

Rev. Grady Cummings

My Father's Voice In Prayer
In the silence that falls on my spirit
When the clamor of life loudest seems,
Comes a voice that floats in tremulous notes
Far over my sea of dreams.
I remember the family altar,
And my father kneeling there:
And the old tones thrill with the memory still,
Of my father's voice in prayer.

I can see the glance of approval
As my part in the reading I took;
I remember the grace of my mother's face,
And the tenderness of her look;
And I know that a gracious memory
Cast its light on that face so fair,
As her cheek, flushed faint— O mother, my saint!—
At my father's voice in prayer.

'Neath the stress of that marvelous pleading
All childish dissensions died;
Each rebellious will sank conquered and still
In a passion of love and pride.
Ah, the years have held dear voices,
And melodies tender and rare,
But tenderest seems the voice of my dreams—
My father's voice in prayer.

A Grape Vineyard Made A King Sick

I Kings 21: 1-29

by Jayne Ozendine

Joel: Teacher, may I tell the story? (Teacher nods) Well, once upon a time.
John: See, there he goes again, 'Once upon a time.' He can't tell a Bible story. He starts off like it's a fairy tale.
Teacher: Let's see, maybe you can help him, John. Joel continue.
Joel: There was this Jezreelite who had a grape vineyard which was next to the palace.
John: Naboth?
Joel: Right, The King....
John: Ahab.
Joel: Right, wanted it, but the Jezreelite didn't want to trade it for anything the king offered him. Not for another vineyard, not for money. The king, King....

John: Ahab.
Joel: Right, would not even eat and he turned his face to the wall.
John: The Bible only says he turned his face.
Joel: Okay. Anyway his wife was sorry for him and told him to get up and she promised to get the vineyard to him.
John: The king's name was Ahab and the wife's name was Jezebel.

John: No they didn't chop off his head! They took him outside of the city and stoned him.
Joel: They killed him anyway. Then along came God's man.
John: Elijah, the Tishbite.
Joel: Right. He went to the vineyard where King Ahab was and told him that the dogs would lick up his blood from under the vineyard as they had licked up Naboth's blood. Elijah said furthermore, that he would kill all his male children. He said even your wife.
John: Jezebel.
Joel: Yes, the dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel. People don't tell such lies and have people killed, do they?
Teacher: Sometimes it happens, Joel, but it is right, even when they won't sell to the person what he wanted of theirs?
Joel & John: No! The Bible says it is wrong, wrong, wrong.

Joel: Right! She set a feast and Naboth was set up on a high seat among the people. Two men of Baal said that Naboth had blasphemed God and the king. So, they chopped off poor Naboth's head and King Ahab took the vineyard.

CHRISTMAS TIME

Peace and goodwill to all mankind,
That's the thought that comes to mind,
During the period we call Christmas time.
Just remember peace is the bottom line.
P is for people known as fellowmen
E is for equality the way we should equate
A is for affection, for that everyone has a yen
C is for caring, a way to forget hate
E is for enduring, that will surely bring peace
And goodwill for all mankind that will never cease.

We sing and praise to Silent Night
Not realizing in silence there is might.
Silence within the dark regions of our mind
Close your eyes in silence and peace you will find.

Be patient and wait for the inner light
That will make your path of life so bright
The God within you will show you the way
He is waiting for you to say "Help me I pray."

We have been told that silence is golden
It is the mental release from everything beholden
No one do we owe our spirit and soul
It is ours to always and forever hold.

During these times of jubilation
Give thanks for your creation.
You came in like Jesus the Savior for all mankind
Don't ever forget the answer is in your mind
Yes, praying and meditation will surely release
The ingredients for a loving, lasting peace.
