Jazz Group Performs

PEMBROKE--The Brubeck-LaVerne Trio, a contemporary jazz group, will be THE SEASON attraction for November at the Performing Arts Center on the Pembroke State University campus. They will appear in concert on Tuesday evening, Nov. 27, at 8 p.m.

The group consists of Chris and Daniel Brubeck (both are sons of the legendary progressive jazz pianist/composer, Dave Brubeck), and Andy LaVerne.

Chris Brubeck performs on electric bass guitar and doubles on classical/jazz trombone. He is known as a fine performer, composer, and arranger, and has worked with artists such as B.B. King, Muddy Waters, Bob Dylan, and Peter Erskine. He has been featured as a guest soloist with the Cleveland and Chicago Symphony Orchestras.

Daniel Brubeck studied percussion at the North Carolina School of the Arts and serves as the drummer for the group. As a result of extensive listening to Joe Morello (the famed jazz drummer of the original Dave Brubeck Quartet), Daniel has become a master of the odd time signatures and complex rhythms which are so common in contemporary progressive jazz. He has appeared as a soloist at various jazz festivals, both here and abroad, and has toured and recorded extensively.

Andy LaVerne studied at the Berklee College of Music and the New England Conservatory, and has earned a reputation as a fine pianist, composer and arranger. His credits include performances with jazz greats Woody Herman and Stan Getz, and artists such as Frank Sinatra and Mel Torme. He has recorded with Woody Herman, Stan Getz, frank Sinatra and Chick Corea.

The Brubeck-LaVerne Trio has a new and distinctively original sound. Their music draws greatly on the American jazz tradition, while fusing elements of Funk, Reggae, Latin and Classical into an exciting new contemporary jazz medium. The group has received excellent reviews and has been highly acclaimed from New York's Carnegie Hall to San Francisco, and as far away as Australia.

Ticket prices are $4, $5 and $6. To make reservations or for more information call the Performing Arts Center at 521-0778.
