

Honor Society Inductees

Society on May 22, 1986. At ten o'clock Thursday morning, National Honor Society officers and their sponsors from Beddingfield High School in Wilson helped ENCSD induct its first members during a candlelight ceremony.

Qualifications for membership are based on scholarship, service, leadership and character. Eight students met these requirements. In addition to Dawn Ozendine, the others are: Kim Rhinehardt of Wallace; Sherwood Barbour of Four Oaks; Jonathan Barnes of Tarboro; Ronette McLavorn of Aydem; Cassandra

Dawn Ozendine of Pembroke was among the first members inducted into the National Honor Society of the Eastern N.C. School for the Deaf. The school established its 1st National Honor

Porter of Fayetteville; Michelle Horchler of Fayetteville; Jennifer Weston of Blounts Creeks. These students were presented with pins, certificates and compliments from the superintendent, Susan Parkins and high school principal, Brenda Farmer. A reception attended by parents, students and sponsors was held in the library following the ceremony.

Thanks, Dad!

For playing catch in the back yard, helping with my homework and teaching me to ride a bike. For sending me to camp, straightening my teeth and loaning me the car every Saturday night. Thank you for taking me fishing, and to ball games, and for cooking hamburgers when Mom's away. Thanks for all the toys, clothes, movies and music lessons you've paid for all these years, and for listening to my problems when no one else would. Thank you for being my teacher, chauffeur, counselor, coach, entertainer, provider and friend. Thank you for being my FATHER.
