The folks at Hills Food Stores are your friends and neighbors!

THE employees and management at Hills Food Stores are local folks... your friends and neighbors. All of us are involved in the communities we serve. All of us feel an obligation to provide you, our friends and neighbors, with the best possible food at the lowest possible prices.

in your community. It isn't sent off to some big city or foreign country. That's one of many reasons why more than 125,000 shop Hills every week.

At Hills, we want your grocery business and we're willing to work for it. All of us go out of our way... so you don't have to.

Coharie Indian news in brief

By FRANCES E. MAYNOR

The Grove family reunion will be held at the Cumberland County Association for Indian People in Fayetteville on Saturday at 1 p.m. All relatives, many of whom live in Sampson and adjoining counties, are urged to attend and bring a covered dish.

Mrs. Doris Ammons Morals and son are spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ammons of Clinton, Route 4. Pearlle Emanuel of Route 1, Godwin, visited Jessie Brewington and family Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Simmons and yours truly traveled to Fayetteville on Friday afternoon to see their grandsons, Marchelo and Brian Maynor, play baseball. The three stopped at a restaurant on their return home for the evening meal. It was an enjoyable trip for the threesome.

Clifton Jacobs is home for a few days. Clifton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Jacobs of Clinton.

The Coharie Methodist Church will have a plate sale July 14 at the church on U.S. 421 beginning at 11 a.m. Funds will be used for floor covering for the kitchen area. This is sponsored by the woman's auxiliary.

Annie E. Davis and Frances Maynor spent Sunday night and Monday at Surf City. They also visited Jessie Brewington who is recuperating at home.

Mrs. Bessie L. Brewington and Mrs. Josephine Simmons have been patients at Sampson Memorial Hospital for some time.

Mrs. Polly Braybary has returned home from Sampson Memorial Hospital in Clinton.

L.N. Maynor of Fayetteville visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fermon Maynor, and family on Monday.
