PSU Alumni Hold Chapter Meeting In New York City

Fourteen persons gathered in New York City recently for the Pembroke State University Alumni Association's Northeastern States Chapter Development Reception at the Sheraton City Squire Hotel.

Elected president of the PSU Chapter there was PHIL STENTZ of Kings Park, N.Y., while elected vice president was Capt. WILLIAM L. JACKSON of Cranston, R.I.

Others present were Mrs. Stentz, Mr. and Mrs. JOHN WEBER of Amityville, NY, ALFRED HOWE and a guest from Brooklyn, NY, and EDWARD F. BLAND of Cary.

PSU's delegation included Chancellor and Mrs. PAUL GIVENS, hosts for the occasion; Dr. RICHARD PISANO, PSU vice chancellor for institutional advancement; GLEN BURNETTE, PSU director of alumni affairs; and WAYNE EVANS of Laurinburg, chairman of the PSU Board of Trustees and his wife.

Following the meeting, the Givens and Evanses traveled to Boston for a meeting of the American Governing Board on Trusteeship. Some 600 persons from all over the nation attended this meeting, including university and college presidents, trustees, members of boards of governors, and members of boards of regents.

Among those present were C.D. SPANGLER, president of the UNC system, and his staff plus members of the UNC Board of Governors.

Evans, who is doubling as chairman of the PSU Search Committee, described the trip "as very informative."

PSU Mathematics Contest Scheduled April 6

The eighth annual PSU Mathematics Contest will be held Thursday, April 6, at PSU's Performing Arts Center with junior high and senior high school students from PSU's service area competing in algebra I, algebra II, and geometry.

Trophies, plaques and certificates will be awarded. The top 15 students in each division will be invited to attend the April 20 runoff competition which will be held at UNC-Chapel Hill.

Time schedule for the contest, which is being sponsored by the PSU Department of Mathematics and Computer Science, is as follows: 8:30-9 a.m.--Registration in the Performing Arts Center; 9-10:30 a.m.--Students will take test in the PAC; 12:30-1:30 p.m.--Awards ceremony in the PAC.

From 9-10:30 a.m., the teachers of the students will meet in the conference room on the second floor of the Chavis University Center.

The top three teams and individuals in each division will receive trophies or plaques. The top three teams and the top 15 individuals will receive certificates of honorable mention. All students will receive certificates of participation.

Robeson Community College News

Community Services Program

In an effort to provide educational services to all the citizens of Robeson County, the Community Services Program will offer 71 different classes or activities in the Spring quarter beginning April 1, 1989. Because of the increased interest expressed by working people in the community, the program will offer at least four one-day only Saturday classes this Spring and a Gospel Concert on May 25.

The classes to be offered on Saturday are: Color Analysis, Ways to Lower Cholesterol, Care and Feeding Allergies and Eating Vegetarian Style.

The Color Analysis class will be offered April 1, 1989, 10-12 noon on campus in Room 1457. The class will be taught by Mildred Smith who is a BeautyControl Image Consultant.

On April 8th, Phyllis Thornthwaite, a Health Educator who was previously employed with Southeastern General Hospital will teach the "Ways to Lower Cholesterol" class. The class will be held on campus in Room 1453 from 9-12 noon.

Nancy Hall, an allergy sufferer and co-owner and operator of The Basics Natural Foods Store, will conduct the "Care and Feeding Allergies" class on April 15, 9-12 noon in Room 1452 on campus.

The "Eating Vegetarian Style" class will be taught on April 22 in Room 1457 on campus by Gary Sampson.

The fee is $5.00 for Saturday classes. Students should register at the class. For more information, call Vickie Tate at 738-7101.

Gospel Concert

RCC will present a Gospel Concert Thursday, May 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the A.D. Lewis Auditorium on campus. The concert will feature Gold City of Glenn Clove, Alabama. The group is one of the most sought after groups on the gospel circuit and several of their latest recordings include "We're Gonna Rise," "Once Upon a Hill," "Midnight Cry," and "Holy Anointing."

Also featuring on the program will be Cedar Ridge of Knoxville, Tennessee, one of the fastest rising groups in Southern Gospel music today. This group's recordings include "If There's a Rocking Chair in Heaven," "I'm Gonna Leave My Troubles," "I'll Be Going Home" and "Lord of Lords and King of Kings."

Advance tickets are $6 through May 24, 1989; day of the concert tickets and door sale tickets will be $7. Children occupying a seat will need a ticket. Tickets can be purchased at RCC in Carolyn Britt's office.

Business/Industry Roundtables

Coordinated by the Lumber River Council of Governments, several "round-table" discussion groups will be meeting on the RCC campus to take part in the North Carolina Department of Administration's Office of Policy and Planning study

on "Workforce Preparedness."

The study will attempt to plan for future education and training needs that will be required in the 1990's. Sylvia Mitchell, SDA Administrator with the Lumber River Council of Governments is coordinating the "round-tables."

Taking part in the Business and Industry Roundtable which was held in March was Janice Davis, Director of the RCC Small Business Center. Hubert Bullard, Vice President for Adult and Continuing Education will be a participant in the Education Roundtable which will be held on April 6 on the RCC campus. Other representatives from other community colleges, public schools and Pembroke State University will also be on campus as participants. Later in May, representatives from both "roundtables" will meet to discuss concerns and suggestions as to ways that business, industry, and education must work together to assure a properly trained workforce for the 90's and the twenty-first century.
