Local Students selected to attend N.C. School of Science and Math

Charles R. Eilber, Director of the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics, announced today that 5 students from Robeson County have been selected to attend the school next fall as part of the junior class of 224 boys and girls. They were selected from 844 students nominated to attend the school in Durham. The junior class will have students from 75 counties in North Carolina. Local students accepted are (Littlefield Jr.-Sr. High) Karen A. Watts, (Lumberton Sr. High) David D. Beatty and Laura I. Gerald, (St. Pauls

High) Milton A. Hayes, (West Robeson High) Katie Lowry. The North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics is the nation's first state-wide, state-supported, residential school for eleventh and twelfth graders with special ability in science and mathematics. The four-year-old school has received national acclaim for its advanced academic program and the scholastic achievements of its students. The current senior class of 205 students has distinguished itself by being awarded many scholarships and academic prizes.

The Class of 1984 contains 55 National Merit Finalists and 14 National Achievement Scholarship Finalists.

A photography contest is being held to celebrate America Rivers Month in June. The sponsors of the contest are the Lumber River Basin Committee, Mary Livermore Library at Pembroke State University, and Fair Bluff Public Library.

A total of $200 in prize money will be awarded. The photographs must depict the Lumber River or its tributaries. Entries should be ready for hanging and must be prints, either color or black and white.

The deadline for submitting photographs is June 7. Photographs may be left at the Robeson County Public Library (9 a.m. - 9 p.m.), the Mary Livermore Library at Pembroke State University (8 a.m.-5 p.m.), or Scott's Plumbing and Heating Inc. in Fair Bluff (9 a.m.-5 p.m.).

For more information and a brochure on the contest, please contact Dean Williams in Pembroke (521-4387), Colin Osborne III in Lumberton (738-9396), or Donna Scott in Fair Bluff (649-7184).
