Black History Program Held At Pembroke Junior High

The annual Black History Program at Pembroke Junior High was sponsored this year by the Black Student Organization. The theme for this occasion was Afro-American Experiences-International Connections. Mr. Richard Bishop, Regional Manager for the North Carolina Department of Natural Resources and Community Development, Fayetteville, NC, was the guest speaker, and Pembroke State Gospel Choir provided music. Club members highlighted some of the notable achievements and contributions made by Blacks. Participants were Janice Thompson, Maudrica Thompson, Sabrina Thompson, Angela Thompson, Johnny Pipkins, Teresa Harlee, Renee Jones, Dedoria Jefferson, and Tonia McNair. Group advisor is Ms. Alice M. Gillis.

NEWS FROM PROSPECT SCHOOL

Career Week Announced
Prospect School is holding Career Week during the week of Feb. 24-28. Various activities have been planned for the week. The activities will be concluded on Friday, Feb. 28 with Career Day. Participants of the Career Day will be local businessmen, professionals and servicemen.

Science Fair And PTA Meeting
Principal Kelly K. Sanderson is pleased to announce that Prospect School will hold their annual Science Fair March 4th in conjunction with their PTA at 7 p.m. Students in grades K-9 will be participating with ribbons going to all. Winners will be selected in three categories, K-3, 4-6, and 7-9. Winners at each level will go on to participate in the PSU Science Fair. Please come out that evening and join in appreciation of the many scientific endeavors that have been taking place.

Plate Sale
Friday, March 14, Prospect School will sponsor a chicken and home-cooked barbecue plate sale. The plates will cost $3. Serving time will be 11 a.m. until 8 p.m. Everyone is invited. Let's all work to ensure Prospect will have a successful plate sale.

Pre-School Clinic
The Prospect Pre-school Clinic is scheduled for March 27, 1986 from 9 a.m. until 12 p.m. in the library. Parents are asked to bring their child's birth certificate.
