

Kiwanians Hear of China Travels

By Dr. Ken Johnson

Mrs. Anne Wells, professor in the Department of Communicative Arts at Pembroke State University, spoke to the Kiwanis Club concerning her recent trip to China. She was presented by Program Chairman Ken Johnson.

The trip took 31 days in May. They flew from Los Angeles to Seoul Korea which meant that the 27 hour flight took place in complete daylight. They spent 19 days in Mainland China, a few days in Japan, one day in Taiwan, one day in Singapore, a day in Bangkok, then flew back to Honolulu and back to the mainland.

Mrs. Wells illustrated her talk with many color slides including Tien An Mien Square. The statue of Mao Se Tung, who was the leader in the Cultural Revolution had been removed. She showed us the Great Hall of the People, whose red flags were up indicating an important government meeting was taking place. Many advertisements replace former signs and posters of Mao Se Tung. Advertisements now display the one child per family population control slogan. Even for the one child, they must submit a request for a birth. They are penalized if they have more than one child. The second child cannot even attend school.

Mrs. Wells said she saw only three small cannons in all of China, and did not see any military personnel or vehicles. In Peking, disco music was piped in for noon-time dancing. The free markets displayed many products, but the government had received its quota and the excess was left for the people to sell as their own. This represented a changed attitude of freedom. Smiles were very plentiful from so many of the Chinese people. The Group visited the Pandas at the Peiking Zoo. They also visited the Great Wall Hotel, still unfinished. They ate dinner there and found that it was very expensive. They also visited the Forbidden City, entering it through the Heavenly Gate which is a series of many buildings where the nobility lived. They also saw the Golden Throne of the Emperor and the oldest Yard Monument of the Lion, built in the 1200's. The Heavenly Temple is also here where priests pray for a good harvest. It was built out of wood without a nail in it. Extensive repairs are going on in the City. These repairs are continuous and timeless in their scope. Mrs. Wells showed where China's lavishness brought on the revolution. This lavishness was displayed by a tea house type of boat built by the Empress. She also showed slides of repairs being made to the Great Wall of China. Slides of the Terra Cotta Warriors were also shown of the Terra Cotta Warriors at Xian. Thousands of these warriors statues were dug up and every single warrior has different face characteristics. The tour also included a 800 mile boat trip on the Yangtze River. The river passed through immense narrow gorges. Mrs. Wells says she really believes she knows China now.

A SALUTE TO U.S. SEN. JESSE HELMS

A packed house attended a Dinner and Salute to U.S. Senator Jesse Helms Saturday, July 7, 1984 at 7 p.m., in the Lumbermen Senior High School.

Opening remarks were by Eric Prevatte. Invocation was by Rev. Frank Clay. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Col. Russell Powers. The National Anthem was led by Kathie Waldhop. Welcome was extended by Eric Prevatte who also introduced Senator Helms. In his address, Sen. Helms spoke about the communist aggression in Central and South America. He stressed that America needs to send aid to these countries before the communists take over. He also said that he supports a strong national defense.

President Reagan said of Sen. Helms, "I am very appreciative of the tremendous leadership [he's] exercised." Sen. Huddleston [D-Ky.], member of the Senate Agriculture Committee said, "I do not believe the Senate has ever had a Chairman of the Agriculture Committee who has been any more diligent." Said the Honorable Harry F. Byrd, Jr., former U.S. Senator from Independent, Va., "During the past 10 years he has served his country well. I congratulate the state of N.C., for its wisdom in sending him to the Senate."

"There is no senator in my memory who conducts himself more nearly in the traditions of the Senate and with greater effectiveness than the senator from North Carolina," said Sen. Howard Baker, Senate Majority Leader. "Sen. Helms has won the respect of his colleagues on both sides of the aisle--by sheer unflinching integrity," said James J. Kilpatrick, syndicated columnist. And Senator Sam Ervin said of him, "I admire Senator Helms because he's one of few men in public life who's got the courage to stand up for what he believes."
