

WHO'S RUNNING FOR WHAT?

Edmisten When we go to the polls May 8 we'll have some choices in the primary. More than 50 candidates are vying for 14 major seats, from U.S. Senator to Labor

Rufus J.

Commissioner. For instance, 10 people are running for governor on the Democratic Slate. Other interesting races are for Lieutenant Governor, U.S. House of Representatives and a plethora of local races here in Robeson County.

This week we look at the races for Governor, Lieutanant Governor, U.S. Senate and the 7th Congressional seat.

GOVERNOR'S RACE

10 candidates are vying for Governor in the upcoming Democratic Primary on May 8.

Heading the pack, according to reliable polls and political rumblings are Lauch Faircloth, Eddie Knox and Rufus Edmisten. Solid contenders seem to be Lt. Gov. Jimmy Green, Tom Gilmore and John Ingram.

Also rans are Andy Barker; R.L. Hannon, the only Black in the crowded field; J.D. Whaley and Glenn Miller, the only admitted Klansman in the bunch.

Front runners seem to be Faircloth, from nearby Sampson County, a former Chairman of the Highway Commission and Secretary of the Commerce Dept. who prides himself on being a businessman and lifelong farmer; Eddie knox, formerly Mayor of Charlotte, former Chairman of the Advisory Budget Commission, a lawyer by trade; and Rufus Edmisten, Attorney General, former Deputy Chief Counsel to the U.S. Senate Watergate Committee, former staffer for legendary Senator Sam Ervin. Holds a law degree.

Faircloth boasts Greg Bryant as one of the State House, and in public service for nearly two decades for the chance to oppose either little known Republicans Franklin Jordan, Erick P. Little, John H. Carrington, Barbara S. Perry and William S. Hiatt in the fall.

U.S. SENATE

It's the great shoot out and spend out between Governor Jim Hunt (Democrat) and incumbent Senator Jesse Helms (Republican) in the fall. In the meantime, Hunt, two times Governor, must best Tom Allred of Greensboro and Harrill Jones of Gastonia May 8 in the Democratic Primary while Helms must get by George Wimbish of Charlotte on the Republican side. Helms will be seeking his fourth term in the U.S. Senate.

DEMOCRATIC

SEVENTH DISTRICT, U.S. CONGRESS U.S. Rep. Charlie Rose of Fayetteville is offering himself for a seventh term. He is presently Chairman of House Agriculture Subcommittee on Tobacco and Peanuts, and serves on a number of important congressional committees.

There is no Republican challenger, but Tommie Dial, long time Indian advocat for LRDA, Lumbee Bank, and more, is challenging Rose for nomination.

Dial is from Pembroke and ran a serious but unsuccessful race for State House in 1966. Considered first serious Indian candidate for race beyond Robeson's parameters when he ran in '66.

Next week we take a look at the local races.

Tommie Dial blasts Press

PEMBROKE--Tommie Dial, Candidate for the 7th Congressional Seat, called a press conference Saturday at his campaign headquarters in Pembroke to blast the press for its lack of interest in covering his campaign.

Dial feels the press has been unfair in covering his campaign and has not allowed his issues to be presented to the voters of the 7th Congressional District. Dial has issued a challenge to incumbent Congressman Charlie Rose to debate the issues as a way to circumvent the "non-coverage" by the local media. In a challenge to Rose, Dial said, "I challenge (you) to quite playing backroom politics with the 'political manipulators' of the Democratic Party and be a statesman as a U.S. Congressman should be and let's debate the crucial issues...that face the people of the 7th Congressional District (Cumberland, Robeson, Columbus, Brunswick and New Hanover Counties)...'

Dial lists the issues as economic growth, expanded support for education, jobs, equal opportunities for women and minority citizens, the tobacco program, expanded protection for senior citizens, children and disabled persons, expansion of technical assistance to Coastal industries, inland port development on Cape Fear River, I-40 Extension and more.

At his press conference Dial charged "An obvious conspiracy" by "parties unknown" to "subvert my attempts to' get news media coverage of some very important issues before the public ... " Dial cited instances of his news releases not being published, poor placement when printed, and lack of coverage of press conferences when held.

He also complains about the lack of accuracy when the press does mention him. He cites a case where the Robesonian recently quoted "a spokesman for the statewide Jackson Campaign for President (who) said Congressional Candidate Tommie Dial and some other area supporters are setting up a Jackson Headquarters in Pembroke ... '

Dial calls the news item "an outright lie" and has demanded a retraction. Dial said, "...it is an outright lie, obviously conceived by your newspaper (the Robesonian) as a conspiracy by you to damage my candidacy ... "

Dial reminded his supporters, too, of an April 28 fund raising event at the 710 Dragstrip, Elrod, N.C. featuring continuous program and entertainment from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Dial today announced that he "has asked his attornies to file a formal complaint with the FCC (Federal Communications Commission) against The tobesonian of 121 W. 5th St., Lumberton, N.C. and requested an investigation based upon the alleged violations and abuses of the fair reporting provisions of applicable federal laws."
