

Robeson Civic Chorale

presents Pops Concert June 4

On Monday, June 4, at 8 p.m. the Robeson Civic Chorale will present its eleventh annual spring pops concert in the Carolina Civic Center in Lumberton. This year's concert, That's Entertainment, is a salute to the golden age of the American movie musical and will feature selections from such memorable films as My Fair Lady, 42nd Street, The Wizard of Oz, and Oklahoma. Selections will be performed from the scores of such famous composers as Cole Porter, George Gershwin, Harold Arlen, and Rodgers and Hammerstein.

The Robeson Civic Chorale, currently directed by Mrs. Sherry Levy is returning to the Carolina Civic Center for the performance of its pops concert for the third consecutive year. Director Levy stated, "The Robeson Civic Chorale is tremendously pleased to be performing once again in the Civic Center. The center has proven itself to provide the perfect performance space for concerts by organizations such as ours."

The Chorale recently performed in a benefit for the Carolina Civic Center Foundation sponsored by the Fashion Bar of Lumberton.

Soloists for the pops concert include Lisa Flowers, Kathryn Floyd, Julie Lindsay, Ellie Blakely, Dr. Leon Bolich, Albert Studdard, Barbara Ransom and John Locklear. There is no admission charge for the concert. The public is invited to attend. This concert is made possible by a grant from the Grassroots Arts Program of the North Carolina Arts Council, a state agency.

Sioux Indian share

The Sioux and the Lumbees had a short, but informative, pow wow just recently at Pembroke Elementary School in Mrs. Mary Chavis, Mrs. Rosa Woods, Mrs. Julia Johnson's third grade, and Mrs. Geraldine Clark's second grade.

Miss Deloris Red Feather, from Mission, South Dakota, a student at Pembroke State University shared part of her past and present experiences of her life on the reservation.

She held the children in awe, in her soft spoken manner telling and answering questions about her home.

Miss Red Feather was very impressed with the children, school, and community. She hopes to come back and spend more time getting better acquainted with the Lumbee people and some of their customs. (Photo by Luvenia Hunt)

Math-a-thon program at Southside/Ashpole

The Fourth Grade Classes at Southside-Ashpole School have been involved in a Math-A-Thon Program raising monies for St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital. St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital is the largest childhood cancer research center in the world. It is nonsectarian and provides total medical care to children admitted by physician referral and whose diseases are under study. Research findings are freely shared with doctors and hospitals all over the world.

The total monies raised for the Math-A-Thon Program was $239.54. As an incentive every child that raised $25 received a St. Jude tee-shirt.

Those who turned in $100 or more also received a barrel tote bag.

Lakeshia Spaulding raised the most money, bringing in a total of $46.51.

Coordinating the program was Ms. Mary F. Locklear, Fourth Grade Math Teacher, and Ms. Fran Lancaster, EMH Teacher for Fourth and Fifth Grades.

Academic All American

Kimberly Rae Hunt

attends St. Pauls High School was nominated for this National Award by Miss Wanda Phillips, English teacher. Kimberly will appear in the Academic All American Scholar Directory, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in American history. Certainly, winners of the Academic All American Awards should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the National Secondary Education Council.

The National Secondary Education Council announced today that Kimberly Rae Hunt has been named an Academic All American.

The NSEC has established the Academic All American Scholar Award Program in order to offer deserved recognition to superior students who excel in the Academic disciplines. The Academic All American Scholars must earn a 3.3 or better grade point average. Only Scholars selected by a secondary school instructor, counselor, or other qualified sponsor are accepted. These scholars are also eligible for other awards given by the NSEC. These are awards few students can ever hope to attain.

Kimberly Rae Hunt who

The Council selects Academic All American Scholars upon the exclusive recommendations of teachers, coaches, counselors, and other qualified sponsors. Once awarded, the students may be recognized by the NSEC for other honors.

Kimberly is the daughter of Glennis Bell Hunt. The grandparents are Mrs. Maggie Bell of St. Pauls and Mrs. Charity Hunt of Lumberton.

Jacksonville, Florida has the largest total area of any city in the U.S. It takes in 460 square miles.

Indian Youth Unity Conference set June 20-22

The Fifth Annual Indian Youth Unity Conference is scheduled for June 20-22 at Pembroke State University in Pembroke.

The conference provides an opportunity for students to explore their Indian heritage, improve their self-image and develop academic and social values. They will attend workshops on college planning, cultural enrichment, drug and alcohol abuse prevention and how to earn money.

Special events will include a tribal basketball tournament, princess pageant, banquet and art and essay contests. The conference is sponsored by the N.C. Native American Youth Organization and will have the theme, "Reaching Our Goals in the Spirit of Our Ancestors."

Indian youth ages 14-18 or in grades 9-12 are eligible to participate. Registration will be limited to 300 persons.

The $42 registration fee must be submitted by May 31. It covers accommodations for two nights, four meals and a banquet, use of recreational facilities and all workshop materials and activities.

For more information, contact Danford Groves, conference coordinator, P.O. Box 27228, Raleigh, N.C. 27611, telephone (919) 733-5998.
