PSU WINS LEAGUE SOFTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP FOR 1984

Pembroke State University battled back through the loser's bracket to win the 1984 Carolinas Conference Softball Championship.

The Lady Braves, 28-6 after the tournament, dropped their opening game 4-3 to Wingate, but bounced back to win the next five to claim the championship honors. PSU downed Guilford 4-1, Atlantic Christian 1-0, Wingate 7-2, Pfeiffer 5-3, and then Pfeiffer again 1-0 for the title.

It marks only the second conference title won by Pembroke State in softball, the first coming during the 1978 season.

Pembroke State University Head Coach Lalor Jones, voted "Coach of the Year" had these comments on her team's play: "We were really down after the first game since we lost the games on play of errors. We were not at that point playing as aggressive as we should. However, the team bounced back and played hard, especially the last 3 games. I felt then we played excellent defense, hit the ball well, and just went after it. This team set out to prove they were the best, and they did."

"Individually, Monica Tyner played well for us going 8 for 15 at the plate and she made two crucial putouts at homeplate in the game against Pfeiffer. She played well for the tournament as did Bobbie Dunn and Pam Odom."

Pembroke State University led the honorees for the 1984 softball in the Carolinas Conference with Lalor Jones selected "Coach of the Year" and PSU's Pam Odom named "Player of the Year."

Members of the 1984 All-Carolinas Conference softball team are as follows:

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN--Heather Sarby; CATAWBA--Sharma Dulin, Daryl Grubb; ELON--Susan Wilson; GUILFORD--Debbie Phillips; PEMBROKE STATE--Tracy Williams and Pam Odom;

PFEIFFER--Carol Coble, Karen Sanders; and WINGATE--Laura Summerlin.

Final team standings for the tournament were: 1. Pembroke State (5-1), 2. Pfeiffer; 3. Wingate; tied 4, Catawba and Atlantic Christian; 6. Guilford; and 7. Elon.

Guilford wins Women's Tennis Championships; PSU Takes Fifth

Guilford College has snapped High Point College's six consecutive conference championship crown reign by claiming the 1984 Carolinas Conference Women's Tennis Championship.

Final team standings were as follows: Guilford 23 pts., High Point 19, Atlantic Christian 8, Elon College 8, Pembroke State 2, Wingate, Pfeiffer and Catawba, 1 point each.

Voted "Coach of the Year" was Guilford's Gayle Currie and No. 1 singles winner Julie Tupper reaped "Player of the Year" honors.

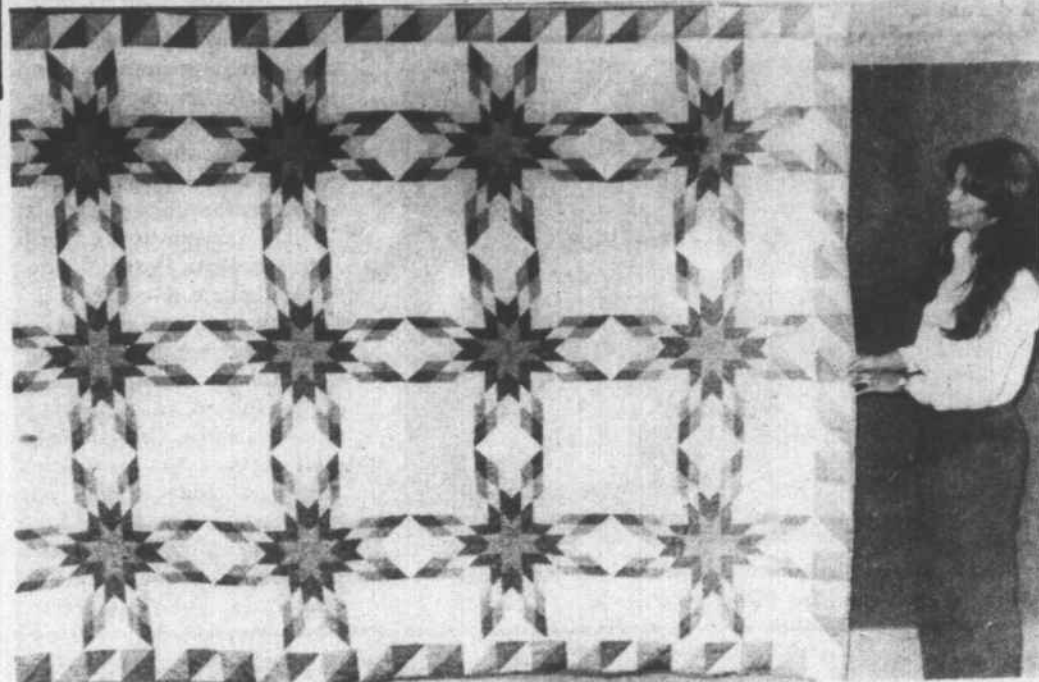

Members of the 1984 All-Carolinas Conference women's tennis team are:

GUILFORD--Julie Tupper, Jennifer Friend, Lisa Miller, Lili Carpenter in singles, and Carpenter-Melanie Bischoff, Miller-Claudie Mauhart in doubles.

HIGH POINT--Anna Medina, Lynn Sharkey in singles and Aneli Kiviniemi-Medina in doubles.

WHAT IS SCOLIOSIS?

Scoliosis is a lateral, or side-wards, curvature of the spine. The curvature of the spine to one side, or to both sides at different levels, is the condition known as SCOLIOSIS.

Scoliosis is not a disease, but it often appears in more than one member of a family in the same or different generations. It is a spinal disorder that usually appears during the early teen years, although it may appear in younger children as well.

IS SCOLIOSIS VERY COMMON?

Approximately 10% of the adolescent population have some degree of scoliosis. This means that about 1,000,000 youngsters in the United States alone have scoliosis.

CAN SCOLIOSIS BE CURED?

Scoliosis should be treated by someone who specializes in these problems. The Doctor of Chiropractic, with his great knowledge of the importance of the spine and its alignment, and of the significance of even minute changes in this alignment, treats scoliosis on a daily basis with various degrees of success.

For the sake of your child's health, have them checked for scoliosis.

Pembroke State, of course, recently had an Alumni Admissions Reception in Charlotte and is seeking new in-roads in that largest city in the state.

The Givens' daughter, Mrs. Deborah Bauman, lives in Charlotte, so visiting the Queen City is also a family affair.

SEEKING ALUMNI ADDRESSES VIA TV

The PSU Alumni Office, headed by John Carter, is making a strong effort to update its list of alumni addresses.

Carter has been putting two advertising spots on the 10 p.m. news on WKFT-TV, Channel 40, in Fayetteville, asking alumni to send in their current addresses. Those spots carry slides of campus scenes of Pembroke State. "These spots run twice a week on the 10 p.m. news segment for the remainder of the month," says Carter.

PSI CHI INDUCTS FOUR STUDENTS

Pembroke State's chapter of Psi Chi, the national honor society in psychology, last Thursday inducted four new members.

They were Audrey Jackson, Lumberton; Terry Jones, Fayetteville; Clyde Locklear, Marston; and Edward O'Neal, Rockingham.

The PSU chapter has been in existence five years. Its advisor is Dr. Kathryn Rileigh of the PSU Psychology Department.

JOHN CAMPBELL ACCEPTED BY DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

John Campbell, PSU student from Route 1, Pembroke, has been accepted by the Duke University Divinity School. Campbell, the son of Carthenia Campbell (his father is deceased), is majoring in religion. He will receive each year a $3,300 dean's scholarship.

CHAY, ROSS ATTEND ATLANTA MEETING

Dr. John Chay, chairman of the PSU History Department, and Dr. Thomas Ross, chairman of the PSU Geology and Geography Department, attended the recent 25th Annual Meeting of the International Studies Association in Atlanta.

Dr. Chay chaired two sessions and presented a paper entitled: "The Buffer State of Korea."

Dr. Ross presented a paper entitled: "Buffer States: A Geographer's Perspective."

Delivering the keynote address there was former President Jimmy Carter.

WORKSHOP ON QUILTING WEDNESDAY

A workshop on "Traditional and Contemporary Trends in Quilting" will be conducted by Sarah Woodring of Charlotte at PSU's Native American Resource Center Wednesday, April 25, from 10 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. Mrs. Woodring is the wife of Carl Woodring, whose special Indian art exhibit is on display at PSU through May.

Mrs. Woodring is a collector of quilts, a lecturer on that skill, and a quilter herself. During her workshop, she will discuss the changing trends in quilting, demonstrate different techniques of the skill, and be available to identify patterns of old quilts which people may have.

The public is invited to bring old quilts regardless of their condition plus new quilts which have unique designs. These will be for display and discussion.

ANN WELLS GOING TO ORIENT

Ann Wells, associate professor of English at PSU who last year traveled to Russia, is planning another exciting trip overseas. This time she and her sister-in-law from Houston are traveling to the Orient. Ann will be gone the entire month of May.

MANY PSU AUTHORS DISPLAY THEIR WORK DURING "NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK"

Dr. Robert Hersch, director of library services, had many things happening during "National Library Week" at PSU. One was a reception honoring campus authors in Mary Livermore Library.

JIM AUTRY SELECTED "ALUMNUS OF MONTH"

Jim Autry of Red Springs, who graduated summa cum laude from PSU in 1977, is enjoying his work very much as public relations director of Southern National Corporation with offices in Lumberton. This corporation has 96 banks in 41 cities in North Carolina. It owns four other corporations beside Southern National Bank.

Autry, 28, was editor of the Pembroke State University student newspaper, "The Pine Needle," during his undergraduate days.

FRED CHAPPELL CONTRIBUTING EDITOR

Fred Chappell of UNC-Greensboro, a winner of the Roanoke-Chowan Award for the best book of poetry published in North Carolina, will be a future contributing editor to "Pembroke Magazine," it was announced by editor Shelby Stephenson.

"Fred Chappell is one of the top writers in the nation," says Stephenson. "He is not only a poet, he's a novelist and critic."

Chappell spoke to PSU's writing classes in February.

Carolyn Emanuel, MPH
Executive Director

Carolyn Emanuel is a multi talented individual whose major contribution to the Pembroke area to date was the founding and organization of Lumbee Medical Center. She has been the Executive Director of this vital health resource center since its inception in January, 1982. Ms. Emanuel graduated from Pembroke State University in 1977 with a B.A. Degree in Sociology with a subspecialty in Medical Sociology. While at PSU, she received an award for excellence in Sociology and excellence in Medical Sociology.

Ms. Emanuel was a member of the N.C. Chapter of Kappa Alpha Chi Honor Society and the Phi Epsilon Chi Honor Society. She served as president of the Medical Sociology Club.

Ms. Emanuel pursued graduate school and in 1979 she graduated from the UNC-CH School of Public Health. Her Master's thesis, "Factors Influencing the Utilization of Health Services by Urban Indians," is an important and often quoted document.

In 1978-79 Ms. Emanuel was the Health Planner for the NC Commission of Indian Affairs. In the summer of 1978 she was a graduate assistant and a Health Service Officer with the Public Health Service, Department of Health, Education and Welfare in Rockville, Maryland.

Ms. Emanuel has served as Chairperson of the Recruitment and Survival Committee of the Carolina Indian Circle; Chairperson of the Third Annual NC Health Careers Symposium; Board member of the N.C. Primary Health Care Association; Board member of the Robeson County Child Health Council; and she has also served on the advisory board for the Indian Health Professions Recruitment Program.

She is currently a member of the North Carolina Primary Health Care Association Board of Directors.
