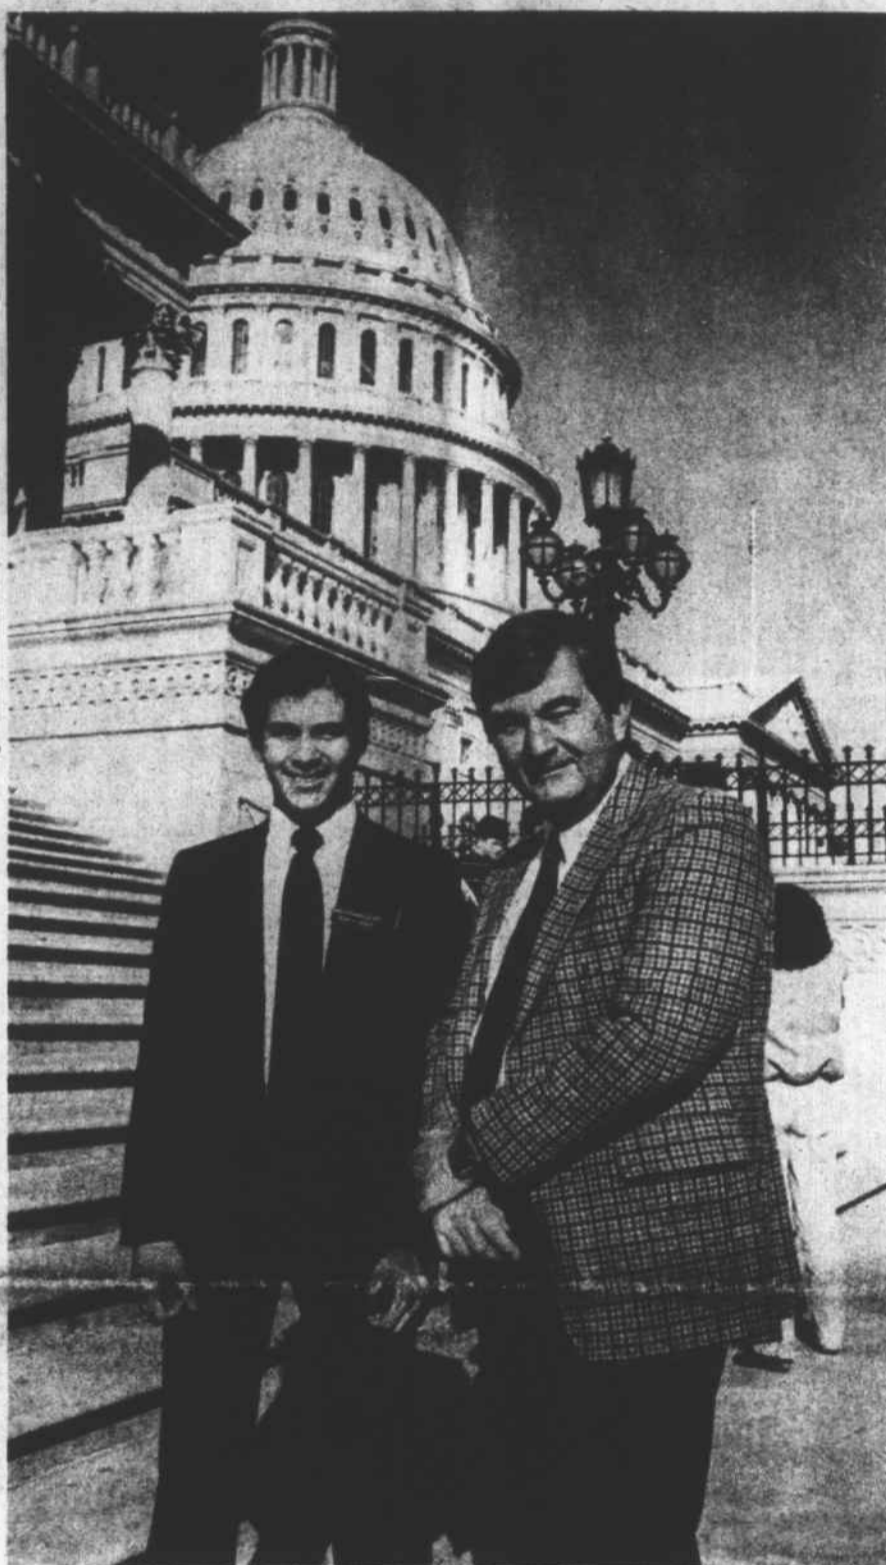

end Frankie's Family Steakhouse and Seafood (formerly Revels' Fish Camp) was chosen. Frankie and Elsie Locklear offered to close their business, allowing time for the Jaycees and Jaycettes to decorate and prepare for the dance. They also offered the place rent-free to the Jaycees as well as bearing the expenses for some refreshments.

On Saturday morning, members of the Jaycee Club received calls from individuals who had purchased tickets asking that their money be returned.

The kindness and concern for our plight as an organization is something that can never be repaid to Frankie and Elsie. They offered us a chance to cut our loss by sharing it with us and supporting us throughout the day of struggling to make an 8 p.m. deadline.
