Ray Oxendine named to Catawba Sports Hall of Fame

the Carolinas Conference for two years (1970 & 1974) and NAIA District 26 Coach of the Year honors once.
Resigning his post at Catawba in 1974, Oxendine embarked upon a career in public school education, joining the administration at Hallsboro Senior High School as assistant principal and guidance counselor. He later was named principal at East Montgomery High School and recently completed a year's leave with the North Carolina State Department of Public Instruction as executive assistant for the Principals Institute. Following his work with the state department, he returned to Montgomery County and the principalship at West Montgomery.

He is the father of two daughters and is married to the former Debbie Hutchinson.
Oxendine's brother, Dr. Joseph Oxendine, a member of the faculty at Temple University in Philadelphia, was also an exceptional athlete at Catawba and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1978.

News from Locklear-Lowry VFW Post 2843

Locklear-Lowry VFW Memorial Post 2843 of Pembroke reached 100% plus in membership for 1984. Post Commander Harold Hunt extends his thanks to all the members for a job well done, not only in the membership drive but the other projects as well, including VA Hospital visits, military funerals, aid to comrades in distress and their dependents, Veterans Day parade and fish fry, and the annual Veterans Day Sunday.
All veterans are reminded that the membership drive for 1985 is now underway and veterans needing information about membership or the advantages of life membership can call Ardell Jacobs, Post Qm. at 521-2313.
Locklear-Lowry VFW Memorial Post 2843 of Pembroke, N.C. is a living memorial to all those who answered the call of duty to their country and gave the supreme sacrifice. Therefore, let us never cease to remember the price they paid for us and our nation.
Locklear-Lowry VFW Post of Pembroke was named in memory of Winslow Locklear of Prospect, the first Indian from Robeson County killed in World War I, and Wade Lowry of Pembroke, the first Indian killed in World War II. Come and observe Veterans Day, Nov. 10, 1984 at Pembroke. Parade will be at 10 a.m., Main Street, and chicken and fish fry from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Post Home on Union Chapel Road.
All members are asked to attend the regular monthly meeting Monday, October 15, at 7 p.m.
Harold Hunt, Post Cmdr.
Dalsey Demery, Aux. Pres.

Deep Branch Teacher of the Year

Mrs. Dorleen S. Hall, Deep Branch Elementary School Teacher of the Year.
Mrs. Dorleen S. Hall, a kindergarten teacher for over 16 years, has been selected the 1984-85 Teacher of the Year for Deep Branch Elementary School.
Mrs. Hall obtained a B.S. Degree from Southeastern Louisiana College and a M.A. degree from Appalachian State University.
Mrs. Hall is married to Gene Hall of Lumberton. They are parents of two daughters, Averi Renee and Regina Kay. Mrs. Hall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K.E. Schafer. She is a member of the Christian Missionary and Alliance Church in Lumberton, NC.
The faculty and staff of Deep Branch honored Mrs. Hall with a social Thursday, Oct. 4 in the school library. She was presented a corsage by Mrs. Rosella Brooks. Words of praise were given by Mr. Walter Oxendine, principal.

Exercise caution Halloween
Halloween can be trying, as well as fun, for parents of small children. There are many dangers out on the streets at night, so exercise all due caution.
Accompany small children and limit the wearing of elaborate, clumsy costumes. Tell your kids to walk facing the traffic and have them carry flashlights. Have older kids, who go out by themselves, to stay in familiar neighborhoods and not to accept rides from strangers.
Finally, inspect all "goodies" received by your children. Someone might exercise a sick sense of humor.

STUDIES FROM THE BOOK OF JOHN
12:44-45) Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.
