PUBLISHED EACH THURSDAY

Laws, Ch. 51 designating Robeso County Indians as "Croatan India and providing for an Indian Sc System. Read the Carolina Indian Voice weekly as we tell this remarkable story throughout 1985 in celebration of our CENTENNIAL OF EDUCATION.

THE CAROLINA INDIAN VOICE

PEMBROKE, N.C.

VOLUME 13, NUMBER 9

"Building Communicative Bridges In A Tri-Racial Setting"

25c PER COPY

ROBESON COUNTY

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1985

Recipients of Annual Awards from the Pembroke Jaycees include left to right [back row]: Anthony R. Locklear, Outstanding Young Farmer; Don Hiscott, Boss of the Year; Dr. Gerald Maynor, Guest Speaker; Eugene Wells, Outstanding Young Fire Fighter; and James M.

Approximatey 100 members of the Pembroke Jaycees and their guests and special visitors attended the annual Awards Banquet at the Pembroke Clubhouse on Saturday, Feb. 23.

Jaycee members Noah Woods, Carnell

Locklear and Gerald Strickland were co-

chairmen of the event. President Billy

Ray Oxendine stated that "This is the most exciting annual Awards Banquet that the Pembroke Jaycees have

Dr. Gerald Maynor, Chairman of the Department of Education at PSU, and

Chairman of the Robeson County Board of Education, was guest speaker. Dr.

Maynor, a former Pembroke Javcee.

challenged those in attendance to think seriously about the future and the role of the Jaycees in assisting their community in becoming better prepared for the future by becoming informed of futuristic predictions and how to move communities forward to meet the demands of Several awards were presented to individuals for outstanding leadership and service in their respective areas.

James M. Hall of the Robeson County

Ambulance Service received Outstanding Young Rescuer Award sponsored by

Pembroke Hardware Company and ever sponsored."

PEMBROKE JAYCEES HOST

ANNUAL

AWARDS BANQUET

Pates Supply Company; Eugene Wells was awarded the Outstanding Young

Fire Fighter Award sponsored by Lumbee River Electric Membership

Cooperative; Rodney Dimery of the

Robeson County Sheriff's Department

was the recipient of the Outstanding

Young Law Officer Award sponsored by

Chavis Garage Door Company; Rogena

C. Deese was awarded the Outstanding

Young Correctional Officer Award sponsored by Maynor's Exxon and Oxendine

Tire Center; The Outstanding Young

Farmer Award was presented to Anthony

C Locklear and was sponsored by

Carolina Power and Light Company; the

Oustanding Young Educator Award

sponsored by Lumbee Bank was awarded to Kathy Epps; the Boss of the Year

Award was presented to Don Hiscott of Southeastern General Hospital and

sponsored by Jamestown Inc., and the Distinguished Service Award was presented to Dr. Curt Locklear Jr., the first

Indian graduate in the field of Veterinary

Science and sponsored by North Carolina

Special guests in attendance were

State Representative Dan DeVane, Past

Presidents of the Pembroke Jaycees and employers of the Pembroke Jaycee Club

Farm Bureau.

Hall, Outstanding Young Rescurer, [front row] Rodney Dimery, Outstanding Young Law Officer] Kathy Epps, Outstanding Young Educator; Rogena C. Deese, Outstanding Young Correctional Officer and Dr. Curt Locklear, Distinguished Service Award. [Bill Hunt photo]

News deadline

In order to better serve our readers, beginning with next week's issue, a 5 p.m. Tuesday deadline for news articles appearing in The Carolina Indian Voice will be strictly adhered to. The only exception to this rule will be late breaking news stories.

Our main desire is to put out as good an issue as is humanly possible, and to put that issue in your hands as quickly as possible. That is why it has become necessary for us to follow the lead of other newspapers and adhere strictly to a deadline.

So, we desperately want to print your news Items. But, we need your help in helping us better serve you.

Deadline for ads to appear in The Carolina Indian Voice will be 12 Noon, Wednesday of the week in which they are to appear.

Thanking you in advance for your assistance and cooperation, we are...

THE STAFF AND MANAGEMENT OF THE CAROLINA INDIAN VOICE

IN LOVING MEMORY

Mr. Zeb A. Lowry

Zeb Abner Lowry

82nd Airborne Band to Perform at Lumberton High

A second hearing on the proposed name change of Pembroke State University to the University of North Carolina at Pembroke was scheduled for Thursday, March 7. at Chapel Hill before the nance committee of the governance committee of the UNC Board of Governors. The UNC General Administration reports that at the request of the N.C. Commission of Indian Affairs, the meeting has been postponed until April.

The Robeson County Spe-4291. Next local games will be at Pembroke State University on April 23, 1985.

84, was born December 25, 1900 and died February 18. 1985. He was the son of the late Mr. Abner and Mrs. Josephine Lowry of the Hopewell Community. Mr. Lowry served as an educator from 1919 until 1971. During those years he served in many capacities, including a principal, teacher and a guidance counselor. He was a Safety Engineer at the Maxton and Laurinburg Air Base from 1940 until 1950. He was also a member of the Board of Trustees of Pembroke State University for 34 years and served four years as Chair-

Mrs. Fannie Bell Lowry; five sons, Mr. Gene A. Lowry of Lowry and Mr. Dennis Lowry, both of Charlotte; six broth-

Mr. Zeb Abner Lowry, age ers, Mr. Carlee Lowry of Albuquerque, NM, Mr. Theodore Lowry of Rowland, N.C., Mr. Elery Lowry of Lancaster, PA., Mr. Ira Lowry, Mr. Jason Lowry and Mr. Bernard Lowry, all of Pembroke, N.C.; five sisters, Ms. Frank Yearick and Ms. Bernice Lowry, both of Maryland, Ms. Eunice Young of Pennsylvania, Ms. Frank Locklear of Lumberton, N.C., and Ms. Prebble Oxendine of Rowland, N.C.; twenty grand-children and four greatgrandchildren; and a host of relatives and friends.

> "So whether on the hilltops high and fair I dwell, or in the sunless valleys where...the shadows lie--what matters? He is there. ... So where He leads me, I can safely go,... And in the blest hereafter I shall know... Why in His

Joe's Hoagie and Rib Shop Now Open

Joe's Hoagle and Rib Shop is now open for business in Pembroke's West End. The Shop specializes in all types of hoagies and barbecued rib and beef ribs. The ribs are available only on Friday and Saturday.

Joe's Hoagie and Rib Shop is owned and operated by Joe Dial. The new shop is open at 10 a.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday until 2 p.m. The shop closes then and reopens at 4 p.m. and stays open until 11 p.m. Hours for Friday is 10 a.m. until 2 a.m. On Saturday the Rib Shop is open from 10 a.m. until 1 a.m.

Shown in front of the new location of Joe's Hoagie and Rib Shop is Vernie Dial III [Sweet Pea]. Sweet Pea and Joe Dial invites their friends to join them at their new location, across from the Pantry in Pembroke and next door to Pembroke Skateland. [Elmer W. Hunt photo]

PEOPLE AND PLACES AND THINGS

KINDERGARTEN REGISTRATION AT PEMBROKE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Pembroke Elementary School will be holding Kindergarten registration on Friday, March 8, from 9 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. If you have a child who is 5 years old or will be 5 by October 16, you are urged to attend this clinic. Please bring the child's shot record and a certified birth certificate. It is not necessary to bring the child. If you have any questions, contact Pembroke Elementary

INDIAN HEALTH ISSUES WORKSHOP

An Indian Health Issues workshop will be held on Friday, March 15 at the Bordeaux Motor Inn from 2:45 until 4:15 p.m. during the Indian Unity Conferen-

Health issues to be addressed will include such topics as: (1) availability trends of health manpower; what's happending now? How will it affect Indians--Resources? (2) Possible solutions for high infant mortality rates among Indian children. (3) High incidence of diabetes and chronic cardia vascular deaths among Indian adults; and (4) the problem of poverty and transportation as it relates to Indian health. Speakers will include Evelyn-McCarthy, Director of Medical Education Development Program in Chapel Hill; Bill Small, Assistant Dean of the School of Public Health in Chapel Hill: Clay E. Simpson Jr. Phd. and Gene Brayboy, both from the Bureau of Health Professions in Rockville, MD; Malvise Scott, President of National Association of Community Health Centers in Raleigh and Carolyn Emanuel, Director of Lumbee Medical Services in Pembroke. For more information call Belinda Harris, Talent Search Director at LRDA. 521-8602, ext. 5.

QUIT SMOKING

The Robeson County Health Department will be offering a lunch time Quit Smoking Clinic beginning on March 19. Participants will meet at the health department for six consecutive Tuesdays from 12-1 p.m.

An evening Quit Smoking Clinic will begin April 16 a the health department. Participants will meet for six consecutive Tuesdays at 7 p.m.

To register for the clinic or for further ermation, contact Gaylen Hayes, 738OCTOBER 7-11

The Sheraton-Kensington Hotel in Tulsa, Oklahoma, will be the site of the 42nd Annual NCAI Convention. October 7-11, 1985. Pre-registratioon will be accepted in the NCAI office until Sept. 15, 1985, by Barbara Lefkowitz, NCAI Budge and Finance Diretor. For additional information on the national agenda, speakers and workshops, call NCAI at 202-546-9404 for Suzan Shown Harjo, NCAI Executive Director, or Wes Picciotti, NCAI Development and-Management Assistant. For additional information on special events, local planning efforts and local participation contact Harry F. Gilmore, Muskogee Area Vice President (918-542-5543). Newton Lamar, Anadarko Area Vice President (405-247-2425), or Diane Kellcy, Recording Secretary (918-456-0671). The Sheraton-Kensington is located at 19032 East 71st Street South in Tulsa, 918-439-7000.

BLOODMOBILE AT WEST ROBESON

The American Red Cross and the West Robeson Senior High chapter of Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA) will sponsor a Bloodmobile in the school gymnasium on Monday, March 11 from 8:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. All interested persons may sign up as donors with HOSA students or by simply dropping by the school on March 11. The beat goes on only when you give. Be a blood donor.

PLATE SALE PLANNED

Pembroke Assembly of God will be holding a Barbecue plate sale on March 7th and 8th in the Town Park. A gospel-sing will be held at the Church Friday night, March 8 at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Larry Lowry invites everyone to come out and enjoy the good food and good music.

ADULT HIGH SCHOOL AND ADULT BASIC EDUCATION COUR

AHS and ABE classes will be the Spring quarter at Union Chapel School March 4, 1985. If you want to learn to read or to finish high school, you are invited to attend these classes.

These classes are offered by RTC fr to anyone who is interested in fin

For more information call b Mildred Oxendine at 521-443 for A or Mrs. Doris Q, Jones et 521-7552

Science Fair at Piney Grove

Students of Piney Grove School will exhibit their knowledge of science by holding their annual Science Fair on Friday, March 1, 1985. Projects will be on display in the school's auditorium from 9:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. Parents, patrons, friends and students are cordially invited to view the exhibit.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT We the family of Zeb Lowry would like to express words of gratitude to you our friends and loved ones for all your deeds of kindness and love rendered to us during our

Hearing on PSU Name Change Rescheduled

cial Olympics will present the 82nd Airborne Division 21 piece stage band in concert onMarch 12, 1985 at the Lumberton Senior High School. Program will begin at 8 p.m. The band will perform numbers in jazz, country, rock and pop. Admission is free. For further information contact Wyatt Johnson at 738-

He is survived by his wife, Richmond, Va., Mr. Zeb Abner Lowry, Jr. of Utica, Mich., Mr. Jack Lowry of

Lebanon, TN., Mr. Earl J. wisdom, He hath led me so." -Rev. John F. Chaplain