DARLENE ROBERTS BECOMES 113TH MEMBER OF PSU CHANCELLOR'S CLUB

Darlene Roberts of Pembroke, executive director of the Pembroke Redevelopment Commission, has become the 113th member of the PSU Chancellor's Club.

An '85 graduate of PSU with a B.S. in business administration, she served on active duty with the U.S. Army Military Police for almost three years, attaining the rank of first lieutenant. She was stationed at Ft. Bragg and Ft. McClellan, Ala.

Ms. Roberts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Roberts Jr.

In her position with the Pembroke Redevelopment Commission, she has a budget of a half million dollars and a staff of eight. She is responsible for 241 units.

As a Chancellor's Club member, she pledges to donate $1,000 a year to PSU for a period of 10 years or an equivalent gift.

Commenting upon her becoming a member, Ms. Roberts said: "If I'm going to put my money anywhere, it should be in education because I believe education is the greatest equalizer and opportunity creator. I want to give to PSU because it's a hometown university, and I'm very proud of it. The Chancellor's Club is a wonderful thing because it's not one race, but all races banding together to accomplish something very worthwhile. It's an organization that benefits Robeson County and the entire state."

As a Chancellor's Club member, Ms. Roberts, 29, will receive many privileges at PSU.

For more information on the Chancellor's Club, telephone Elizabeth McIntyre, PSU resource development officer, at 521-4214, Ext. 533.

PSU APPROVED AS INSTITUTION WITH BUDGET FLEXIBILITY

The UNC Board of Governors recently approved PSU as one of 10 campuses within the 16-campus UNC system that applied for "special responsibility" designations.

This means that PSU Chancellor Joseph Oxendine immediately is given greater autonomy over the campus finances, attaining what has been described as "budget flexibility."

Other UNC system schools which also won that designation were East Carolina University, Elizabeth City State University, Fayetteville State University, the N.C. School of the Arts, University, UNC-Chapel Hill, UNC-Charlotte, UNC-Greensboro and UNC-Wilmington.

ANGELA SUCHANIC IS NEW PSU DIRECTOR OF INSTITUTIONAL RESEARCH

Dr. Angela Suchanic, 29, a native of Charlottesville, Va., has been named PSU director of Institutional research for assessment and also assistant professor of political science.

Dr. Suchanic earned her B.S. in government and social science at Longwood College in Farmville, Va., and both her M.P.A. in public administration and Ed.D. in higher education administration at the University of Delaware.

Prior to joining PSU, she was coordinator of institutional studies at Trenton, NJ State College from 1985-91. She served as coordinator of computer instruction at Pennsylvania State University from 1984-85.

MELANIE OWENS BECOMES TELECOMMUNICATIONS PRODUCTION COORDINATOR

Melanie Owens, 27, a native of Manhattan, Kan., is the new production coordinator for telecommunications at PSU.

She earned her B.C. in business administration and marketing at Kansas State University and is married to Captain Samuel Owens, a native of Philadelphia.

REISING CONDUCTS WORKSHOP FOR S.C. TEACHERS AT COLUMBIA

Dr. Robert Reising, PSU professor of communicative arts, recently conducted a full-day workshop for experienced teachers of advanced placement English from across the state of North Carolina.

The workshop, held in Columbia, SC had the topic: "Literature and Composition."

Reising was invited by the College Board and Educational Testing Service to conduct the workshop.
