

PUBLISHED EACH THURSDAY

THE CAROLINA INDIAN VOICE

PEMBROKE, N.C

"Building Communicative Bridges
In A Tri-Racial Setting"

ROBESON COUNTY

VOLUME 12, NUMBER 42

25c PER COPY

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1984

LREMC RETURNS INCUMBENT

DIRECTORS TO OFFICE

Elias Rogers
At Large

Bradford Oxendine
District 3

Harold Dean Brewer
District 7

Martin Clark
District 9

Lumbee River Electric Membership Corp. member-consumers who attended the Annual Meeting on Tuesday night spoke resoundingly that they did not wish for a change in their representatives. Four incumbent directors were re-elected handily. Bradford Oxendine from District 3 out-poll 2 people who were nominated from the floor. Nominated from District 3 were Ray Townsend and Carl Branch. Oxendine defeated both men when he garnered 499 votes to 40 for Ray Townsend and 22 votes for Carl Branch.

Re-elected to District 7 was Harold Dean Brewer. He was challenged by Fay Locklear who was nominated from the floor. Brewer received 513 votes and Locklear received 42.

Martin Clark faced his first electorate. He was opposed by Mary Mungler who was nominated from the floor to represent District 9. Clark received 480 votes to Mungler's 81.

Elias Rogers, the incumbent director At-Large was the only one who faced opposition by petition. He was challenged by Grady Locklear. Renate Dahlin was nominated from the floor. Rogers, with 17 years experience behind him, out-distanced both challengers. Rogers tallied 338 votes. Locklear came in second with 217. Finishing last was Dahlin with only 6 votes.

Members of the local EMC meet annually to elect directors, hear reports from the General Manager, President and to transact other business which comes properly before the meeting.

LOCAL YOUTH KILLED

IN PEMBROKE WRECK

Jonathan Malcolm, 22, was killed in Pembroke Tuesday night when the pickup truck he was driving flipped over on Third Street, throwing him from the vehicle, according to Pembroke Police.

According to police, the pickup truck was traveling west on Third Street around 8:30 p.m. when it swerved to avoid another car, struck the shoulder, swerved back onto the road and flipped over.

The driver was thrown from the pickup and suffered severe head injuries, officers said. He died at Southeastern General Hospital in Lumberton, according to police. A passenger in the truck suffered minor injuries, according to police.

LOCAL VOLUNTEERS HONORED

Outstanding volunteers from Robeson County were honored at the Governor's Office of Citizens Affairs, each award winner received a certificate and special volunteer pin bearing the Volunteer North Carolina logo and the date. The program also included a reception and entertainment by the Varsity Men's Glee Club of North Carolina State University.

Similar ceremonies were held for award recipients from the western counties September 13 in Asheville, and from the eastern counties September 25 in Williamston.

The following volunteers from Robeson County received awards in nine categories: (left to right, back row) Patricia H. McCombs, Individual Human Services Volunteer; Walter L. Johnson, Individual Community Volunteer Leader; Archie Oxendine, Administrator/Coordinator of Volunteers; and Willie Christy, One-On-One Volunteer. (Left to right, front row, beside Governor and Mrs. Hunt) Earle B. Mayner, Senior Citizen Volunteer; Selene W. Hudson, Youth Volunteer; Jessie Belle Davis, School Volunteer; Sharon Haymond, accepting for the Parkton Garden Club, in the Church/Religious Volunteer Group category; and Harold Fields, accepting for Converse, Inc., in the Business/Industry Volunteer involvement category. Not pictured was the Robeson County Beautification Council, Community Volunteer Organization category award recipient.

Senior Citizen Volunteer; Selene W. Hudson, Youth Volunteer; Jessie Belle Davis, School Volunteer; Sharon Haymond, accepting for the Parkton Garden Club, in the Church/Religious Volunteer Group category; and Harold Fields, accepting for Converse, Inc., in the Business/Industry Volunteer involvement category. Not pictured was the Robeson County Beautification Council, Community Volunteer Organization category award recipient.

Senior Citizen Volunteer; Selene W. Hudson, Youth Volunteer; Jessie Belle Davis, School Volunteer; Sharon Haymond, accepting for the Parkton Garden Club, in the Church/Religious Volunteer Group category; and Harold Fields, accepting for Converse, Inc., in the Business/Industry Volunteer involvement category. Not pictured was the Robeson County Beautification Council, Community Volunteer Organization category award recipient.

PEOPLE PLACES AND THINGS

PEMBROKE JAYCEES SPONSOR CAR WASH

The Pembroke Jaycees will be sponsoring a Car Wash at First Union National Bank in Pembroke, Nov. 10, 1984, from 9 a.m. until. "Help us support the Pembroke Boy Scouts," said Pembroke Jaycee President "Dollar" Bill Oxendine. He urges everyone to come out and support a worthy cause. "They need our help," he said.

'GREAT DAY IN THE MORNING' AT PEMBROKE FIRST BAPTIST

Pembroke First Baptist Church is looking forward to a "Great Day In The Morning," Oct. 28, 1984. This will represent their 'High Attendance Day' as well as providing an opportunity to meet the new pastor, Rev. Charles P. Locklear. Everyone is cordially invited to share in this special occasion. Also, Sunday school begins at 9:45 a.m. and Morning Worship at 11.

ELMER R. PIERCE RECEIVES PROMOTION AT WACHOVIA BANK

Elmer R. Pierce has recently received a promotion at Wachovia Bank & Trust Company, N.A. Mr. Pierce has been named Assistant Manager of the Laurinburg Sales Finance Department. Announcement of this action was made by Murray S. Porter, Vice President and City Executive of the Laurinburg Office of Wachovia.

Pembroke Kiwanis Celebrates Charter Night

Pembroke Kiwanis Club observed its 23rd Charter Night. The Club was founded in 1961 as an original idea of Dr. Murray Kinlaw and Dr. Martin Brooks.

Dr. Kinlaw and Dr. Brooks were both on duty at the same time at the Southeastern General Hospital, where Dr. Kinlaw suggested to Dr. Brooks that they form a Kiwanis Club in Pembroke. Judge Lloyd Powers and Tracy Ballou helped to establish Pembroke Kiwanis Club. Its first meetings were held on the campus of Pembroke State University with Martin Brooks as its first president. Dr. Brooks, in describing his experience, stated that he was very pleased that the Club is strong and very active.

Attorney Donald Bullard, as a new member, received his Kiwanis Pin from his wife Linda. In addition to the wives guests included Jimmy Hedgepeth of Lumbee Bank, as well as President Lloyd Locklear of West Robeson Kiwanis Club. Wade Hunt presented Reggle Strickland as Kiwanian of the Year. Reggle was responsible for fund-raising projects in spite of his medical problems of by-pass surgery.

Past President Bill Oxendine presented the President's Award to Treasurer Albert Hunt for his outstanding contributions and in fund-raising projects. Bill Oxendine told of the successful Boy Scout activities at Wilmington this past weekend. He also reported that Troop 327 is in need of more tents.

Presiding was President Arnold Locklear; Invocation was given by Garth Locklear. Guest Pianist was Mary Alice Teets. The Charter Night proceedings were held at the Town and Country Restaurant in Pembroke.

Mr. Pierce began his career with Wachovia in 1975 as a Field Representative in the Sales Finance Department and was named Dealer Credit Manager in 1977. In July, 1980 Mr. Pierce was named Retail Loan Administration Officer and in January, 1983 he transferred back into the Sales Finance Department as a Senior Credit Manager. Mr. Pierce, a native of Greensboro, North Carolina, is a graduate of Pembroke State University, Pembroke, North Carolina. He and his wife, the former Marilyn Oxendine, from Maxton, North Carolina have two children and reside at Route 3, Maxton, North Carolina. They attend Preston Chapel Church.

$1,000 POETRY PRIZE

A $1,000 grand prize is being offered in a new poetry contest sponsored by the World of Poetry newsletter. There are 100 cash and merchandise awards, totaling over $10,000.

Says Contest Director Joseph Mellon, "We are offering this contest in the hopes of encouraging poetic talent of all kinds."

For a free brochure of rules and prizes write: World of Poetry, Dept. D, 2431 Stockton Blvd., Sacramento, California 95817.

MAGNOLIA ADVISORY COUNCIL MEETS

The Advisory Council for Magnolia School conducted a working-luncheon session on Wednesday, Oct. 10 at the Western Steer Steak House in Lumberton.

In attendance was Mrs. Flora Scott, a senior class sponsor, who addressed the Council on the subject of financing senior class projects this school year.

Members of Magnolia's Advisory Council are Mattie Meli, Cora Brewington, Illa Britt, Margaret Canady, Betty Haats, Tom Jones Jr., Lois Lowery, Broughton Oxendine, Katherine Locklear, and Darline Holmes.

This information was released through the office of Mr. Noah Woods, Magnolia Principal.

BRO. RONALD LOCKLEAR GUEST SPEAKER AT ISLAND GROVE

Bro. Ronald Locklear will be the guest speaker at Island Grove Baptist Church on Sunday, October 28, 1984 for the morning worship at 11 a.m. Also, he and his wife, Wendy, will return to Island Grove the following Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m. to show films of their missionary work in Africa.

Bro. Ron and his wife, Wendy have been on a missionary assignment in Zambia, Africa and are now home until their return to Zambia the middle of next summer.

The pastor of Island Grove Baptist Church, Rev. C. H. Cummings, cordially invites the public to attend these two

ANNUAL FUNDRAISING AT CAREER CENTER

The Robeson County Career Center at Hilly Branch will sponsor an annual fundraising, a Barbecue Plate Sale, Oct. 25, 1984 between 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. at the Campus Food Service Lab. The fundraising is to raise money for campus beautification project. Plates will cost $3 each. Deliveries will be made on orders of 5 or more.

PEMBROKE ASSEMBLY OF GOD EXTENDS INVITATION

Rev. Larry Lowery, pastor of Pembroke Assembly of God located on Deep Branch Road cordially invites you to attend church services with him and his congregation. Sunday School begins at 9:45 a.m. Worship service at 11. There will be a singing every third Sunday of the month at 2:30 p.m.

WEST ROBESON RAMS FOOTBALL PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

West Robeson Rams Football 'Players of the Week' are: Offensive: Junior quarterback Kelvin Oxendine made his second start of the season and completed 8 of 15 passes for 147 yards and one touchdown. He led the offense to its biggest total yards of the year, 367 yards. Kelvin is also the shortstop on the Rams Baseball Team.

Defensive: Senior safety James Blue intercepted his fifth pass of the year and returned it 95 yards for a touchdown. In addition, he caught a 27 yard touchdown pass from quarterback Kelvin Oxendine. James is also a standout basketball player and runs track.

PLATE SALE AND YARD SALE OCT. 19, 1984

Julia Strickland will be sponsoring a Plate Sale and Yard Sale in the Pembroke Town Park, October 19, 1984, from 11 a.m. until. There will be barbecue, chicken, and chicken and pastry plates on sale at $3 each. The plate sale is being held on behalf of the Pembroke Church of God.

FALL REVIVAL SERVICES

Revival services will begin on Sunday, Nov. 4th and continue through the 9th at Ashpole Center United Methodist Church, Rowland. Services will begin on Sunday at 7 p.m. The guest evangelist will be the Reverend Michael Cummings of Mt. Airy Baptist Church; the Rev. David Hunt of Mt. Elim Baptist Church. Everyone is cordially invited to attend by the church and the pastor, Rev. S. Dufrene Cummings.

'Strike at the Wind!' presents 'Roy C' and More in Concert

The ever-popular outdoor drama, 'Strike at the Wind!' will be presenting the fantastic 'Roy C' Saturday, Oct. 27th from 8 p.m. until 1 a.m. at the Scotland High Auditorium located on Highway 401 Bypass in Laurinburg, N.C.

'Roy C' will be singing a medley of his hits including, "Leaving on the Morning Train," "After Loving You," "I Shot the Man," "I Stand Accused," and many more.

Also appearing along with 'Roy C' will be the ever-popular band, 'Lumbee Pride' featuring the sensational Sally Lowry Norris; the dynamic J. Hines; Cornell Locklear, General Manager of 'Strike at the Wind!' who also portrayed 'Ben Strong' in the outdoor drama; and cast members of 'Strike at the Wind!'.

Tickets will be on sale at the door at $5 per person. The doors open at 6 p.m. Come on out and support 'Strike at the Wind!' and hear, in person, the fantastic 'Roy C'.

For information call 321-1111.

