

ME,14 NUMBER 50

THE CAROLINA INDIAN

PEMBROKE, N.C

Educator Says PSU and the Indian Community Need to Discover Each Other

cational Policy Symposium at PSU.

relationship between PSU and the Indian community. His speech drew a standing ovation at its end.

"The Indian community needs to discover PSU." said Sampson. "PSU is sitting in a unique situation. It is accessible to most of our Indian people. PSU has a highly trained Taculty and staff and is a tremendous reservoir of knowledge. It can be of great assistance to the Indians of Robeson County."

But in the same vein, Sampson injected: "PSU also needs to discover the Indian people--and that the Indian community is an excellent place in which to live and

Wins $100 Cash

Joseph Sampson...Luncheon speaker at N.C. Indian Edu-

For Joseph Sampson, a PSU graduate who taught in the Robeson County School System from 1936-56 before moving to Cleveland, O, where he continued to teach last Thursday was a homecoming experience.

He was the speaker at the luncheon of the two-day N.C. Indian Educational Policy Symposium at PSU where many of his former students-now teachers or educational administrators—gathered to hear his remarks.

Sampson mixed humor with seriousness in his talk, and the serious remarks called for action. He emphasized the

25d Per Copy

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1986

Voters Change Three LRDA Board Members in Election

the election for the solution of the Lumnal Development on Thursday, 4, 1986 elected board members d two incumbents, mbroke and Union incumbent Paul defeated by new-liph Blue, 621 to Blue, 621 to ved 427 votes eceived 427 votes and 94 votes in oks received 349 mbroke and 79 in Philadelphus, Raft Swamp und Red Springs was inopposed.

Incumbent Ralph Hunt who had represented Smyrna, Britts, and Back Swamp was defeated by a write in candidate, Leroy Scott Scott received 156 votes, Hunt received 106 and Doreen Hunt Sampson received 141.
Incumbent Grady Hunt, representing Lamberton, Wisharts and East Howells-ville was re elected with 107 votes overcoming a challenge by James Erde Chavis who received 19 votes.

Incumbent James E. Thomas, representing West Howellsville and Saddletree was defeated by newcomer Celia (Janie) Hammonds. Hammonds received 189 unter Thomas received 184 votes. Thomas received 184 votes.

These vote totals are unofficial and will be certified when the elections committee of LRDA meets sometime this week. If nothing changes at that meeting, the new board members will begin their service at the January meeting.

Pembroke Rescue Squad News

hove are Mr. Karry Gaylord Revels and for Sue Oxendine on the Mount Olive Pentellioners Church pred Penbroke Rescue with a check for what a check for the Mount Olive Pendellioners Mr. Chester was the son of Mrs. Revels. He was a keyold. He was a the word of the Pembroke who was the son of the Pembroke who was the son of the Pembroke who was the word of the period of the word of the word of the Pembroke who was the word of t only two members since 1952.

Pembroke Rescue Squad is a non-profit, volunteer organization Workers are not paid, and patients are not charged for services or transportation-be it to Durham or other distant hospitals.

In order to qualify, you must have taken the EMT course or be willing to take it. There is also a Junior Member Squad for ages 14-18. If you are interested in a career in the health field, this could prove to be very beneficial. If you have been looking for a way to help your community-this is your community-this is your opportunity. Applications may be picked up at the rescue hase or from any rescue squad member. More information can be obtained by calling Charlie Revels at 521-4414 after 6 p.m.

Mr. Chartie Revels.

The holidays are always a busy time for the rescue squad as the number of emergency calls increases. Each call we make increases. Each call we make increases our expenses. During this season of giving, we ask that you remember your local squad. Donations are tax deductible upon request a receipt will be issued. We continue to ask for your support in our raffles, plate sales and other fund raising events. This is our means of operation. So please—"help us to help you." Maybe you can't join the squad as a worker, but you can still be a part of it through your donations and gifts.

The Pembroke Rescue squad wishes you a Merry Christmas and a safe one as well.

Submitted By Jane O. Chavis

Jimmie Earl Cummings Supporters To Meet

tenue tescue Squad wated deeply the loss ter, known to many of "kat," he was loved. The squad began their will wish the passing of keis. The memorial so oly two names at Mr. Revels and Mr. kwer. The squad has branate to have lost Thursday night, December 11 at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Magnolia High e to the upcoming holiday season, Carolina Indian Voice will be shed early during Christmas and Year's weeks. During those two Happy Thoisen only, the following deadlines will

Deadline PublishedThur. Dec. 18, 5 p.m. Dec. 22 Mon. Dec. 22, 5 p.m. Dec. 29

lass of the Carolina Indian Voice appreciate your help in adhering to leadlines during this special time year so that we may serve you

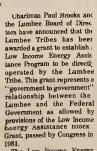

School gymnastum. It is meeting is oeing sponsored by Concerned Citizens for Better Government, a new coalition of individuals and organizations seeking justice in Robeson County. The public is encouraged to attend this meeting.

Rejoice

Hoping the bright sparkle of the season stays with you throughout the year.

Assistance Program Grant To go to LRDA for Lumbees

Reba Blue of Pembroke was the winner recently of $100 cash from Hills Food Store in Pembroke. Ms. Blue won the cash in a drawing held Nov. 29 during the store's grand opening. Hills Food Store payments to eligible Lumbee families to pay for heating bills and to assist them in energy crisis situations. Eligible Lumbee families must have a total income at or below 110 percent of the current poverty level.

Low Income Energy

Lumbee families that may be eigible should apply oe fore December 12th at the LRDA Energy Office nearest to them. Elderly or handicapped persons who wish to apply may call the Lumbee Regional Development Association for assistance, or sent a representative to the department.

The Low Income imergy Assistance Program is not a first come/ first served pro-gram. Any eligible Lumber household that applies by December 12th will be assist-plans several prize give aways in conjunction with their grand opening including a microwave oven to be given away December 22. shawn above left to right are Harvey

Godwin, manager of the Pembroke Hills Store, Reb. Blue and Sara Locklear, commanger. [Photo by Bill Hunt of Hunt's Studio

The direct funding and operations of this grant program by the Lumbee Tribe is a large step in the direction charted towards Federal Recognition, and will assist the Tribe with on going efforts to prepare the administrative and program structure that will need to be in place at the time of Federal Recognition.

Ruvesun Principals to Strengthen Management

CORESON COUNTY

In what he described as an

In what he described as an 'educational partnership,' Sampson said PSU needs to get involved in the school system. He said he knew of no other institution in such a situation "with these kind of resources."

"PSU needs to work in this school system to help in the raise your children. PSU needs to interact with this multiculture situation. As far as race is concerned, voting along racial lines is ghetto relities."

politics."
Sampson said this Indian community 'needs to feel the presence of PSU staff and faculty members and students in our churches as well as in our banks."

Sampson, who is now retired, said PSU "ean provide a living classroom for greater social reform," adding "there should be no students from this county who feels they don't belong."

"PSU needs to work in this school system to help in the racial diversity," stated Sampson. "If students learn to live together, you will have no problems as adults." In conclusior. Sampson reminded his audience that PSU was originally dedicated to Indians. "It should never lose sight of its original purpose--to educate Indian vouth."

His advice to the N.C. Indian Educational Policy Symposium included this "after your super-stions, decide: (1) who will do the work, (2) who will pay for it, and (3) who will do the followup to make sure it's done."

Chapel Hill- Robeson County Principals Barry Harding. Green Grove Primary School in Fairmont, and Jark W. Morgan, tker-tennert Elementary School in Shannon, will be among the state's most informed school administrators on management techniques when they complete an intensive executive education program at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill December 16. Harding and Morgan are two of 33 administrators participating in the ninth Principals' Executive Program at the UNC Institute of Government, which began Sept. 16. When they complete the course, Harding and Morgan will have improved knowledge of management leadership, school law and computer technology.

Robeson County principals who have participated in the program previously are R. Bruce Walters, Orrum High School, Orrum; Colon Lane Jr., Parkton School, Parkton; Howard D. Davis, R.B. Dean Elementary School, Maxon; Mabel Revels, Southside Ashpole Elementary School, Maxon; Mabel Revels, Southside Ashpole Elementary School, Maxon; Mabel Revels, Southside Ashpole Elementary School, Tembroke.

These principals, and the more than 250 who have completed the program since its beginning in September 1984, will lead the state's public schools into the next decade and will help to continue to construct a strong learner to continue to construct a strong large and the continue to construct a strong learner to continue to construct a strong large and the continue to 1984, will lead the state's public schools into the next decade and will help to continue to construct a strong bridge between the University and the public school system, said UNC Chancellor Christopher C. Fordham III.

He added that, as in any profession, educators need to stay up-to-date to maintain effectiveness, improve their skills and continue their commitment to professional development.

Ine Principals' Executive Program was developed in response to concerns about shool management expressed by Fordham and C.D. Spangler Jr., former chairman of the N.C. Board of Education

r Jr., former chairman N.C. Board of Education and now system president. Eight sessions have beer completed. Classes scheduled through September 1987 have been filled.

been filled.

The intensive administrative management and education curriculum, organized around 23 topics, teaches Principals are selected through nominations by the superintendents. One principal can be nominated for every 10 in the school district. Session size is limited to 35 particiapants. Program costs, including housing and meals for participants, is covered by legislative funding.

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, principals receive a special certificate and can attend at annual update conference with state and national speak ers.

with state and national speak ers.
Through the principals' program, a session for super-intendents was developed Thirty-two superintendents from across the state will work from across the state will work
a four-week management program into their schedules and take 160 hours of class room instruction.
Phay and Drs. Ellen Bur gess and Joseph F. Miller direct the activities of the Principals' Executive Pro-

TUSCARORA TRIBE OF N.C. Native America Non-Profit Organization

HISTORY OF THE TUSCARORAS

rent iroquois tribes would fight and bicker between themselves leaving themselves easy prey for their Algonguin enemies. All this took place in the Great Lakes area of the United States and Canada. The Iroquis of this area where the Mohawk Seneca, Onondaga, Oneida Cayuga and Tuscarora. The Tuscaroras left this Great Leakes area and migrated to North Carolina. The remaining five iroquois tribes in order to combat the Algonguin harrassament of their individual tribes, united into one confederacy, callifian

By Young Bear Tribal Chief

Who are the Tuscaroras and where did they come from?

Culture and tradition along with language all support the belief that the Tuscaroras migrated to North Carolina from the Great Lakes region, which is the Iroquoian occupation area.

THe Iroquois People, which include the Tuscaroras, have always been enemies of the Algonguin People. The different bands or whether the tribes united and fight and bicker between themselves leaving themselves easy prey for their Algonguin enemies. All this took who are the Tuscaroras and where the tribes united and fight and bicker between themselves leaving themselves leaving themselves leaving themselves and provided themselves and provided themselves are the succession of the su

North Mohaw Oneida Seneca Tuscaror: Meherric Nottoway Cherokee

Cayuga
Onondaga
SOULAN
Catawba Wateres Saponi
Cheraw Santos Cape Fea:
Kayauwes redee Occaneech
Congaree Waxhaw Sewee

CONTINUED PN PAILE IS