SIX GRADUATE WITH 4.0 AVERAGES

In past years, PSU has had one top graduate. For the last couple of years, it has climbed to two. But this year there are six seniors graduating with perfect 4.0 grade point averages.

Thus they are all summa cum laude graduates, the best you can be.

Their names and majors: Tony James, Lumberton, biology; Kimberly Locklear, Pembroke, chemistry/ biology; Susan Packer, Garland, elementary education (K-4); Sabrina Raley, Laurinburg, special education; Richard Ward Jr., Red Springs, history; and Patricia Wheeler, Hamlet, special education.

Congratulations most certainly!

FILMS CREW WILL BE BUSY

With the Governor's visit Friday and commencement Saturday, television crews will be busy shooting footage at PSU. Not only will WPSU-TV, PSU's own TV facility, be videotaping the events but so will the N.C. Agency for Public Telecommunications from Raleigh. TV stations from the surrounding areas have also been invited.

By the way, the operations director of the Agency for Public Telecommunications is Mike Stroud, a native of Maxton who graduated from PSU in '73. He was on campus last week discussing filming possibilities for PSU's Centennial in 1987.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEET SATURDAY

Also this Saturday the PSU Board of Trustees will meet at 10:30 a.m. in the Board Room of Sampson Hall. Following the meeting, the trustees will have lunch at the Chancellor's Residence, then don their golden robes to take part in the commencement exercises.

PSU STUDENT SPEAKS AT LOUISVILLE

The title of her talk was: "The Woman's Paycheck: Attractive Opportunities for Marketers." She serves as vice president of Alpha Chi, the highest scholastic organization on the PSU campus.

TV INTERVIEWS WITH BETTY ROBINSON

Mrs. Betty Robinson, 49-year-old Lumberton woman, was the subject during the past week of a story concerning her graduating Saturday with a degree in Business Administration. She went to school at PSU for six years to obtain it, taking a few courses at the time while fulfilling her other responsibilities of being a wife and mother.

Television stations from Wilmington and Fayetteville became interested in the story and planned interviews with Mrs. Robinson. So graduating and being before the TV cameras made this a big week indeed for Betty Robinson, a very nice person who is a native of Wilmington.
