

I ended up walking to church on Sunday morning. My car just would not start! After church several of us women left First United Methodist Church and ate at Laurinburg and then attended the District United Methodist Women at Hamlet. That night the revival services began at First Methodist.

NO TIME TO REFLECT

This has been an interesting week-too busy to really reflect on one event before the next one comes along. On Wednesday Joe Smith's wife, Lula Jane, called to talk with me about a project which she helped to initiate and is working with a history of Native American churches in the North Carolina Methodist Conference. That night we invited her to explain this project at First Methodist Church. We also learned that she was partly responsible for the fact that North Carolina proclaimed 1986 as the Year of the Native American. Friday night I ventured out in spite of having a cold to attend the reunion of classes at the institution which is now known as Pembroke State University. You should have been there! I wouldn't have missed this for anything. Hope to comment on it later. Ever since I came to Pembroke in 1956 "the college" has been a part of my life-directly or indirectly. On Saturday afternoon I attended a beautiful wedding-the marriage of Darryl and Cynthia Hunt Locklear. My prayers and best wishes go with them-as with all other newly married couples--and those who have been married or some time.

While waiting in Lumberton I got acquainted with my son-in-law Jeff's new nephew, born last week. His sister Darlene and brother-in-law Victor are the proud parents. Tuesday night could be called a "double header." Our Singles group met in First Methodist Fellowship Hall from 6 to 7:30--with a program on ways to protect our house or trailer from the damage of termites and other insects, moisture, heat and cold. It was interesting, informative, and very practical for people living in this part of the country. At 7:30 we had another good service in the sanctuary. Tryon Lowry, who grew up in this very church, was the Tuesday night speaker. The revival services continue throughout the week. Visitors are invited to attend. Along with everything else, my family is in the process of planning a special celebration for Mother's 90th (ninetieth) birthday in January.

Red Springs Home Tour Set

RED SPRINGS — Five different Red Springs residences will be featured Dec. 7 in the annual Christmas Tour of Homes, sponsored by the Red Springs Historical Society. The 73-year-old Johnson manse on Shannon Road, owned now by Don and Elna Averitte, will lead off the 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. tour. It's one of the few older brick homes found in the area and was completed in 1913 for William J. Johnson, a lumberman and plantation owner. Other homes on the tour include George Blue's residence at 226 N. College St.; the Eleanor Powe McMillan home at 401 S. Main St.; Tony and Kathryn Parker's house at 222 W. Second Ave.; and Ann Garner's apartment in Robinwood. Historical society members said the homes show different architectural and interior design styles. All the residences will be decorated for Christmas. General admission for the tour is $5, with proceeds helping historical society projects.

DID YOU KNOW?

Many Americans are drinking a toast to the fresh taste of bottled water and its differences over the tap. Here are a few facts you should know about bottled water and the reasons for this tide-turning trend:

Bottled drinking water is free of chemicals, high sodium levels, high bacteria counts and residues of foreign substances, and is regulated by the federal government and all states.

The final purifying agent used by most bottled water companies is ozone, a form of oxygen, reports the International Bottled Water Association. Unlike chlorine, ozone leaves no residual aftertaste or smell. Some say that makes bottled water taste better, makes food cooked with it taste better, too.

Many people buy naturally carbonated bottled water to serve at parties because they feel it's an alternative beverage, an acceptable substitute for alcohol.

Consumers are visiting their grocery stores to find out the many brands available.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

"THE DISPENSATION OF GRACE"

Many people have a mistaken notion that a dispensation is a period of time. This is not so, however, for the word "dispense" means simply "to deal out." The word "dispensation," then, means "the act of dispensing or dealing out," or "that which is dispensed or dealt out."

There are medical dispensaries, for example, where medicines are dispensed to the poor. Sometimes these dispensaries are conducted on a particular day of each week. Such a dispensation of medicine may take a full twelve hours each week, but it does not follow from this that a dispensation is a period of twelve hours! It is rather the act of dispensing or that which is dispensed.

The word "dispensation" is used many times in the Bible, although it is not always translated the same way. In Ephesians 3:2, Paul writes of "THE DISPENSATION OF GOD, WHICH IS GIVEN ME TO YOU." God had committed to him a wonderful message of grace to dispense to others. Thus we read in Acts 20:24 his stirring words, spoken in the face of persecution and death:

"But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, AND THE MINISTRY WHICH I HAVE RECEIVED OF THE LORD JESUS, TO TESTIFY THE GOSPEL OF THE GRACE OF GOD."

The "gospel" or "good news" of the grace of God: This was the dispensation committed to Paul for us by the risen, ascended Lord. This is always Paul's message.

"Where sin abounded GRACE did much more abound... the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His GRACE... justified freely by His GRACE, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus... by GRACE are ye saved, through faith" (Rom. 5:20; Eph. 1:7; Rom. 3:24; Eph. 2:8,9).

The oldest known ball game and team game is polo which, though of Tibetan origin, was first recorded in Persia in 525 B.C.

"Good manners is the art of making those people easy with whom we converse. Whoever makes the fewest persons uneasy, is the best bred in the company." Jonathan Swift

Go figure it: the only recorded instance of a go-kart being driven around the world was a circumnavigation in 1961 over 23,300 land miles.

You can prevent diabetes
Will you get diabetes? The major determinants seem to be heredity and obesity, with gender, race, and age also important factors of risk. If there's a history of diabetes in your family, your risks are high. And, if you're over 40, a woman, or black, your risks increase even more. Talk to your doctor and ask yourself, "What can I do for prevention of diabetes?" Pregnancy aside, obesity is the only risk factor you can control, and that by exercise and diet. So, start "moving" and hold the calories.

Your Success

Taking Care of Business
Do you dream of success? Many of America's most successful men and women have found this fact to be true: You can't hope to get your business off the ground in a big way unless you're willing to be personally involved in a big way...to roll up your sleeves and show your employees how to do the job right.

Colonel Harland Sanders is just one example of an entrepreneur whose heavy personal involvement in his business created an internationally successful corporation. From his earliest days as founder of the Kentucky Fried Chicken Corporation and throughout his long career, he visited his franchisees regularly. He went into the kitchen himself and showed his workers how to brood the chicken, how to make the seasonings. He'd test the flour and taste the seasonings himself to see if everything was "cookable".

A formula for success in business: Be the kind of boss who can tell your employees "Do as I say and as I do." That's advice straight from the Colonel's mouth.
