LOCKLEAR & LOCKLEAR WED APRIL 13

MRS. CARMICHEAL LOCKLEAR

Elizabeth Joy Locklear of Pembroke and Carmicheal Locklear of Maxton were married in First United Methodist Church in Pembroke at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, April 14. The Revs. Jerry Lowry and Lindbergh Chavis officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nickie L. Locklear of Pembroke and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bracy B. Locklear and the late Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Maynor of Pembroke. She graduated from West Robeson High School in 1987 and attends Richmond Community College School of Nursing. She is employed by Jewels by Park Lane.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Locklear of Maxton and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Locklear of Maxton and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dial of Pembroke. He graduated from West Robeson High School in 1986 and attended Robeson Community College. He is co-owner of R.L. Locklear's Construction Company of Maxton.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a long gown of white satin. It had a sweetheart neckline and leg-of-mutton sleeves. The bodice and sleeves were trimmed with imported lace hand-beaded with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The skirt was a sheath design with a lace border and an attached cathedral-length train. The train had imported lace appliques which were also beaded.

Her vee-shaped headpiece of pearls and pearl sprays was trimmed with a back puff and fingertip illusion. She carried a nosegay of flowers.

The maid of honor was Tonya Locklear of Pembroke. She wore a long gown of Cerise satin, styled with a scoop neckline with beaded appliques accenting the sides, shiired sleeves and a butterfly peplum. She carried a long stemmed calla lily.

Bridesmaids were Faline Locklear of Chapel Hill; Carla Oxendine of Atlanta, Ga.; Jayne Lowry of Charlotte; Maria Locklear of Greensboro; Kim Strickland, Danita Thomas and Nanci Locklear, all of Pembroke; Penny Locklear of Maxton; and Demetria Hunt of Lumberton. They were gowned like the honor attendant.

The best man was the father of the groom. Ushers were Nick Locklear, Venus Maynor, Kelvin Elk, Ronald Locklear, Trent Deese, Wayne Maynor and Harvey Deese, all of Pembroke; David Locklear, Kinyata Locklear and Robin Strickland, all of Maxton; and Anthony Barnes of Rowland.

The groom wore a black formal tailcoat with matching formal trousers, wing-tip shirt, white vest and tie. The ushers were dressed like the groom with Cerise accessories.

Other members of the wedding party were Catisha Freeman, flower girl, and Teddy Chavis and Patrick Lynch, ringbearers.

The wedding dinner was held on April 14 in Pembroke. It was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Nickie L. Locklear and Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Locklear.

The rehearsal dinner was held on April 13 at Holiday Inn in Laurinburg. It was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Locklear.

A Gift So Precious and Dear

Sometimes life gets too busy;
Sometimes life gets too tough;
Sometimes we don't say "Thank You"
And often, not nearly enough.
So if the "thank you's" haven't been many,
if there have been only a few;
I'm sure if they only realized,
How many there would be for you!
But just in case you wonder
and might not fail to hear,
let me whisper this sweet "thank you"
for giving life, something so precious & dear.

Solomon never knew Mom!

Wise King Solomon sought long and hard for his 'virtuous woman', but we need only look to the Moms of our youth to find ours.

Who but Job could fathom the patience Mom must have had to endure with us from diapers to dress pants, nursing us through the un-numbered childhood diseases?

It's a pleasure to count ourselves partners with the Moms in our community, watching over the health and well-being of their families. Join with us in wishing Moms everywhere a well-deserved HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!
